MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, May 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Taylor, of Binghamton, and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Mack and George Mack, of this place, are at St. Joseph's today attending the funeral of a relative, the late Patrick Griffin, whose death occurred at his home at Forest Lake on Thursday night. Mr. Griffin was one of the oldest residents of Susquehanna county, being 97 years, two months and one day old.

The seating capacity of Village Hall will be taxed to the straining point on Wednesday evening, judging by the enthusiasm with which has been received the announcement that the famous Metropolitan Male quartette, of New York, will give one of their popular concerts for the benefit of Rough and Ready Fire Company at the time and place above named. Tickets, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Diagram of seats at McCausland's and sale opens on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The much advertised conference of Republican insurgents to have been held at the Tarbell House in this place on Saturday failed to materialize. It is thought by some that there was nothing in the conference story at any time, while others are positive that such a gathering was planned and was abandoned only when the publicity given the affair through the press had made it impracticable to hold it.

Owing to the illness of Pastor Thomas, the Baptist pulpit today was occupied by Rev. D. C. Barnes.

Judge Jessup's family has returned to Montrose for the summer and have opened the family residence on Monument Square.

R. S. Searle has sold the Cooley house on South Cherry street, which he recently purchased to M. V. Bisbee; consideration, $900.

Mrs. Harriet F. Kent, of Buffalo, who recently purchased the James D. Smillie property, arrived in Montrose on Thursday evening, accompanied by her daughter, and stayed until yesterday, stopping at D. R. Lathrope's. Mrs. Kent and family will come to Montrose next month and take possession of their newly acquired residence for the season.

Mrs. Edwin Lathrope, after a six months' visit with relatives living at various points in Connecticut, returned to her home in this place on Thursday.

Ex-Sheriff Ward Deuel and wife, of Little Meadows, spent several days with friends in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stewart and son, of Wilkes-Barre, are guests of Mrs. S. W. Stewart, on South Main street.

The residence of A. H. McCollum, on Maple street, is being re-painted in handsome tints.

Ollin B. Tingley has gone to Stevensville to clerk for Merchant Whitney.

AVOCA.

The death of Mrs. John Brennan occurred yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. F. O'Brien, after several weeeks' illness of liver trouble. Deceased was 63 years of age, and had been a resident of Avoca for more than thirty years. Her life was well worthy of imitation, endeared as she was with many excellent traits of character that make a good neighbor and a fond mother. Her sufferings were great, but she endured them with that spirit of fortitude that characterized her Christian nature. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Robert Thulin, of Lawrenceville; Mrs. Edward Regan, Mrs. M. F. O'Brien, Miss Jennie and John, of New York city, also two sisters, Mrs. Brown, of Dupont, and Mrs. Kelly, of Pittston, and one brother, Thomas Keating, in Colorado. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's church. Interment will be in Pittston cemetery.

Early yesterday morning fire broke out in the residence of Samuel Bird, on Vine street, and in a short while only a remnant of the building was left. The origin is unknown, but it is supposed to be caused by a defective flue. It had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. The family saved few articles of furniture. The Hose company was on the scene in a few minutes and succeeded in saving the adjoining properties.

The funeral of Matthew Calvey took place on Saturday afternoon. The United workmen, of which he was a member, led the cortege. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among them being a standing cross and anchor, given by the Hillside union. The pall-bearers were Frank Holleran, John McCabe, Thomas Mulrooney, William Clarke, Peter Hopkins. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

The St. Aloysius society elected the following officers yesterday: President, John Reap; vice-president, Patrick Morahan; recording secretary, Anthony Clifford; financial secretary, William Golden; treasurer, John Gardner; marshal, Timothy King; sergeant-at-arms, M. Loughney; stewards, William Studders, Walter Boylan, Peter Dunnigan; financial committee, William Clarke, Martin O'Malley, Thomas Reap; delegates to Scranton convention, James Earley and Thomas Flannery.

Appeal day, Friday, April 26, 1901, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., at the Arbitration Room, Court House, in the city of Scranton.

Any person so ascertained or assessed who shall fail to attend such appeal or to appeal from the decision of the appraiser to the Common Pleas within ten days thereafter will not be permitted to set up as a defense to the recovery of the amount of the license which he is required to pay when suit shall be brought, that he is not a dealer in merchandise, etc., etc. The law further provides that it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to sue for the recovery of all licenses duly returned to him by the mercantile appraiser if not paid on or before the first day of July in each and every year, within ten days after date, and said treasurer shall not be discharged from any such license unless he brings suit to recover the same on or before that date.

THOMAS MARSHALL,
Appraiser.

Dr. Browning's fee of $761,000 for medical attendance on Senator C. L. Magee recalls some other stiff doctor's bills. Browning's attendance will be remembered, covered twenty-two months. For attending Samuel J. Tilden seven years and eleven months, Dr. Charles E. Simmons charged $145,000. The surgeons who for ten weeks attended President Garfield asked $65,970 each and got $67,500. For a two days' visit on the czar of Russia Professor Zacharine, of Moscow, was paid $60,000; the fee of the doctor who pulled the former Prince of Wales through four weeks of typhoid was $50,000, and Sir Morrell Mackenzie got $100,000 for attending "Crown Fritz." But Browning's bill beats them all. It is in a class by itself.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS TODAY.

ACADEMY—Huntley-Jackson company. Night.

Huntley-Jackson Company.

At the Academy of Music this week a number of the plays of Lincoln J. Carter will be presented by the Huntley-Jackson company, which opens its week's engagement tonight.

The company comes very highly recommended and though playing at low prices are said to be equal to many who charge more and give less. This evening they present Lillian Lewis' great success, "An Innocent Sinner." During the week such well known plays as "For Liberty and Love," "A Night Off," "Michael Strogoff," "Roanoke" and others of equal importance, each a veritable scenic production.
