PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

A FEMALE CHIMNEY SWEEP.—A woman named Cuhamel, was on Sunday placed at the bar of the Tribunal of Correctional Police, on the charge of vagabondage. "What is your occupation?" said the President. "A chimney sweeper." "What, a woman?" "Yes; and why not? There are men who make shirts, so that a woman may be allowed to sweep chimneys. Besides, you see I wear men's clothes." "You have no regular residence?" "I have one at Bondy." "Inquiries have been made about you there, but nobody knows you." "No doubt you asked for me as a woman, though I am only known as a man." And I am not a lazy fellow, either I can tell you. During the summer, when there were no chimneys to sweep, I occupied myself at harvest work, and did more work than the men." As, however, the good character which the woman gave herself did not relieve her from the charge against her, she was condemned to a month's imprisonment.—Paris paper.

MRS. LUCRETIA MOTT, of this city, preached at Maysville, Ky., on Sunday, the 16th instant, to a large concourse of auditors, and though her principal topic, slavery, was spoken of rather boldly, as a curse to both master and slave, and a stain upon the honor of the republic, yet the chivalrous Kentuckians gave her a most attentive and respectful hearing throughout. Mrs. Mott was accompanied by her husband, James Mott. Towards the close of her remarks Mrs. Mott announced that the well-known Lucy Stone, would shortly speak at the same place, and she commended her intellectual abilities and moral worth very highly, but we are inclined to think that the sight of her Bloomer dress and rather bold carriage will be very far from making so favorable an impression upon the people of Maysville, as did the dignified and gentle manners of the Philadelphia Friend, who is respected wherever she goes.—Phil. N. American.

MORE RUNAWAYS.—We saw a gentleman in the city yesterday from Pendleton county, Ky., in search of several slaves who had escaped from his plantation a few days before. He had traced them to Cincinnati, but had here lost the trail. He informed us that he personally knew of more than thirty-five slave that had escaped from the counties of Pendleton, Bracken and Mason, within the last two months, not one of whom had been recaptured. He thought they usually crossed the Ohio in the neighborhood of Maysville.—Cin Com.

Important to Travelers Going East.

THE early hour, three o'clock in the morning, at which the EXPRESS TRAIN starts for the East, from Pittsburgh, had made it very inconvenient for travelers going by that route, to procure a bed, or if arranged at a most uncomfortable time, (say 2 o'clock A.M.) to rise, to remain in all night. This inconvenience is now obviated by a late arrangement. That EXPRESS Train now breakfasts regularly at ALTOONA, instead of Hollidaysburg,—so that travelers East can leave Pittsburgh at 5 o'clock P.M., by the Accommodation, which arrives at Altoona at 12 o'clock P.M., have pleasant quarters there over night at the large and elegant HOTEL of Mr. Jones, breakfast comfortably with the other passengers in the morning, and pass on East by the Express, leaving Altoona at 7 A.M. This is the WAY from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia or Baltimore. Every provision is made at the Hotel, for the accommodation of guests and visitors by these trains. feb17tf

Seller's Family Medicines.

GRAHAM'S STATION, Ohio, May 25, 1849.
MR. R. E. SELLERS:—I think it right for the benefit of others, to state some facts in relation to your excellent Family Medicines. I have used your Vermifuge largely in my own family, on a quantity answering for expelling large quantities (say 100 to 200) worms from two children. I have also used your Liver Pills and Cough Syrup in my family, and have in every instance, produced the effect desired. As I am engaged in merchandising, I am able to state that I have yet to hear the first failure where your medicines have been used, in my section of the country, in conclusion, I may add that they are the medicines of the day, and are destined to have a very extensive popularity.
Yours Respectfully, W. H. PINNEY.
