PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

PUBLISHED BY D. E. WHITE.

PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1855.

A Room in the Gazette Buildings for Rent. A WELL LIGHTED ROOM, on the second floor, and near of access, in the Gazette Buildings, on Fifth street, is for rent for one, or a term of years. It would suit a Bookbinder, Engraver, or Lithographer, or a Weekly Newspaper Office. sn16-tf

NB.—To Advertisers.—Neither the Editorial Room or Printing Establishment of the Daily Gazette, are opened on Sunday. Advertisers who desire their notices to appear in the paper on Monday morning, will please hand them in before 9 o'clock, on Saturday.

NB.—Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette.—The extensive circulation of our Weekly Gazette offers to our business men a most desirable medium of making their business known. Our circulation is between four and five thousand, reaching almost every merchant, manufacturer and shop-keeper in Western Pennsylvania, and Eastern Ohio.

Advance Payments.—Hereafter no subscription will be taken for the Daily or Weekly Gazette, unless payment is made in advance. Whenever the time is up to which the subscription is paid, the paper will be invariably stopped, unless the subscription is renewed by advance payment. All transient advertising, of every description, will be required to be paid in advance. The only exceptions will be where special month or year contracts are made. sn9:tf&w

ELECTION ITEMS.—The Chambersburg Repository announces the election of Wm. M. Henderson, the Whig candidate for Commissioner in Cumberland county. Mr. Henderson is said to be the only old line Whig elected to any office in Pennsylvania this fall, and lest the relentless hand of oblivion should seek at once to efface this record of a Whig achievement, the Repository erects a sort of typographical monument to his success.

Judge Bell, who was appointed by Gov. Pollock last year to a vacant judgeship in the Carbon district, and who will be remembered as the finikin of a former supreme bench, was beaten at the last election by George R. Barrett, formerly of Clearfield. The defeated candidate was too ethereal and refined for that backwoods region. His dapper person, faultless toilette and fashionable drawing-room pronunciation would entitle him, we think, to more consideration in Philadelphia than he seems to have received anywhere else.

In M'Kean county the Republican candidate for Commissioner was Moore, and the democratic candidate, Moore. We need hardly say that Moore was elected; but how the voters managed to distinguish between him and Moore confuses us more and more the longer we look at it. The democrats of the county succeeded in electing only one man on their ticket—their candidate for Auditor; but we have no doubt they did their best to carry More.

Some features of the new Legislature, says the Chambersburg Repository, are worthy of notice. There is not a single old Senator re-elected—a result that has rarely before occurred within our recollection. Another remarkable fact is that the whole eastern and southern part of the State has not chosen one anti-Pierce Senator, while the North, heretofore reliably democratic, has displaced two Pierce men, and sent Republicans in their stead. In the House the same singular change is presented. Of the eastern counties, where the old Whig strength used to be, but two counties have elected a solid anti-Pierce ticket—Dauphin and Lebanon; while Franklin, Adams, Lancaster, Chester and Delaware, decidedly Whig counties, and all the doubtful counties, have gone either partially or entirely democratic. In the interior and North, the Democratic ranks are terribly riddled. Perry, Centre, Armstrong, Juniata, Mifflin, Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Jefferson, Mercer, Venango and Potter, formerly good for an aggregate democratic majority of 5,000, the democratic tickets are defeated, and nearly 4,000 majority given to Nicholson.

