PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

We once heard a Vermonter express his opinion of a person in the following style of clause: "I could take," said he, "the little end of nothing, whittle it down to a point, punch out the pith of a horse hair, put forty thousand such souls as his, shake them up and they'd rattle!"

"Pa," said a little fellow the other day, "wasn't 'Job an editor?" "Why, Sammy?" "Because the Bible says he had so much trouble and was a man of sorrow all the days of his life."

The cobbler who can toe the mark, foot a bill heel a boot, has no occasion to give leg bail.

An enthusiastic girl states, under oath, that the first time she ever locked arms with a young man, she felt like hope leaning on her anchor. Poetic young woman, that.

NEW YORK
Its Upper Ten and Lower Million!
BY GEORGE LIPPARD,
Author of "Washington and his Generals," "The Nazarene," "Paul Ardenhelm," "Jesus and the Poor," "Adonai," "The Quaker City," &c.

This is the best work ever written by Lippard; one continued scene of excitement from the commencement to the end. Those who have read Dumas' Count de Monte Christo, or The Wandering Jew, we are under the impression, will be equally pleased with this. Novel readers will find this the most interesting work that has issued from the press for some time. Inquirer.

George Lippard's Great Work—New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million. Novel readers will be perfectly delighted with this new work. The incidents connected in this work are of the most exciting character. We should not a surprised if the demand for it should exceed that of Uncle Tom's Cabin.—Times.

From the Louisville Courier.

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million.—George Lippard's last and best work. This novel requires only to read to be correctly appreciated. As an enchanting work it is unsurpassed. We believe it will be impossible any person who commences this work, to leave it off until he has turned over its last page.

[Extract from the Cleveland Plaindealer.]

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million.—A new by that gifted son of genius, George Lippard. We are read it. It is a novel of most thrilling interest—such one as having been commenced, you will sit up all night to finish. It is a book we would like every body to read.

The undersigned, in accepting the proprietorship of Dr. James McClintock's Family Medicines, would respectfully state to the public, that in his profession as Dispensing Chemist, for nearly fifteen years past, during which time he has been actively connected with the best pharmaceutical establishments in this country, he had ample and constant occasion to see and prepare the prescriptions of the most eminent physicians, among whom he would name Dr. Mott Dr. Parker, Dr. Francis, Dr. Cheeseman, Dr. Reese, Dr. Whitlaker, Dr. Schmidt, Dr. Hosack, Dr. Hissam, Drs. Pratt and Young, Dr. Beale, Dr. Green, and many others in the city of New York.

The experience thus acquired enables him to discriminate with confidence between legitimate medicines, combined scientifically, so as to secure a harmonious chemical action in unison with their highest therapeutic effects, as the inaccurate mixtures of quackery and ignorance; wherefore, for want of proper knowledge in combining them, the best ingredients may neutralize and destroy each other, or result in a substance highly injurious, and contrary to the intended design. It is with pleasure, therefore, that he testifies that the prescriptions of Dr. James McClintock are not only composed of the most valuable medical agents known to the profession, and habitually employed by our best practitioners in the treatment of the several diseases for which they are intended, but they are combined in such accurate proportions, in relation to their chemical and medicinal effects, as to secure the attainment of the utmost increase of their power and efficiency.

In conclusion, he will only add for himself, that he can refer with confidence to his past career, as his guarantee to the public that these great remedies in his hands will be

TO THE PUBLIC.

MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT;

RETIREMENT OF PROF. JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D

From the Philadelphia Medical College.

A NEW ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE

Popular Medicine for the first time sanctioned by the HIGHEST AUTHORITY IN THE PROFESSION!

