BOARD OF HEALTH SENDS OUT WARNING

Alive to the Danger of a Spread of the Small Pox Epidemic in Luzerne County, the Members Admonish Residents to Be Vaccinated—Action at Last Night's Special Meeting.

Anticipating the spread of smallpox, now epidemic in Luzerne county, the Carbondale Board of Health, in session last night, specially called to move in this direction, issued a warning to the residents of this community to undergo vaccination, if not already vaccinated, and to take the same precaution with respect to their children.

At the meeting were Dr. John S. Niles, president; Secretary Evans and Messrs Wylie and Burke.

It was decided to employ the press to convey the board's admonition, and through the Tribune, this morning, the public is first notified of the precautions which this body in its duty to preserve the health of the community, urges the residents to employ to safeguard themselves and their families.

The matter was thoroughly canvassed, and while there is no reason to become alarmed, yet the members felt that prudence dictated the steps which they urge through this notice, while at the same time, this was the first duty of the board—to warn the community to adopt every safeguard against the approach of the disease.

It was decided also to forward a circular letter to the physicians of the city notifying them of the action of the board in admonishing the public of the imperative necessity of vaccination and advising the medical men to be prepared with a supply of vaccine in the event of the expected response to the public order.

The action which the board took last night is as far as this body could proceed in carrying out the idea of vaccination, under existing circumstances at least.

So far as the school children are concerned, the board has no means, even if it were necessary, and there is no thought of such, to compel vaccination. The penalty is to keep them from attending school, but as the schools will close next week this would loose its force. However, it is not expected that there will be any hesitation in complying with the request of the board, which is acting solely in the interest of the public health: and a ready compliance on all sides is one of the first results expected from the issuance of the admonition conveyed in this article.

THE MUNICIPAL WATER PLANT

It Has to Pass Through Three Readings in Select Council.

As announced in yesterday's Tribune, the municipal water plant ordinance passed common council finally, at its meeting Monday night, and will come up in select council on Monday evening next.

There was only one dissenting voice, that of A. T. Thompson.

In answer to Mr. Whitfield as to whether or not it was certain that the plant could be constructed at a cost within the amount provided for in the bond ordinance, L. A. Roberts, of the citizens' water committee, came on the floor and made a lengthy explanation, which seemed quite satisfactory to Mr. Whitfield, and which served also to enlighten a number of the councilmen. Among Mr. Roberts' statements were that the proposed plant would be a saving of $10,000 each year to the taxpayers of the city. The water shed would supply the proposed reservoir with 326,000,000 gallons, its proposed capacity, enough to supply a city of 15,000 inhabitants for seven and one-third months, allowing 100 gallons per day per inhabitant. No artesian wells are necessary, the average flow of water this spring being sufficient to fill the enormous reservoir in thirty days.

Mr. Roberts said that the proposed tunnel from the reservoir could be driven for about $7,000. The estimates of the cost of the plant and all of the work attached thereto were arrived at after the most careful and exact surveys, and they were subscribed to by Engineer A. B. Dunning, of Scranton, and City Engineer Kupp.

Mr. Roberts spoke with the air of one who seemed secure in the knowledge of his subject, and that the councilmen appreciated this circumstance was evident when the vote was recorded, and only one dissenting voice was heard, that of Mr. Thompson.

Other matters of common council were concurrent resolutions as follows:

J. Thompson's resolution moving the watering trough from the Robinson lumber yard to the corner of Cedar avenue and Belmont street.

J. F. Mannion's resolution accepting the bond of the city solicitor.

J. Thompson's resolution instructing the city engineer to notify the Park Paving company to repair the defects in the Belmont street pavement.

Fletcher's resolution to enlarge the platform in the council rooms.

Battle's resolution instructing the city engineer to do the work provided for in the joint street committee's annual schedule was concurred in on motion of Nealon.

The ordinance licensing transient merchants was reported on favorably by the license committee and ordered printed.

The ordinance fixing the salaries of the policemen was passed on third and final reading.

The committee reported favorably on A. T. Thompson's resolution granting a new set of wheels and axles for the Mitchell's hose wagon and the resolution was adopted.

A communication on which no action was taken, was read from the Reynshanhurst Water company, in which it was offered to supply water to the Garfield avenue watering trough at 10 cents per thousand gallons.

Giles & Loveland sent in an offer to settle the balance due them for sewer work at $5 less, the amount estimated by the city engineer to repair the catch basins.

Sanitary Policeman Moffitt reported as a nuisance the stagnant water collected on the land of the Michael B. White estate on South Washington street. After a long debate the matter was referred to the street committee, city engineer and city solicitor. This completed the business of the session.

THE VETS OF 1865 AND 1901.

As They Were, and as They Are.

