P. H. BIGELOW, PROPRIETOR.

WOULD respectfully call the attention of Southern and Western Merchants to his extensive assortment of Carriages, ranging in price from $100 to $1500. These Carriages are built from the best material and workmanship, and under my own supervision; so can, from experience, warrant his work to be inferior to none manufactured in the Union. The success of his business and the great increase in demand for this class of work, has induced him not to build any common or low priced work in his establishment. Persons wanting good honest work will please call and examine his stock before going East. All work warranted.
