HOME MATTERS.

RAILROAD MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, will be held at the Board of Trade Rooms, on this, Monday evening, November 24th, to consider the subject of the construction of a Railroad from this city, by way of the valley of the Allegheny and its feeders, to Olean, in the State of New York. John Sloan, Esq., Civil Engineer, of Clarion county, who has surveyed a part of the route, under the instruction of the people of Clarion and Jefferson counties, will be present, with a diagram showing the route, and will, with other gentlemen, address the meeting.

By order of the COMMITTEE.

SERMONS TO YOUNG MEN.—A large number of gentlemen residing in Allegheny City, last week addressed a letter to the Rev. T. J. Simpson, requesting him to deliver a series of sermons, designed specially for the benefit of young men.

The reverend gentleman, although his time is very much occupied, since, in addition to his pastoral duties, he is laboring strenuously to build up a new church in that city, kindly consented. We will give due notice of the time when the series will be commenced.

HOSTILITY TO THE UNITED STATES.—John Johnston was brought before Alderman Lewis, on Saturday, by some United States Dragoons, charged with levying war against the soldiery stationed in the Rendezvous, on Market street. He is quite an old man, and in no way qualified for a recruit, but, notwithstanding, he desired to enlist, and took a refusal to allow him that privilege, in such dudgeon, that he commenced an attack on the "garrison" with stones, whereupon he was taken prisoner, and marched to the Alderman's office. His honor committed him for twenty days to the County Prison, and he was led off, breathing threats of the direst vengeance against the soldiers, and resolving to utterly demolish their fortress when he should be released by the civil authorities.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—A man named Robert Mitchell, made a savage assault last Saturday, on John Wallace, in a carpenter's shop situated in the Sixth Ward. He seized a hatchet and inflicted a ghastly wound with it, on poor Wallace's head, felling him to the earth, and so severely injuring him, that his recovery is pronounced impossible.

Mitchell was arrested, and taken before Alderman Major, by whom he was committed to jail for further hearing.

Since the above was written, we learn that hopes of the sufferer's recovery are entertained, though he is still in a very critical condition. Had it not been for his hat, which, to some extent, broke the force of the blow, he would have been inevitably killed. The hatchet, glancing from his head, also made a deep wound in his shoulder.

HANDMAID TO THE PIANO.—This excellent book, composed by P. B. Templeton, Esq., will be ready for distribution some time this week. In point of typographical execution, it is the neatest work, ever got up in Pittsburgh, and reflects much credit on Mr. Havens, the printer. It is elegantly bound, and gilt edged. Due notice of its appearance will be given.

BURGLARY.—Between the hours of one and two o'clock yesterday morning, the dwelling house of Samuel Dunbar, in the Sixth Ward, was entered by burglars, while Mr. D. was absent, attending to his duties as Lieutenant of the Night Police. He went up stairs, and rummaged through the sleeping rooms, but did not succeed in getting any thing. An alarm was raised, but the rascal escaped unharmed; a large and very fierce dog kept on the premises, having been previously poisoned.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

SATURDAY, Nov. 22.

Present the Hon. William B. McClure, President Judge, and William Boggs and T. L. McMillan, Associate Judges.

The Court was occupied the entire day, on Saturday, in hearing the arguments of counsel, in the case of Mrs. Isaac Gregg vs. Isaac Gregg. A writ of de lunatico inquirendo, had been prayed for, which was tried some time ago, before the Hon. W. W. Irwin, Commissioner. The jury empannelled in the case, returning a verdict finding Mr. Gregg sane.

The counsel for the relator, thereupon filed exceptions to the report of the Commissioner, which came up for argument on Saturday. No decision has been pronounced.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—We learn that the Central Railroad, will be completed to the farm of Mr. Hamilton Beatty, seven miles east of Greensburg, towards the close of the first week in December.

GAS MEETING.—A meeting of all persons in Allegheny, favorable to the introduction of gas into that city, will be held in the Council Chambers to night, when the various committees, appointed at the last meeting, are expected to report.

BEATING HIS WIFE.—Jacob Needs was committed to prison on Saturday, by his honor, Mayor Fleming, on a charge of beating his wife.