THE undersigned have the pleasure of informing the public that they have made arrangements with the eminent Professor JAMES McCLINTOCK M. D., of Philadelphia, known for more than a quarter of a century past as one of the greatest Practitioners and Teachers of Medicine and Surgery in this country or in Europe, for the purchase of his recipes, and the preparation of series of FAMILY MEDICINES therefrom, which will be put up in a cheap and popular form, adapted for general use, and suited to the most prevalent diseases. These remedies embrace some of the most valuable discoveries and combinations ever known for the cure of disease. They are the fruits of the most profound investigation, the wide est research, and the utmost unequaled experience of one of the first physicians of the age. Each remedy is specially adapted to some particular form of disease, in accordance with the highest principles of modern medical science. Each of these remedies have been tried, improved, and finally perfected, in the course of a long, active and highly successful practice, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout many distant sections of the country to which his great reputation has called him. Their nature and effect are known and approved of by hundreds of regular physicians who have been his students and seen their beneficial results in Dr. McClintock's own hands, while they were under his tuition, in the Colleges of Philadelphia, Castle ton, Pittfield, and elsewhere.

READ THE FOLLOWING CERTIFICATE:

This is to certify that I have placed in the hands of Messrs. A. Cushman & Co., New York, the recipes of my family medicines, with my full authority to prepare and offer them for popular use. They are such as I have been in the habit of recommending and prescribing for many years, and their composition is well known to hundreds of regular physicians, who have seen my students, and who are accustomed to see me prescribing with distinguished success in all parts of the country. My independence for this step are numerous; one of the most urgent is, that the demand for my remedies has become so large, through private report of their success, as to make their preparation too great a draft upon my time; another is, the repeated solicitations of my friends and patients, in the belief that the general introduction of my remedies would be to many respects a public benefit; and finally, in securing the co-operation of Mr. Alexander Cushman, who is a thoroughly educated Chemist and practical Apothecary of many years experience, whereby I am enabled to assure the public that they will be prepared in the best, purest and most perfect form, regardless of expense.

JAMES McCLINTOCK, M. D., Late Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in the Philadelphia College of Medicine and Acting Professor of Midwifery, one of the Consulting Physicians of the Philadelphia Lying in Hospital, member of the National Medical Association, member of the Philadelphia Medical Society, member of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia; formerly President and Professor of Anatomy and Surgery in Castleton Medical College, Vermont, and also, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in Berkshire Medical Institution, Pittsfield, Mass., &c., &c., &c.

We need scarcely remind the intelligent public of the great necessity which exists for the introduction of a class of good and reliable popular medicines which may be confidently adopted into family use and depended on at all times in the absence of a physician, as being the legitimate productions of Science, Study and Experience. No argument is needed to prove the immense superiority of such a class of remedies over the dangerous compounds that are daily pulled into notice by ignorant and reckless men, solely for the purpose of enriching themselves at the expense of the lives and health of their fellow beings. We trust confidently in the good sense of the community to support us in this effort to extirpate the great public evil of Quackery, by giving a careful perusal to the following testimonials, which cannot fail to strongly recommend to every reflecting brace the first twelve remedies of the series, and which comprises some of the most valuable specifics ever discover ed for the several complaints enumerated. If you or any of your friends are sufferers, we can but recommend a trial of the first medical authority of the day, by obtaining and giving a trial to such of these medicines as are adapted to the case. We call special attention to the first on the list as being most generally demanded, at this season namely, the

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA
IN QUART BOTTLES.

For Purifying the Blood, and for the Cure
Of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Shaborn Ulcers, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Erysipelas, Pimples, Blotches, Mercurial Diseases, Cutaneous Eruptions, Scorbutic Complaints, Prurigo, Ulcers, Sores, Tumors, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Lassitude, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, &c.

IN this preparation all the restorative properties of the root are concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy; but while Sarsaparilla is the most famous important part of its combination, it is at the same time compounded with other vegetable remedies of great power and it is to the combination of these combined with the virtues of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. It acts simultaneously upon the skin, the circulation of the bowels, and thus three process are, which are ordinarily the result of three different kinds of medicine, are carried out at the same time, through the instrumentality of two one remedial agent which stimulates while it disinfects and expels from the stomach and bowels all that is irritating, and at the same time restores their vigor and tone. Many other preparations imitate it in bearing the name of Sarsaparilla, and in that their resemblance ends, being often prepared from worthless and inert weeds, and, of course, possessing no healing or curative properties, and patients in making choice of which they will use should take no other but that unentitled to their confidence, from the long list of cures it has effected on living witnesses, whose testimonials and residence lay before the public. Also, Sands' Sarsaparilla, in Quart Bottles, at the Lowest Cash Prices.

