PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

ANOTHER ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—A girl, about twenty years of age, named Anna ——, attempted self-destruction on Sunday night, at her residence, No. 79 Grand street, by swallowing four ounces of laudanum. About fifteen minutes after taking the drug, she informed one of the inmates of the house of what she had done, and told her that she had taken her last dose. Dr. Finnell was immediately sent for, and after great exertion succeeded in removing the poison, and the girl is convalescent. She has of late led a very abandoned life, and states as a reason for having attempted self-destruction that she became infatuated with the account of the suicide of the girl Amanda Cook, which appeared in the papers of last week, and felt a desire to offer herself a victim to the suicidal altar.—*N. This is now the only desirable piece of property in this neighborhood not already bought up by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, on Liberty st., on Rim street 100 feet thence to the Methodist Grave Yard 264 feet, to Liberty 100 feet.

This property is most desirable as a Hotel. The building now on it is a good substantial three story brick with all the necessary back buildings, has for a long time been occupied as the Union Hotel, doing a good business. Capitalists and others desirous of making a good investment, will do well to examine the premises.