BY COL. JOHN MCCOMB.

1865.

Back from the war they come;
They march to the stirring drum;
With sinews strong they've led
Where fields were strewn with dead.
They're back but oh, how few!
Our noble boys in blue
Went forth with courage high;
They knew that some must die.
They faced the storms of lead;
Now half of them are dead.

1901.

'Twas many years ago
They fought their country's foe;
And here are some to-day,
Clad in their blue array,
To show how they revere
The memory so dear
Of comrades gone to rest,
By all their country blest.
With flowers they strew the graves
Of our departed braves;
They march with feeble tread,
Old Glory at their head;
They helped to save our land
Which now is grown so grand;
And we should not forget
To honor the "old vet."

MONEY ORDER CHANGE.

Will Not Be Payable at any Office as Heretofore.

An important change will go into effect in the money order system of the postal department, commencing with June 1, one which will especially interest those persons who make frequent use of this convenient means of transmitting money.

Since March 12 of last year money orders, wherever issued, have been payable at any postoffice in the county. For example, a money order issued here and payable to a resident of Scranton would not necessarily have to be presented for payment at that office but would be honored at any postoffice in the county and the money paid over on the same. This was quite a convenience and accommodation which was generally appreciated. The new order from the postal department, however, will do away with this convenience and there will be a return to the old order of procedure, namely, money orders being payable only at the offices to which they are made payible. It is simply a return to the system that was in vogue before March 12, 1900, when the change was directed to be made.

The reason for the change is due to the fact that the comptroller of the treasury has decided that the postal authorities misinterpreted the law when they decided that orders were payable at any office, regardless of the place named. As the comptroller is authority in such matters, the postal department accordingly reversed itself and after June 1 the old system will be again in vogue.

MR. HUGHES HONORED.

Mr. Hughes has thrice filled this same office, and his selection for a fourth term attests the regard and value which are placed on his activity in behalf of the order.

Mrs. Mary A. Hughes, wife of Mr. Hughes, was likewise honored. At the state assembly of the Daughters of Rebekah, the auxiliary to the Odd Fellows, she was appointed grand master's deputy for Lackawanna county. This office Mrs. Phoebe Skillhorn, of West Scranton, has filled for years.

INTEREST MANIFESTED IN OUT-DOOR SPORTS

Columbias Organize a Ball Team, Also the Clerks—A Season of Enjoyment Anticipated by the City's Active Sports.

Interest in out out-door sports and pleasures grow with the advancing season. Base ball is not wanting in interest, even though Carbondale has no league team. The game still has its keen pleasures and these are not lost to the young men of the town. The Crescent team, which is Carbondale's representative nine, is alive with base ball enthusiasm and the players are anxious to test their mettle with nearby teams. The team from Simpson has the air of a rival and the nine looks just the sort of team that the Crescents believe they could swat and make look like unto as many home-run balls.

The Crescents, however, are but a few of the many young men of the town who believe that base ball is by no means a dead sport in this community. There are the members of the Columbia Hose company for instance. They can play ball and good ball, too, if you don't believe it—well, just ask them.

The Columbias have organized a team—"a" team it must be borne in mind, for there is material about this hose house from which three teams could be formed. The members, however, are content with one good representative nine.

In assigning the players, Captain P. F. Fox was somewhat puzzled and perplexed, for there is not one of the men who would not be equally at home in any other position than the one he is filling. It is no small wonder, therefore, that with such an array of talent before him that Captain Fox should become embarrassed.

The positions as determined now are as follows: John Hart, Charles Hull, catchers; Frank Boylan, Edward Haley, pitchers; James Boylan, first base; Matt. J. Murphy, second base; P. F. Fox, shortstop and captain; John Delaney, third base; W. J. Horan, left field; Edward Shannon, center field; Joe O'Neill, right field.

What to do with the surplus players, Captain Fox was at a loss to know, but finally decided that coachers would be valuable allies, and for these positions Chief McNulty, James Gorman and J. F. McDonald were nominated. There was need, also, for substitute players, and these were to be found: Joe Carroll, P. H. Murray, "Billy" Peel, "Billy" McDonough, Mart McAndrews, Patrick Purcell and Chas. Clune. The scorers not having been chosen, Abe Sahm, Charles Blair and John Loftus were named to officiate.

There was no one to contest Joseph Lavey's right to the office of ticket-taker and he was accordingly invested with that right.

The Columbias are ready for the base ball fray at any time, now, and they are particularly anxious that the Mitchell company's players, if they have gotten into condition yet, take cognizance of this fact, and accept the challenge that this hint conveys.

The Columbias are by no means the only organization that foresee the possibilities of a season of pleasures in out-door sports. The Clerks' association has been looking in the same direction and the young men behind the counters also have a nine that knows how to engage in the national pastime and "a few things on the side," as "Chuck" Conners would remark.