ASTONISHING CURE.

PATTERSON, N. Y. Sept. 20th, 1851.

HENRY A. B. & D. SANDS Gentlemen—Having witnessed the most beneficial effects from your Sarsaparilla, in my family, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the Spring of 1848, he took a severe cold, and after 8 weeks of severe suffering the disease settled in his left leg and foot, which was swelled to the utmost. The swelling was lanced by his physician, and discharged most profusely; after that no less than sixteen pieces of bone came out of the leg and foot at the time. He had five Physicians but none relieved him much and the last winter found him so crippled and low that he was unable to leave his bed, suffering the most excruciating pain. During this time the bone had become so much enlarged that it was painful to touch, and there was more than twenty-five preserved in a bottle, varying from one-half to one and a half inches in length. We had given up all hopes of his recovery, but at this time a friend recommended to try your Sarsaparilla, and with its use his health and strength began to improve immediately, and it was the change that less than a dozen bottles effected a perfect cure. With gratitude, I remain respectfully yours,

DARIUS HALLARD.

We, the undersigned, neighbors of Mr. Hallard, cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, and they can be taken by the most delicate without fear of harm.

These Bitters are worth the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers over the secretions of the digestive organs, they are, without, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

The following account of the cure of the Rev. J. W. Parkes is extracted from the Christian Chronicle:

NORTHAMPTON, Northumbria Co., Pa., Feb. 7th, 1852.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, Dear Sir:—I believe your "German Bitters" are the best article of the kind. I was so low with dyspepsia that I have been unable to attend to my ministerial duties for more than one year. I have been troubled with Chronic Diarrhœa for the last three years, and was so much reduced at the close of last September, when I became enfeebled, and finally prostrated by it. My stomach and the mucous membrane of the bowels became so irritable that I could retain no food or medicine. In this condition, I called upon a physician who undertook my case, and succeeded in checking the diarrhœa and restoring action to my bowels. But still my stomach and bowels were so irritable that I could retain no food. I commenced the use of frequently checked my power to digest the organs but partially performing their regular functions, to the great injury of my health, and I was fast sinking into the Christian Chronicle, I noticed 'Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters' recommended, and several certificates were added, recommending your bitters in cases similar to mine. I sent to your agent, Mr. A. Turse, at Montrose, and procured two bottles, and commenced using them. I felt better immediately, and improved every day. I continued to use them until I had used up the first bottle I found that the relief I had felt in the first day's use was lasting, the bowels and the stomach becoming natural and healthy. I have used the second bottle, and improve more materially helped, and I have reason to hope that I shall be entirely restored, whereas the disease had baffled every other remedy, and I was brought so low that in no earlier last my restoration was despaired of, as stated above. I remain, Dear Sir, Respectfully and gratefully, your friend and fellow labourer in the Christian Chronicle of Dec. 3d.

Now, sir, I am sure this is but few, at least in this section, that would write a letter like this, I wish they did believe there are hundreds in this region who might be cured by the use of those Bitters.

Yours Respectfully,

But a short time has elapsed since these great and good medicines have been made known to the public, yet thousands have experienced their good effects. Invalids given up by their physicians as incurable, are now restored to sound and vigorous health by their use. These medicines, they propose to place in the hands of the people, directly on those organs of the stomach, liver and kidney which seem to be the fountains of life and energy to the blood. This Wine and Pills never weaken, but give strength and animation to both body and mind.

The great success which has attended their exertions in the sick and afflicted have induced thousands to commend them to their friends and the public generally, and the highest integrity have voluntarily testified to the world the benefit they have conferred upon them.

DR. J. A. STANLEY, a celebrated physician, in a letter from Princeton, New Jersey, dated November, 16, 1849, describes the effects of the Forest Wine in the first stage of Consumption, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust of Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imagining of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

DR. JOHNSON'S FOREST WINE AND FOREST PILLS.

