HOME MATTERS.

RIVER ITEMS.—The river was rising steadily all day yesterday, and had attained a stage of 7 feet in the evening. The weather was cloudy, with occasional falls of snow.

A dispatch from Brownsville, received yesterday announced a stage of 15 feet water at that point, and rising. It may be that this results from a gorge below Brownsville; but if not, we may expect a full river here to-day. Our boatmen are anticipating that.

The ice in the pool between locks No. 1 and 2 on the Monongahela has been broken up and floated off; through the agency of steamboats employed for that purpose by the coal boatmen, and it is now hoped that the large number of coal boats there moored may escape uninjured.

The news from the gorge at Wellsville was to the effect that there are no signs of its moving, yet. The full river anticipated to-day may assist in clearing it out.

The Alice and Anacreon for Cincinnati, and the Cheroil, for Zanesville, went out yesterday, but would be unable to get below Wellsville.

The Winchester, Capt. Moore, will be ready to leave this morning for Wheeling, and offers excellent accommodations.

The Diurnal will load to-day for the same destination, and leave on Monday, her regular day.

The Gazel, a new and handsome boat, under the command of Capt. T. L. Rhodes, will haul up to-day and load for Louisville. She will leave on Monday, at 4 o'clock, P. M. The Gazel is complete in her equipments, and her officers are well known and popular, both Captain and Clerk having been for some time connected with the Exchange.

The river was rising at Cincinnati on Thursday, with a fair prospect for the resumption of navigation. In port for this city, Herald, Ben Coursin, New York, Keystone State, and Argyle; for St. Louis the Royal Arch; and the Alida for Wabash river.

INAUGURATION OF MAYOR VOLTZ.

The newly elected Councils assembled yesterday morning, in their respective chambers.

In the Select Council Mr. M'Cardy, of the Eighth Ward, was called to the chair.

The credentials of the members elect were presented.

A memorial signed by the tax-payers of the 7th Ward, was read, contesting the election of Henry Lytle; of that Ward, on the ground that he was, at the time, a tax collector.

A lengthy discussion arose, in the midst of which, Mr. Lytle presented his resignation as tax collector of the 7th Ward.

The memorial was accepted and filed. On motion, Mr. Lytle was authorized to be sworn with the other members elect.

The following are the members of the Select Council for the ensuing year:

First Ward—Allen Cordell, J. T. Kincaid.
Second Ward—R. F. Smyth, W. T. Howard, Jr.

On motion, John T. Whitten was re-appointed Clerk, by acclamation.

The former Messenger was re-appointed.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sweitzer and Rowley, of the Common Council, and Mr. Cordell, of the Select Council, were appointed to wait upon Mayor Voltz.

A committee was also appointed to request Judge McClure to administer the oath of office to the Mayor elect.

In the Common Council T. M. Marshall, Esq., was re-elected President, and M. W. Lewis, Esq., was re-appointed Clerk.

Capt. Pratt was the unanimous choice of the Common Council for Messenger.

Ninth Ward—John Miller, James Little.

The Select and Common Councils then went into convention to receive Mayor Voltz.

The oath of office was administered by Judge M'Clure, in an impressive manner.

Mayor Voltz then said, in substance, that it was with much feeling that he appeared before them, and had taken the oath upon himself to administer the onerous duties which devolve upon the chief magistrate of the city faithfully. He had an earnest and sincere desire to extend and perpetuate the good character of the city; it would be the pride and the boast of his heart to promote by all just and honorable means the comfort and welfare of the community.

To that end he would devote all his energy.—It would be his constant endeavor to preserve the city from the twin brands of incendiarism, and from the midnight assassin and burglar. Whenever an officer, under his appointment, should neglect, without good reason, to discharge his trust, his dismissal must and will ensue.

In conclusion, without wishing to transcend his authority, or delegate powers to himself he did not possess, it was his firm resolve to execute affairs of the city, within his jurisdiction, fearlessly, justly and impartially.

The Mayor elect was greeted with a round of applause, and the congratulations of his friends, at the conclusion of his remarks.

The S. C. returned to their chamber, when a resolution, to meet in convention on Thursday, at 10 o'clock, was offered and adopted.

The matter of printing the auditing committee's report was taken up, and after a number of resolutions and amendments were offered, a motion to lay the subject on the table was carried.

On motion, adjourned.

WE are indebted to the kindness of Mr. Irwin, of the Allegheny Enterprise, for the following report of the proceedings of the Allegheny Councils:

Yesterday morning, at half past ten o'clock, the members of the Select and Common Councils convened in the Select Council Chamber. The Clerk read the official returns from each Ward, which were approved of by the existing members of the Select Council. The new members of the Select Council were then called up, and the oath of office administered to them by Esq. Hays, of the First Ward. The members of the Common Council were next called, and all who answered to their names (Mr. D. T. Johnson being the only absentee,) were sworn by the same functionary. Mr. Adams, the Mayor elect, then took the oath of office, and was duly installed.

Mayor of this city. After the close of these proceedings, the members of the Common Council withdrew to their chamber, and organized by appointing William C. Stockton, Chairman pro tem., and Ed. Snowden, Secretary pro tem. Mr. Johnston having arrived, he was sworn in by Esq. Hays. They then commenced balloting for officers, which resulted as follows:

The overland Indian mail brings confirmation that the Shah of Persia had left Teh with an army numbering 30,000 cavalry, with 1000 pieces of cannon and 3000 camel loads of ammunition, to join with Russia? At the latest accounts the army had passed Tabreez. The Shah has sent an envoy to Dost Mahommed to point out the advantages of siding with Persia and the Russians.