Martie Gallagher has been the popular choice as captain, while Thomas Moran has been accorded the position of manager. A scanning of the players' list reveals a team that will be able to infuse spirit and energy into the game and there need be no fear of dull moments while the clerks are on the diamond.

The players thus far selected are: Martie Gallagher, catcher; William Opie, pitcher; Frank Kelly, shortstop; Joseph Gilhool, first base; Thos. Shannon, second base; Joseph Carroll, third base; John Brown, left field; M. J. Horan, right field; Elmer Brokenshire, center field.

A notice will be issued soon, calling the team together for the opening game.

Another sporting item of interest is the announcement of the tug-of-war team that has been formed among the athletic and powerful members of the Columbia Hose company. The personnel of this band of powerful tug-of-war men is as follows: John Delaney, Joseph Coughlin, James Boylan, Thos. Coughlin, William Peel.

It is hardly necessary to add that a favorable hearing will be given any challenge from similar teams hereabouts, preference being given to the Andrew Mitchell Hose company.

Recovered the Watch and Coat.

Chief McAndrew yesterday restored to a young man named McKune, of Forty-second street, a coat and watch which he lost about six months ago. One night during the early winter, McKune went off on some sort of celebration and during his wanderings he either lost his overcoat and watch or they were stolen from him. At any rate, both articles disappeared, though McKune was unable to account for their loss. The matter was reported to Chief McAndrew, who at the time was unable to locate the articles, because of McKune's lack of knowledge as to how he parted with them. Some one, however, found the coat and the watch and kept possession of them in the hope of locating the unfortunate loser. Surmising that the chief would be able to locate the party, he brought the coat and watch to the station house. McKune identified the property and was greatly rejoiced when Chief McAndrew handed them to him.

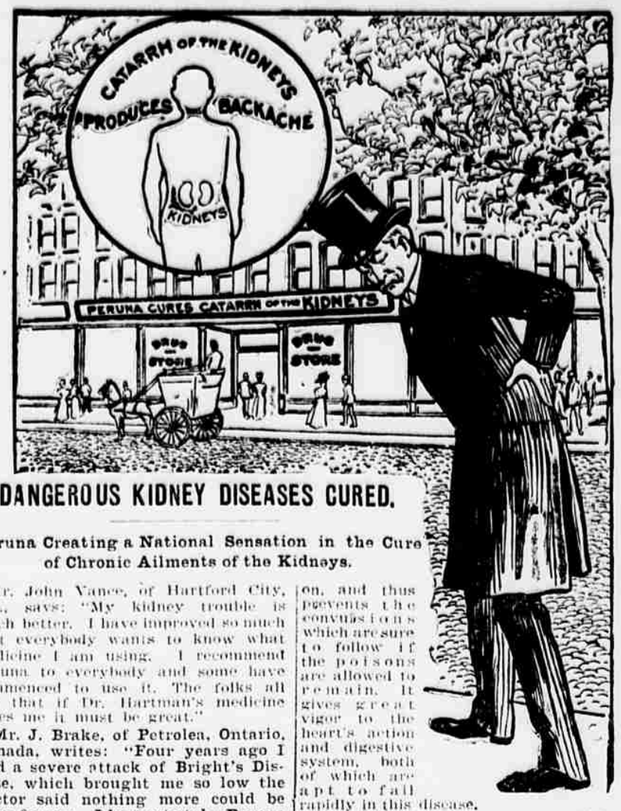
PE-RU-NA CURES CATARRH OF KIDNEYS EVERY TIME



DANGEROUS KIDNEY DISEASES CURED.

Peruna Creating a National Sensation in the Cure of Chronic Ailments of the Kidneys.

Mr. John Vance, of Hartford City, Ind., says: "My kidney trouble is much better. I have improved so much that everybody wants to know what medicine I am using. I recommend Peruna to everybody and some have commenced to use it. The folks all say that if Dr. Hartman's medicine cures me it must be great."

Mr. J. Brake, of Petrolea, Ontario, Canada, writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of Bright's Disease, which brought me so low the doctor said nothing more could be done for me. I began to take Peruna and Manalin, and in three months I was a well man, and have continued so ever since."

At the appearance of the first symptom of kidney trouble, Peruna should be taken. This remedy strikes at once the very root of the disease. It at once relieves the catarrhal kidneys of the stagnant blood, preventing the escape of serum from the blood. Peruna stimulates the kidneys to excrete from the blood the accumulating poison, and thus prevents the convulsions which are sure to follow if the poisons are allowed to remain. It gives great vigor to the heart's action and digestive system, both of which are apt to fail rapidly in this disease.

Peruna cures catarrh of the kidneys simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
