PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

AN INDIAN PRINCE.—Among the passengers by the Bipon were Prince Cholum Mahomed and son, the son and grandson of the renowned Tippoo Saib. The Prince has never before been out of Calcutta. He is come to England to endeavor to get his pension settled on his grandson. He speaks English fluently. His physiognomy is very peculiar—almost Jewish in appearance. He is dressed magnificently. His cloak is something like a cardinal's, with inwoven gold. His cap is also like that of a Catholic ecclesiastic high in rank; in front is a star of glittering diamonds. On one of his fingers is a ring with an immense emerald set in it. As Malta he attended a review of the British troops, and one of the first regiments he saw exercised was the 93d, which was at the taking of Seringapatam, and from which his father, the celebrated tippoo, met his death. Immediately on his arrival at Southampton he addressed letters "To the Eldest Daughter of his Highness Prince Golam Mahomed, at his house at Russapujist, Calcutta." A treasury order had arrived at Southampton to pass the Prince's baggage through the Custom-house. The Prince had several servants in attendance on him.—London paper.

NEW YORK,
Its Upper Ten and Lower Million!

BY GEORGE LIPPARD,

Author of "Washington and His Generals," "The Nazarene," "Paul Ardenheim," "Jesus and the Poor," "Adonai," "The Quaker City," &c.

This is the best work ever written by Lippard; one continued scene of excitement from the commencement to the end. These who have read Dumas' Countess Monte Christo, or The Wandering Jew, will be amazed at the impression, this the most interesting work that has issued from the press for some time.—Enquirer.

George Lippard's Great Work—New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million. Novel readers will be perfectly delighted with this new work. The incidents delineated in this work are of the most exciting character. We should not be surprised if the demand for it should exceed that of Uncle Tom's Cabin.—Times.

From the Louisville Courier.

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million—comes "Lippard's last and best work. This novel is unique only to be read to be correctly appreciated. As an enchanting work, it is unsurpassed. We believe it will be impossible for any person who commences this work, to leave it off until he has turned over its last page.

From the Cleveland Palladium.

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million.—A new work by that gifted son of genius, George Lippard. We averred it. It is a novel of most thrilling interest—such one as having once commenced, you will sit up all night to finish. It is a book we would like every body to read. Price, handsomely bound, $1.00 in paper covers, 75 cts. For sale by all Bookseller throughout the United States.