Another singular result is the fact that but two men who voted for Gen. Cameron for U. S. Senator are re-elected—Haines, of Perry, and Barry, of Lebanon, while the northern counties return a number who bolted the caucus and voted against him. What significance is to be attached to this fact, politicians can decide for themselves.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.—This gentleman is now lecturing in the west, and under the most discouraging circumstances. It seems that a Mr. Wells, of Chicago, solicited him to deliver twelve lectures "in Chicago and its vicinity," for which he promised to guarantee him $125 each. Mr. Beecher accepted the offer, because it relieved him from the burden of making arrangements and managing the business details of his lectures; but was astonished to find that Mr. Wells had announced him to deliver addresses in all or nearly all the cities of the West, "Chicago and its vicinity" embracing, in Mr. Wells' comprehensive understanding, Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and divers other places, the vicinage of Chicago being supposed to extend over the entire valley of the Mississippi. Mr. Beecher says his first impulse was to disown the whole arrangement, (which he should have done promptly,) but fearing that it would lead to the disappointment of the public, he yielded to it. The result has been as disastrous to himself as to Wells. The latter fixed the price of admission at 50 cents; and the public, regarding the affair as an imposition, has wisely abstained from attending the lectures. Mr. Beecher has therefore been literally without audiences, wherever he has appeared, and so he deserves to be and will be at all his future appointments. His only chance to escape from further mortification is to throw off Mr. Wells entirely, and by getting rid of the unnecessary taint attaching to that individual's speculation, deprive the public of all cause of complaint. The Young Men's Library Association of this city will be very glad to engage his services upon reasonable terms, and they can ensure him such an audience as never greeted a lecturer here before. Let Wells belake himself incontinently to "Chicago and its vicinity."

THE COPPER REGION.—We give in our Commercial column the details of the yield of Copper for the present year in the Lake Superior region. The total amounts to 9,661,000 lbs. of Copper, worth, at present prices, over $1,600,000. The yield per cent. is greater this year than last, owing to increased care in its preparation for market, being 70 per cent. against 60 last year. The Cliff and Minnesota mines head the list, the North American, Isle Royal, Forest, North West and Rockland following, but at a considerable distance behind. The Cliff returns 1600 tons as its total, and the Minnesota 1350; being considerably more than the half of the entire yield; the others we have named range from 265 tons down to 110, and there are 24 others which produce from 95 down to 3, tons each. Several of the companies are shippers of metal for the first time this year, and having made a beginning, besides being in good condition to prosecute their work during the winter, the prospect is that during the coming year the grand total will be nearly doubled. The facts thus developed show what an important interest is growing up on the shores of Lake Superior.

OSWEGO HOUSE TO ROOST.—When the Republican party of Pennsylvania was defrauded in the appointment of its State Committee, and the control of its organization placed in the hands of men not belonging to it, the action of that committee was hailed as legitimate by the New York Tribune, and the Republicans of the State were counseled to acquiesce in it, much to the embarrassment of those who were victimized by it. The fraud has just been imitated in New York, where a so called "Whig" State Convention has been held by men not belonging to the party, and a State Committee appointed scarcely one of whom has acted with the Whig party for years. The Tribune very properly exposes and condemns the fraud; but we cannot avoid detecting that its condemnation would have been all the more forcible if it had not endorsed just such a piece of villainy in our own State only a few weeks since.

THE Sunday Times came to the end of its short existence yesterday, without arousing any public regrets. Its little puppet of an editor came out here with a great flourish of trumpets, was made the laughing-stock of fools when he knew nothing, talked without showing intelligence enough to hold twaddle, and finally, when fled by general contempt, all the neighbors are willing for him to go.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESS.—While such presses as the Harrisburg Herald rail out against the Republicans, the more sober-minded and reliable presses of the State are disposed to look more calmly and properly at things as they are. Thus the Chambersburg Whig, after detailing the results of the election in the two northern Senatorial districts, says:

"The most significant lesson taught by these districts and the result throughout the State generally, is the fact that while not a baker's dozen of simon pure Know Nothing are elected, the Republicans have swelled the list of Administration members of the House to 35. It is true that no Republicans have been elected without the aid of the Know Nothings, yet in nearly every northern and western county the open Republicans swallowed up all other parties and have succeeded, while in the eastern counties generally, the Know Nothings have persisted in their secret organization and in running distinctive tickets, and defeat has been almost universal. Had all the elements opposed to the Democracy united in a liberal, conservative party embracing the Republican sentiment, the Legislature and the State would stand this day with Ohio, and we could boast of an anti-Nebraska Canal Commissioner, an anti-Nebraska Legislature, and an anti-Nebraska U. S. Senator. Experience is a sound preceptor, though often costly!

