SPIRITUAL MARRIAGE.—A man by the name of S. Bickman, of Painsville, and a young lady the name of Julia Hurlburt, daughter of J. Hurlburt, of Kirtland, were spiritually married at the latter place, on Sunday of last week. The ceremony consisted of matrimonial declarations made by themselves in the presence of their friends, about fifty being present. The rites consisted of the following very poetic announcement:

"Have you seen the morning sunbeams kiss an opening blossom? Thus did our spirits meet and greet at the first interview; and as the invisible elements of nature unite and blend in one harmonious impulse, so are our spirits affiliated by one accordant living force. Whenever are we united by the eternal laws of affinity, right has authority to separate. We thus produce ourselves unto you in the relation of husband and wife!

This is an age of reform!
