ANOTHER Pittsburgher testifying to the wonderful curative powers of Barhave's Holland Bitters.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6th, 1854.
Henry Bard, Page, Jr., & Co.—Gentlemen—For a year past I have been afflicted very seriously with dyspepsia, so much so, that my stomach refused to retain anything. I have taken almost everything recommended as a cure by several physicians, but without alleviation, until I began the use of Barhave's Holland Bitters, and have not found relief almost amounting to a cure. I found it efficacious in removing the extreme debility occasioned by this disease, and generally as a tonic it has few equals and no superior. Respectfully, JACOB WURZ, 53 st., below Market.

Caution.—Be careful to ask for Barhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing as the genuine Barhave's Holland Bitters.

Sold at $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5, by proprietors, BERNARD, PAGE & Co., cor. 3d & Smithfield sts.

AYER'S PILLS.
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied upon as safe and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively proved that we may express it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make a pill that is pure—one which should have nothing but the objections, but all the advantages, of every other pill. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient sick, that the prevailing ignorance in medicine if sanctioned and irritating to the bowels—this is not. Many of them produce griping to a degree and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from their use. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels—being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions accompany the box for the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints they have been specifically cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Costiveness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins and for in truth, all those who feel the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Dizziness, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with a tendency to the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also proved some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Dyspsia, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of season. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their mild action of the bowels, cleanse the system, restore the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energy of the whole system. Their extensive circulation is advantageous, even though no serious derangement is at hand, but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as severe purgatives weaken the strength, unless when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a single pill has been used with decided effect, but the suggest themselves to the reason of everybody, and it is confidently believed that the public need but to try them than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what to use when they have need of a cathartic medicine.

PREPARED BY JAMES C. AYER, Assayer and Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass. Price 25 cts. per box. Five boxes for $1. Sold by Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout this section. jo24 dawly

Pittsburgh Riding School,

ROBERT H. PATTERSON, Proprietor,
Corner of Diamond Street and Cherry Alley.

THE subscriber respectfully announces to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Pittsburgh, that he has erected a RIDING SCHOOL, which, in point of size, commodiousness and adaptation, undoubtedly is the only establishment of the kind in the United States. Its location is accessible from all parts of the city, while its quiet and airy situation, renders it especially suited to the purpose for which it is designed. The entrance for ladies and horses are docile and well trained, and the proprietor guarantees that no pains or expense will be spared to make this establishment the first in the country, as it is the public.
