Publishers not accountable for all advertisements beyond the amount charged for their publication.

Advertising in small type or solid matter, to be charged the same as other advertisements.

Advertisements not marked on the copy for a specified number of insertions, will be continued till forbid, and payment exacted accordingly.

The privilege of annual advertisers is strictly limited to their own immediate business; and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, as well as all advertisements not immediately connected with their own business, and all classes of advertisements, in length or otherwise, beyond the limits assigned, will be charged at the usual rates. Annual such transient advertising, bills will be separately rendered, and prompt payment is desired.

All advertisements for charitable institutions, fire companies, band, township and other public meetings, and balls, to be charged half price, payable strictly in advance.

Marriage notices to be charged 50 cents.

Death notices inserted without charge, unless accompanied by funeral notices or obituary notices, and when so accompanied, to be paid for.

Regular advertisers, and all others sending communications, or requiring notices designed to call attention to Fairs, Soirees, Concerts, or any public entertainments, where charge is made for admittance, will be charged for private accountings—every notice designed to call attention to private enterprises, calculated or intended to produce individual interest, or profit, to be considered with the understanding that the same is to be paid for. If transmitted to be paid for, in the local column, the same will be charged at the rate of not less than 10 cents per line.

Bishops, Governors, and Judges, to be charged triple price.

Tavern License Petitions $3 each.

Real Estate Agents' and Auctioneers' advertisements not to be charged by the square, but to be charged at a discount of thirty three and one third per cent. from the amount of their bills.