"These results demonstrate that the Republican element is the vital one in Pennsylvania, and the only one—much as it may need to be modified—around which the anti-Pierce elements can gather."

The Erie Gazette, another influential paper, says:

"As matters now stand the Whigs cannot hope to elect a President, and the Know Nothing party, as at present constituted, will never be able to rally for even a County or State much less for a National, campaign. The Republicans, too, while at war with the other elements just mentioned, cannot cherish a rational expectation of electing a President; and yet these organizations, holding to the same overshadowing national issues, and possessing the power of acting unitedly, or seeming to act the result, seem likely to throw the next national administration into the hands of the same man, or one of the same kind, for another four years. To avert such a calamity no love for filled shadows or mere party names should stand in the way; and looking into the future from the present dark stand point, we feel like yielding much that we have cherished to strike a decisive blow for Freedom and our National Faith. To accomplish this important end, we believe that a liberal, conservative party, embracing the Republican element of the North, is the only star we can see above the horizon to guide us, and should such an organization be effected on an enlightened and enduring basis, our best energies should be given for its success. If the future promises anything it is only through such a system of political action, and now, while enjoying the sweet uses of adversity, we entreat the attention of patriotic men of all shades of opposition to the Nebraska party, to think well of the responsibility that rests upon them."

The idea held out by both of these presses is undoubtedly the true one, that the REPUBLICAN element is the vital and the only one in the State around which all the opposition to the National Administration can rally. The minor details of such a rally can be arranged to general satisfaction, if the great central truth here enunciated can be properly understood.

ELECTION OFFICERS HELD TO BAIL.—The election officers of the fourth precinct in the First Ward of Philadelphia have been held to bail on a charge preferred by John Leonard Mayer, a native of France, of having illegally refused to receive his vote, when offered, at the recent election. Mr. Mayer is a property holder, and produced his papers showing that he had declared his intention in 1853, and his paper of naturalization bore date Oct. 5th, 1855. He exhibited, in addition to the above papers, receipts for taxes, one bearing date December 23, 1854, for the sum of $9,48, and the other dated February 7th, 1855, for $8,81. The vote of Mr. Mayer was objected to on the ground of his not having procured his papers previous to ten days before the election. Several witnesses were examined, and the testimony of each went to show that the vote had been refused on the ground stated above. This is an important question; and one which we hope will now be thoroughly tested.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss.

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. JAMES POLLOCK, Governor of said Commonwealth:

A PROCLAMATION.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—A public recognition of the existence of God, as the Creator of all things and the Giver of "every good and perfect gift," with a humble acknowledgment of our constant dependence upon the providence of Him, who rules in the army of Heaven and among the children of men," is alike the duty and the privilege of a free and Christian people.

"He has crowned the past year with his goodness and caused our paths to drop with fatness." He has blessed our country with peace. The Union of the States—our free institutions—our civil and religious privileges—fight of conscience and freedom of worship have been continued and preserved. The great interests of education, morality and religion have been encouraged and promoted—science and art advanced—industry rewarded—and the moral and physical condition of the people improved.

The goodness of God has signally blessed our Commonwealth. War with its desolations—famine and pestilence with their horrors, have not been permitted to come near us; and whilst the ravages of disease and death have afflicted the citizens of other States, we have enjoyed the blessings of health and unusual prosperity. The seasons, in their annual round, have come and gone—"seed time and harvest" have not failed—smiling plenty cheers the husbandman; and surrounded by the abundant fruits of autumn, he rejoices in the rich reward of his toil. "The pastures are clothed with flocks—the valleys also are covered over with corn—they shout for joy—they also sing."

Acknowledging with grateful hearts these manifold blessings of a beneficient Providence, we should, "offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay our vows unto the Most High."

