Scott Meeting in Birmingham.

☞ A Scott and Graham meeting will be held in the Market Square, in Birmingham, on SATURDAY evening, the 30th inst., at 6½ o'clock.

Governor Johnston, Hon. D. Ritchie, Col. Sahl, H. P. Mueller and others will deliver addresses in English and in German.

Turn out Scott men to the meeting!

NOTICE TO WHIGS.

All Whigs bringing election returns from the different wards, boroughs, and townships, are hereby requested to report the same to the Executive Committee, at the Scott Head Quarters, corner of Fifth and Smithfield, who will be in session until midnight.

ROBT. McKNIGHT,
Ch'm. of Scott Exec. Committee.
(American please copy.)

LAST GRAND RALLY.

The friends of Scott and Graham are invited to attend at McFaden's Ware House, Penn street, on Monday night, at seven o'clock.

All the Speakers and the 2d and 3d Ward Glee Clubs are expected to be present.

"Now boys, let's feat their pulse on the heights."

ROBT. McKNIGHT,
Ch'm. Scott Exec. Com.
(American please copy.)

☞ AN APOLOGY.—The Sheriff's sales, we give today, are so much longer than we had expected, that we are unable to give our usual variety. Our readers will excuse us for this once.

ALL LOOKS WELL!

We regret that we are unable to find room for the proceedings of the immense meeting held in the 4th ward, Allegheny, yesterday, where an immense and most beautiful Scott pole, 185 feet high, was raised. Great enthusiasm prevailed, and the meeting was addressed by several gentlemen, in German and English.

Every where the work goes on gloriously. From all the townships we have the most encouraging accounts. The Whigs are up in their old fashioned strength, and are determined to redeem Old Allegheny from the disgrace of the late defeat, and they will do it.

We see nothing to make any Whig falter or doubt in the aspects of the cam paign. Our opponents bluster most vociferously. Never mind that. It will soon be over, and then the time of Whig rejoicing will come.

DEATH OF JOHN C. CLARK.—The Republic announces the death of John C. Clark, Esq., Solicitor of the Treasury, which event took place at Chemung, New York, on the 25th inst. Mr. Clark was formerly a member of Congress from the State of New York. He was a gentleman of fine abilities and amiable in the walks of private life.

WESTERN RAILROAD STOCKS.—The American Railroad Journal, of the 23d, in closing a favorable notice of the Ohio and Indiana Railroad, says:

"Western projects are, very properly, engrossing more and more of public attention. People now begin to see that the stocks in these roads are the best securities offering. Those who purchased in the outset, with the greatest foresight, and at a low figure, the bonds of the Michigan Southern and Cleveland and Columbus roads, are now eagerly inquiring for their stock, at from 125 to 135. What is true of the above will be true of other western projects."

D. L. Miller, Jr., has formally resigned the position of President of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE INFAMY OF THE POST.

I looked for some reply, in the Post of this morning, to my article which appeared in the Gazette of Wednesday. I certainly thought the editors would lose no time in noticing it, but they have seen fit not to do so—why this silence? Do they feel that they have been convicted of deliberate falsification, and with sympathizing with deserters and traitors? Do they feel that they have placed themselves upon an equality with those wretches, and have voluntarily exhibited themselves to the world, as possessing kindred spirits? Alas! for partisan zeal! Blind, infatuated frenzy! into what deep degradation you sometimes plung men.

I repeat it, why this silence? My charges against the editors, were pointed and specific, and if they be true, must seriously affect their characters as Christian men in the community. I directly and positively charged them, with malicious falsifications, and with sympathizing with deserters and convicted traitors, for the base purpose of deceiving a portion of their fellow citizens: I gave a succinct and clear statement of the factsin relation to the indictments who were arrested in Mexico, and challenged them to deny or controvert them; and I put, categorically to them, two plain interrogatories, and demanded answers; and yet the editors are silent. Now, what is the legitimate inference to be drawn from their silence? clearly that they are guilty, and cannot reply without steeping themselves deeper in infamy. Let me assure the editors that I am serious in this matter and that I will not cease my efforts, until they either answer my charges and interrogatories, or stand, in bold relief before the public, as having wilfully perverted the truth, for the ignoble and disreputable purpose, of deceiving our natural-ized fellow citizens, by endeavoring to induce them to believe that General Scott is a heartless, cruel, and implacable tyrant, who delights in punishing unoffending men. In this position they now are, and I assure them they shall not escape from it. Again I dare them to reply.