BURGLAR ARRESTED.—A man named Hagan, was brought before Mayor Guthrie on Saturday. Although just released from the Penitentiary, he had, we are informed, a large number of skeleton keys in his possession. He was committed to prison for twenty days, as a vagrant, having no ostensible means of livelihood.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Arthurs, held an inquest on Friday last, on the body of John Bailey, a Scotchman, at the boarding house of Mrs. Bradshaw, Pitt Alley, Allegheny, who had died suddenly on Thursday evening, when in the act of drinking a glass of water. Drs. Dickson and Herron, made a post portem examination of his remains, and testified that in their opinion, the deceased had come to his death from the effects of pulmonary apoplexy. A verdict to that effect was accordingly rendered by the jury.

ROBBERY.—The house of Mrs. Nieman, Smithfield street, was entered by some rascal in broad day light, last week, and fifteen dollars and a silver watch stolen from it. Quite a number of persons must be engaged in this business, as the robberies are very numerous.

VENTRILOQUISM.—Professor Harrington, who is said to be the best Ventriloquist in the United States, and, in addition, an admirable performer in all feats of sleight of hand, will give an exhibition at the Masonic Hall, this evening.

He is spoken of by the Eastern Press in terms of the highest commendation, and will doubtless attract a crowded house.

LARCENY.—Michael Shee was yesterday committed by Mayor Guthrie, charged, on oath of Jacob Attenbax, with larceny.

GAS.—Many of the lamps were lit at five o'clock last evening, twilight having come on before that time.

A ROW.—Quite an excitement was caused in the Allegheny market, last market day, by a quarrel between some farmers and butchers. The countrymen have the privilege of selling beef, mutton, veal, or pork, raised upon their own farms, on the outside stalls of the market, at a trifling rent, while the regular butchers are heavily taxed. It was asserted that some of the farmers were in the habit of buying cattle in town, and driving them to the country, where they were killed and brought to market. To this the butchers objected, and hence the quarrel.

ARRESTED.—Mayor Guthrie received intelligence, by a telegraphic despatch from the Philadelphia police, of an extensive robbery in that city, to the amount of two thousand dollars. Two men, who gave their names as J. King and Alonzo Walsh, were arrested, at three o'clock on Saturday morning, on suspicion of being concerned in it. They were taken on board of D. Leech & Co's Canal boats, and had only $50 in their possession.

FEDERAL STREET.—The employees of Capt. Tyler, Street Commissioner of Allegheny, are very busily engaged in cleaning Federal street, which certainly very much needed it.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

WHEELING, Nov. 22.

A fire broke out last night, on the corner of Union and Main sts., burning out Mrs. Edmondson's confectionary, Alderman & Maxwell's boot and shoe store, Howser, tobaconist, Baird's paint shop, Clemen's cabinet rooms, and Armstrong's lottery office. Alderman & Maxwell's loss was covered by insurance.

The fire, at one time, threatened to destroy a large number of dry goods stores, as the wind was blowing strongly in that direction.

☞My wife had the Rheumatism for 20 years, during that time suffering such severe pain in every part of her body that she could not sleep without taking large doses of opium; having no appetite, she was reduced to almost a skeleton; every joint was swollen greatly, and hands, knees and neck covered with large lumps; the cords were hard and contracted, so that her arms, legs and body were so twisted and drawn that she was obliged to lie in bed constantly. During 20 years she got nothing to give any permanent relief till she tried H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment; of this she used five bottles of the dollar size, and the swellings have all gone, the pain has entirely left, she sleeps soundly, is more fleshy than ever she was in her life, and spins and sews all day. If any one doubts this evidence, he can call at my residence, three miles from Peoria, Ill., and be satisfied.

To the Public.

INDIA RUBBER SHOES.—Our attention has been called to an advertisement by Horace H. Day, published in the New York Herald of 11th July, 1851, and the Courier and Enquirer of same date, in which, after much unmerited abuse of our attorney, Wm. Judson, Esq., he asserts that we dare not charge him with pirating Goodyear's Patent under our own names, and that he does not infringe Goodyear's Patents in the manufacturing of shoes. We have purchased our licenses for the manufacture of India Rubber Shoes under Goodyear's Patents, and paid our money, and are daily paying a tariff for the same; and any other person might have done the same, if disposed to do so, rather than pirate upon Goodyear's Patents. We think it more just to purchase a right, to use a valid patent, than to infringe it. Mr. Day having been prosecuted, acknowledged Goodyear's rights, made a settlement, and agreed in future not to infringe his patents. He is now attempting, not only to infringe said patents, but to injure ourselves, who have, for a large consideration, purchased our licenses and now work under them...