Of Mr. Johnson Burke, a highly respectable citizen of Waterville, Maine, we learn that

DR. G. W. HALSEY—Dear Sir: I esteem the Forest Wine as the best medicine I have ever taken. It has for two weeks what three physicians failed to do in as many years. In 1845 I became the victim of the Liver Disease and Nervous Affection which has so long afflicted me. I was so low that I could scarcely walk across the room, and was so nervous that I could not sleep. Attendance, advice, medicine, all failed to give me relief. I was given up by my friends. I commenced taking your Forest Wine and Pills, although I had waited over my time, and I am now a well man. During the last two years I was obliged to keep my house nearly all the time, and gave up my business in consequence of my ill health. I had lost nearly all hopes of recovery, when I was induced to try your medicine. I feel that I owe my life to the Forest Wine, and I feel it my duty to make this statement, that others who have been afflicted as I have been, may be induced to try the Forest Wine. Yours, &c., JOHNSON BURKE, Waterly Place, N. Y.

General Debility, Emaciation, Wasting of the Body, &c., &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedies until the disease becomes deep seated. The following cases are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or exhaustion, in the morning, want of appetite, coming up of the meats, lassitude and at times paleness or flushing of the countenance, palpitation of the heart, &c. &c.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy adaptedness to all such disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as an invigorator, and have spoken in the most unqualified terms of their benefits, the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the bottle.

TO THE LADIES.

From beauty and loveliness accompany the highest portion of health, which again is the result of a healthy state of the blood. What artificial appendages equal the blush of health? Nothing is more of countenance which emanates from healthy. What paints can compare with the rich and pure colored blood coursing its brilliant roseate hue through the delicate transparent skin of the fair. What can more captivating than those of nature, in her highest perfection? Nature has ever been the place of a fair complexion. The use of this excellent Wine in a short time creates pure, rich blood, which, coursing through the veins, penetrates the cheek, and imparts that charge to nature which is usually employed by the fair to adorn the skin, causing all unhealthy pimples and blotches to disappear, imparting a vivid, rosy color to the skin, and a brilliant expression to the eye.

THE GIFT OF NATURAL BEAUTY.

In corroboration of those facts, Dr. Halsey has many testimonials. The following is from a lady of the most respectable standing in society, which is to be found in Rutgers st.

NEW YORK, July 7th, 1849.

DR. G. W. HALSEY—My sister, from her youth, had been in very delicate health, complaining frequently of weakness of the chest, attended with a cough. About the age of 18 she began to get much worse. For six months previous to commencing with your medicines she had not been able to get out of the house. Her countenance was greatly emaciated, yellow and sickly. Her face and neck was covered with disagreeable pimples, her eyes very much sunken, and her coughing incessing. In fine, she bore every appearance of soon becoming an unhappy victim to consumption. At this time I procured for her some of your Forest Wine and Pills, which she commenced using according to the directions. She gradually improved and she followed up the use of them. Her first symptoms of recovery was an uncommonly good appetite, her face finally become smooth, and her cheeks rosy. Her cough left her altogether. She is now strong and vigorous, and presents the finest example of health I ever witnessed.

JOHN S. MAXWELL.

Dr. Halsey's Gum-Coated Forest Pills,

Manufactured on the same principal as the Forest Wine, to which it is an important adjunct. They are coated with pure Gum Arabic an important invention, by which Dr. Halsey has received the only patent ever granted on Pills by the government of the United States.

Dr. Halsey's Forest Wine and Gum-Coated Forest Pills, unite in accomplishing the same great end, THE PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD, THE RENOVATION AND RESTORATION OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS.

The life principle of man is the blood, no one are those organs of the stomach which secrete the blood, instead of morbid matter and restored to healthy action by the use of the forest Pills, and pure rich blood made to flow in the veins, by the use of the Forest Wine, than disease begins to vanish, and strength and energy body return. This is the principle on which is founded these great medicines, and by which nearly all diseases are cured.

NB. The Forest Wine is put up in large quart bottles, with Dr. Halsey's name blown in the glass. One dollar per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Gum-Coated Forest Pills, 25 cents per box. General Depot, 193 Duane street, corner of Hudson, New York.