I might here close, but I cannot forbear noticing a remark of the editors of the Post, in their paper of yesterday. They say:—"We [they] have defended General Scott, in his public capacity, with all respect." Indeed! Who, sometime since, published a mock pictorial life of Gen. Scott, holding him up to public ridicule; and representing him as a mere soldier of fortune; as sustaining all patriot soldiers and keeping their money; as having been turned out of the army; as riding in a carriage not paid for; and as receiving a fire in the rear at Lundy's Lane? Who has said that Gen. Scott is totally unfit to be trusted with any other duty than acting a battalion in the field?" Who has said that Gen. Scott "is more generally known by the name of 'Fuss and Feathers' than by any other appellation honorable to an American citizen?" And who, in speaking of the punishment of the deserters and traitors in Mexico, has said that "During the Mexican war the most Christian money Scott could extend to Irishmen and Germans who did not come up to his high notions of military discipline, was fifty lashes on the bare back with a whip, to be branded (mind that, American citizens,) on one cheek with the letter 'D,' and to be drummed out of the army." The release of the Post will answer these questions. It is evident from the fact quotation the Messrs. Harper & Phillips, consider desertion from the army in time of war, and treason on the part of the deserters, as being but slight breaches of military discipline and law.

The truth is, that such is the power of party prejudice over the minds of those editors, that their hatred of Gen. Scott is most intense; and from the day of his nomination, their columns have teemed with one continued stream of abuse and vilification of the gallant and distinguished Whig candidate. Neither of them possess soul enough to appreciate his merits and services.

I am not in the habit of appealing to any particular class of American citizens, but in this case I feel constrained to ask you, Irish and German naturalized citizens, who have been appealed to by the Post, what you think of a party whose leading organ would endeavor to create you against the glorious old warrior, who has rendered the most important services to his country, because he directed the sentence of the law, to be executed upon a set of wretches who had barely deserted the flag of their country, and were afterwards found fighting in the ranks of the enemy. Say, who asks you to unite your sympathies with theirs, for the fate of those wretches. How low an estimate must they put upon your intelligence and your patriotism, as to suppose you are to be caught by so base and shallow an artifice. Indeed, it is adding you a direct insult, and you owe it to yourselves, to spurn such attempts, and to the cause of truth to expose the OBSERVER.

CORRECTION.—Mr. Boyd wishes us to state that the reports of fire in his house, on Hand street, published in various morning and evening papers, are incorrect. The whole amount of damage done not exceed five hundred dollars, which is more than covered by insurance, the fire was caused by the burning of the roof and not from the clothing.

GOOD.—His honor, Mayor Fleming, of Allegheny City, is using great exertions to break the habit of loafing around the street corners, and selling liquor on Sunday. He yesterday fined four boys $2 and costs for loafing in a market house. A few such examples, and the evil will be done away with.

From the Washington Republic.

THE PROSPECT.

The following are extracts from letters of telegraphic bulletins received in this city:

LOUISIANA.—IBERVILLE.—"In this State we may rely upon it that we shall triumph in a handsome majority. Our meetings and bonfires are most numerously attended, and our stores are doing good service all over the State. Every day we are gaining from the ranks of our opponents. We have lately gained from the Col. J. S. Hamilton, who was their candidate for Governor a few years back, and has always been a thoroughgoing Democrat. He says he is yet; but that this time he will vote for General Scott, whom he knows to be 'an honest man and a patriot.' He served with him in the last war with Great Britain. Thousands of these are scattered all over the country; and on the 24 of November, I doubt not, we shall return by a larger vote than Harrison did in 1840."

BAYOU ROUGE.—"Louisiana is safe; and by only discussion is, what shall be, or rather what will be Scott and Graham's majority."

NEW YORK.—ESSEX COUNTY.—"There will be a full Whig vote polled, which is always a victory in this State, you know, to our side; and, added to all this, we shall get not a little help from the other side. There is a determination on the part of each and every Whig—universal throughout the State, so far as I can learn—to do their duty, and by no means to lose his vote."

TENNESSEE.—(By Telegraph.)—NASHVILLE, Tenn., October 25.—"Our country letters show us that we will carry Tennessee for Scott and Graham by at least three thousand majority."

BURNING OF THE VERMONT.—We regret to announce the destruction of this fine propeller, of Crawford & Co.'s line. The insurance on the cargo we have not learned. The hull was insured for $12,000; $5,000 in the North Western; 2,000 in the Delaware Mutual Safety; 2,000 in the Commercial Mutual, of Cleveland; 2,000 in the Merchants' Mutual, of Milwaukee.—Cleveland Herald.

