PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

SCENE IN A JUSTICE ROOM.—The Hartford Times vouches for the following story:

"Pat Malone, you are fined five dollars for assault and battery on Mike Sweeny."

"I've the money in my pocket, and I'll pay the fine if yer honor will give me the receate."

"We give no receipts here. We just take the money. You will not be called on a second time for your fine."

"But, yer honor, I'll not be wanting to pay the same without I get a receate."

"What do you want with it?"

"If your honor will write one and give it to me I will tell you."

"Well, there is your receipt. Now what do you want with it?"

"I'll tell yer honor. You see, I'll be after dying one of these days, and when I get to the gate of heaven I'll rap, and St. Peter will say, 'Who's there?' and I'll say, 'it's me, Pat Malone,' and he'll say, 'What do you want?' and I'll say, 'I want to come in.' Then he'll say, 'Did you behave yourself like a decent boy in the other world, and pay all yer little fines and such things?' and I'll say, 'Yes, yer holiness, I paid them all of them;' and he'll want to see my receates, and I'll put my hand into my pocket and take my receats and give it to him; and I'll not have to go plodding all over perdition to find yer honor to get one."

AN INDEPENDENT VOTER.—"Make way for a bladependent voter," said a man at a recent election at New Orleans.

"Why, Wony good man," said the clerk, "it's not an hour since you deposited your vote at this very poll."

"I know it, I know it," says the voter; "that was the Democratic ticket; this 'ere is the Whig."

"But if you strive to vote twice, I shall have you arrested."

"You will, will you?" shouted the son of the sovereign people; "them I say if I'm denied the right of voting for the Whigs, after going the whole ticket for the Democrats, there ain't no universal suffrage, that's all. It's a darned one-sided business, take it all round."

POLITICAL INCERDULITY.—General Jackson once said to a candidate for office—"They will charge you with stealing, but never mind that." After the election, the same man waited upon Old Hickory again. "Well" said he, "did they not charge you with stealing?" "Yes, General, and they proved it, too; but the Democracy in my district don't believe in Whig evidence, and I was elected in spite of it."

"Oh mother, mother, come quick, Angelina Arrabella has Gen. Pierced!"

"What my child?"

"Angelina has seen a toad and Gen. Pierced"

"What does the child mean? Tell me this minute what dreadful thing my pet darling has done."

"Why she's Gen. Pierced—she's fainted."

Milton was asked by a friend whether he would instruct his daughter in the different languages? To which he replied, "No, sir, one tongue is sufficient for a woman."

Who was the first man that swindled the Greek slave.

Hiram Powers. He chiselled her out of a block of marble.

A FARCE was produced in Bannister's prime, under the title of "Fire and Water." "I predict its fate," said he. "What fate?" whispered the anxious author at his side. "What fate!" said Bannister; "Why what can fire and water produce but a hiss!"

Mr. R. E. Sellers—I have used your Cough Syrup in my family for more than three years, and I do not think it can get for cough. B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

THIS safest and most effective remedy for Worms, in Children and Adults, that has ever been discovered. The following testimony of its good effects is offered.

From Mr. HENRY OTT, Merchant,
CRAWFORDSVILLE, Indiana, Oct. 11 51.
Messrs. B. A. Fahnestock & Co.—Gentlemen—Your Vermifuge is decidedly popular in this vicinity. I could take hundreds of bottles of your preparation to the good effects resulting from its use, among my customers. I unconditionally recommend it as the best article for the expulsion of worms from the system. My sales are largely increasing, having sold more this season than any preceding year since I have been in trade. I keep on sale several other Vermifuges, but sell more of your than of all others.
Respectfully Yours,
HENRY OTT.

THE Microscope reveals what dentists have long asserted, viz: That the teeth are infested with parasitical Plants and Animals, unless frequently and thoroughly cleansed. Think of a small Botanical and Zoological collection in your mouth, bringing tooth ache, fetid breath, swelled face, nasal twang, bad metals, and the dentists horrid array of Tools. The best preparation to cleanse the teeth and avoid all these difficulties, as well as to cure the worst mouth is Patterson's Fragrant; its operation is truly surprising. Sold and warranted by the principal Druggists, and by the proprietor,

L. A. Page's Anodyne Oil.

THE only positive and sure remedy for a most distressing disease, viz: Piles or Hemmorrhoids—the nineteenth century can boast of no greater discovery, or one more valuable than this.
A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
"This may certify that I have used Messrs. Page & Parsell's Anodyne Oil in my practice, for some time, and with the utmost confidence recommend it as a sovereign remedy in that most distressing malady, viz piles.
I feel satisfaction in recommending its use to the public universally.
