At a meeting called for the purpose, at the Seventh Ward Public School House, on Friday evening the 17th inst., a Scott and Graham Club was formed, and the following officers selected to serve during the campaign:

Wm. M. Arthurs, Esq., President; Robt. King, Treasurer; C. G. Rogers, Secretary; and Wm. McCutcheon, Robert King, L. T. Uhlils, Biddle Arthurs, and Lewis Coch, Executive Committee.

After enrolling the Hz. Com. to furnish a banner and make arrangements for singers and speakers, the Club adjourned to meet at the same place on Tuesday evening, 21st instant, at 7½ o'clock, when several addresses are expected.

BRIDGE CASE.—The Chancery branch of the Bridge Case, will be argued this morning in the Supreme Court.

FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Sandusky street Baptist Church of Allegheny city, are preparing for a festival to be given in Lafayette Hall, in this city, on Thursday evening, the 30th inst., there being no hall on the Allegheny side of the river suitable for such a purpose.

LARGE EGG.—Mr. Edward Gilliss, on Saturday left an egg at our office which weighs a quarter of a pound. It was laid by a hen of what is, we believe, called the "Dunkeye" breed.

LARCENY.—Henry Smith and John Siegle was brought before the Mayor on Saturday charged, on oath of William Davidson, with stealing bolts and screws from the steamer Wallsville last week. Siegle was finally committed, and Smith for further hearing.

THE JAIL.—Twenty six persons were committed to prison last week, for trial at the next term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and thirty nine for minor offences. During the same time forty two were discharged.

HABEAS CORPUS.—John Bates, accused of larceny, alleged to have been committed in stealing some mahogany veneers, the property of Ryan & McKee was on Saturday brought before the Court of Quarter Sessions, and discharged on bail.

ARSON.—Jacob Rugg, a brass finisher, formerly in the employment of Long, Gallagher & Co., was arrested, and taken before the Mayor, on Saturday, charged, on oath of H. Gallagher, with arson. The accused was committed to prison for further hearing. Our readers will remember that the brass foundry belonging to Long & Gallagher was on fire on Friday night, though fortunately it did not sustain any material damage.

DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court was in session on Saturday. The argument list was taken up, but no business of general importance transacted.

LECTURES.—The Rev. Mr. Baird will deliver this evening, in the 3d Presbyterian Church, a Free Lecture on the Rulers of Europe and the character of the Courts, at 7½ o'clock.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.

The Pacific arrived this evening at a quarter before five. She left Liverpool on the 8th at 2 o'clock P. M., bringing 107 passengers.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.—On Tuesday evening cotton was less buoyant, the prices favoring the buyer. The sales for the last three days were 19,500 bales, of which the speculators and exporters took 2,500 Fair Orleans 6¾; middling 5¾; Mobile fair 6; middling 5¾; Uplands fair 6; middling 5¾.

The Corn market was quiet; wheat, limited inquiry at 1d decline. Good Flour wanted at 21s@21s 6d; secondary qualities heavy. Corn scarce. Richardson & Brothers quote prime yellow at 29s@29s 6d; mixed 28s 6d; Orleans white 30s.

Beef and Pork dull at nominal prices. Bacon and Cheese enquired for. In Lard an improved business has been done; sales 60 tons at 58s ⅌ cwt. Sales 1000 bbls Turpentine 8s 6d; sales 500 bbls Rosin 3s 4d@3s 6d. Common 12s 5d. Tallow dull.

LONDON MARKETS.—West India Sugar has advanced 6d; yellow Havana 20s@24s. Coffee brisk. Tea quiet; unchanged. Cotton firm; but little passing hands. Tallow steady. Bread stuffs dull.

Trade in Manchester is not so buoyant; prices steady.

Consols closed 100@100¾.

The manufacturing trades in France are disturbed in consequence of the Commercial Convention with Belgium. The Cotton spinners of Lylle and others have addressed the Chamber of Commerce on the subject. Since the terms of the Convention have been made known many others have been counterwarded.

An improved feeling exists in the Dutch markets. Coffee is in demand. Sugar unaltered. Cotton firm.

The weather throughout the northern parts of Europe has been favorable for harvesting. The wheat crop is of fine quality and there is a good yield. Corn, barley and oats are less promising. In Ireland the crop is everywhere beyond the average; the potato blight will not exceed last year. In Scotland the wheat, a portion of the barley, and the oat crops are safely laid in. By the middle of september, the harvest will be closed throughout England; the crops are generally abundant.

The Africa arrived out on Saturday, at 45 minutes after 11 o'clock in the evening.

Great preparations are making for the reception of Louis Napoleon along the line of his proposed tour.

Petitions still pour in for the restoration of the empire.

The marriage of Napoleon with the Princess Vasa, has been postponed by the advice of the lady's physician, but will certainly take place.—The only alteration in the programme is that the proclamation of the Empire will precede the nuptials instead of following them. It is stated further that the French Senate is convoked in order to obtain a decision of the people on the question of the Empire.

The French Minister at Hagua has been recalled.

MURDER OF A MAN AND HIS WIFE.

BOSTON, Sept. 18.

Taylor, a shoe maker of Natick, was murdered last night, and his wife is mortally wounded. There is evidence of a desperate struggle between the wife and the murderer. Duncan Matthewson, late in the employ of Taylor, has been arrested in this city, on suspicion of being the perpetrator.

NEW YORK, Sep. 18

The steamer Arctic sailed to-day for Liverpool with 99 passengers, and $825,000 in specie.

OSWEGO, Sept. 17.

Last evening about eight o'clock, Mrs. Mary Gregg, wife of Ephraim B. Gregg, of this village, was shot through the body while washing at her pantry window. The shot came from the opposite side, evidently from but a few feet distant. It penetrated the region of the stomach: she linguered in great agony until about three o'clock this morning, when she expired. No trace of the murderer has been found, nor can any cause for the commission of the crime be conjectured.