DOCTORS DIFFER.—The True Democrat is boring to convince Free Soilers that Scott stands no chance of election. Hon. John P. Hale, in passed through this city since the State of Iowa, expressed his belief that Winfield Scott would receive a triumphant majority of electoral votes.—Cleveland Herald.

A few days since a blustering bragging locofoco in Philadelphia offered to bet $10,000 that Pierce would carry Pennsylvania by 10,000 majority.

"I am the man to take the bet," says John Price Wetherill, "and the money shall be laid down in one hour, and there is fifteen hundred to back up as a forfeit," planking it down.

The locofoco looked as if he was about to say "do you see anything green in my eye," and confidently backed out of his banter.

Mr. Wetherill then offered to bet any amount even a hundred thousand dollars, that General Scott would carry the State, and the money would be put up in less than two hours, and was willing to leave it open to be taken at any time. It was not taken then, nor has it yet been so taken as we know. Locos are ready to brag and bluster but are not willing to back their assertions with the shiners. This is very ominous.

BACKED OUT.—The Enquirer of yesterday commented on an article headed "To Confirmed Jolting Whigs," in which it was announced that it was authorized to make the following bets:

$50 that Connecticut goes for Pierce and King.
$50 that Rhode Island goes ditto;
$50 that New Jersey goes ditto;
$50 that New York ditto,
$50 that Pennsylvania does ditto;
$50 that Ohio goes ditto;
$50 that Indiana goes ditto;
$50 that Kentucky goes ditto;
$50 that Tennessee goes ditto.

A very obliging disposition was manifested on the part of the proposer, who offered to reduce the bets to $20 on each State, or to raise it to $200.

A friend of ours sent $900 around to the Enquirer office yesterday morning, but our confident and strong nerved neighbor backed out! Scores of efforts were made to break the force of the fall, but still the unpleasant fact remained that our neighbor had been caught in the act of bluffing.—Cin. Gaz.

NOT A BAD REASON.—A BALKY HORSE.—An old Democrat was met the other day by a young 4-4 Whig. Leaning on the fence, Pillow Pierce Locofoco, and requested to take charge of some Pierce documents. He said he couldn't do it. Pierce was a balky horse. He once bought a balky horse, expecting to put on different harness, treat him well and make a useful animal. But he never come to anything. He got him all sorts of harness, but could not make him work. Since then he had always stuck to the horses that would pull well in a situation. Pierce, he said, may have been badly harnessed and poorly managed, but that fact weighed with him not a little. He had bad luck. If he was always balky. He had bad luck. If he got through with his load. Scott, on the other hand, never made excuses. His harness always come right, somehow or other. He always took the load through.

THE undersigned will offer for sale, at Public Auction, on the premises, on Thursday, November 4th, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the following valuable property, for order of School Directors of Fifth Township, viz:

Scrofula.

☞ IT is due to Kier's Petroleum to say that it has been known to completely eradicate every vestige of this dreadful disease in less time than any other remedy, and at less cost or inconvenience to the patient.

The thousands of certificates in the hands of the proprietor, many of which are from well known citizens of the city of Pittsburgh and its immediate vicinity, go to show clearly and beyond all doubt, that KIER'S PETROLEUM is a medicine of no common value, not only as a local remedy in Paralysis, Rheumatism, Deafness, loss of Sight, but as a valuable internal remedy, inviting the investigating physicians, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Those having a dread of mixtures are assured that this medicine is purely natural, and is bottled as it flows from the bosom of the earth.

The following certificate is copied from a paper published at Syracuse, New York, and bears date August 2, 1852, to which is also appended the certificate of the celebrated D. Y. Foot, M. D., of Syracuse:

This may in truth certify, that I have been so badly afflicted with Scrofula for the last seven years, that most of the time I have been unable to attend to any kind of business, and much of the time unable to walk, and confined to my bed, and have tried almost everything that I thought the best physicians our country afford; I occasionally got some relief, but no cure, and continued to grow worse, until Dr. Foot recommended me to try the Petroleum, or Rock Oil, as every thing else had failed. I did so without faith at first, but the effect was astonishing; it threw the poison to the surface at once, and I at once began to grow better, and by using seven bottles, I have got a cure worth thousands of dollars.

MRS. NANCY M. BARKER.

This may certify that I have been acquainted with Kier's Petroleum, or Rock Oil, for more than a year, and have repeatedly witnessed its beneficial effects in the cure of incident ulcers, and other diseases for which it is recommended, and can with confidence recommend it to be a medicine worthy of attention, and can safely say that success has attended its use, where other medicine had failed.