Under the solemn conviction of the importance and propriety of this duty, and in conformity with the wishes of many good citizens, I, James Pollock, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 22d day of November next, as a day of GENERAL THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE throughout this State; and earnestly implore the people that setting aside all worldly pursuits on that day, they unite in offering thanks to Almighty God for His past goodness and mercy; and beseech Him for a continuance of His blessings.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State at Harrisburg this 23d day of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and of the Commonwealth the eightieth.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

A. G. CURTIN, Sec'y of the Commonwealth.

ONE MONTH LATER FROM NEW MEXICO.—INDEPENDENCE, October 24.—The Santa Fe mail arrived on the 22nd, with dates to the 1st:

The election for Delegate to Congress is over, resulting in the success of Gallegos by 99 majority. Great efforts were made by Otero's friends, but there was a good deal of anti-American feeling in the country.

Indian troubles have measurably ceased. A treaty was made at Albuquerque with the Jicarilla Apaches, but a few disaffected ones, who were not present, still make disturbances.

While the treaty was being made, some misunderstanding sprung up between Kit Carson and the Governor about feeding the Indians.—The Governor suspended Carson, who left shortly for Washington, where the whole affair will undergo investigation.

The rainy season was much prolonged, and a great deal of damage done throughout the country. In Santa Fe many of the houses fell down. Mr. Spaigle, merchant, and his wife were buried in the ruins of his store-room, and both killed.

LATER FROM FORT LARAMIE.—GEN. HARNEY was to leave Fort Laramie on the 29th, to establish a military post on White Earth River, about half way between Laramie and Fort Pierre. Ten companies of troops—four of Dragoons and six of Infantry—were to accompany him. The Infantry would be left to garrison the new post, and the Dragoons are to return to Fort Laramie. Not another object in taking this large force into the field was to chastise the Minneapolis Indians, who were regarded as the most insolent and hostile of the tribes in that region.

Shortly after the battle of Blue Water, GEN. HARNEY held talks with the Ogallah and Brule Bands of the Sioux, in which they agreed to deliver up the murderers of the mail party, and to confine themselves to a prescribed district of country. GEN. HARNEY sent word to Little Thunder—the Chief of the party engaged in the battle of Blue Water—that if he behaved himself he should not be molested. It has been generally supposed that Little Thunder was killed in the battle of Blue Water, but this was not the case. He escaped unhurt. All the prisoners taken in that battle—some seventy women and children—have been sent to Fort Kearny. One of the Indians concerned in the massacre of the mail party—called Spotted Tail, was in the battle of Blue Water, and received other wounds—two pistol shots penetrating through him and rendering two entire coils, and still he escaped on the back of a Dragoon, which had probably thrown his rider.

It was the general impression at the Fort that there would be no more fighting. The presence of so large an armed force seems to have had a most salutary effect upon the Indians, and they will be glad enough to keep quiet. There was a report that the Indians had attacked and killed the party of Sir George Gore, but this report is noticed only to discredit it. The rumor was not believed at Fort Laramie, and is improbable in its very nature—Sir George's company consisting of a large number of mountaineers, who could whip any Indian force likely to be brought against them.—St. Louis Repub.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Diseases of the Liver—When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared that drunkenness was a disease, he enunciated a truth which the experience and observation of medical men is every day confirming. The many apparently human excesses of those who indulge in the use of spirituous liquors, may be thus accounted for. The true cause of conduct, which is taken for infatuation, is very frequently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in the human system, when deranged, produces a more frightful catalogue of diseases. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of disease, as is too often the case, physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, fewer deaths would result from disease induced by a deranged state of the Liver. Three fifths of the disease enumerated under the head of Consumption, have their seat in a diseased Liver. (See Dr. Gunn's great works.)

NB.—Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a boneboil. Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of the value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Three bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth. One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples of the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the worst tetter in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure ruining of the ear and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of ringworm.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always expected from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful boasters of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pasture, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start from its root and come out of your skin, leaving a healthy skin in its place. I prefer it over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know its effects in every case. It has already done more of the greatest cures in a few days in Massachusetts. I have it to offer to your care to all people of dirty. I have seen poor, puny, scrawny sickly children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and dimness. Some who have been costive for years, have taken and been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it will work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very slender operations, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. Then it never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extraordinary sensations of it that ever I heard to. No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb, which, when mixed in sweet oil, dissolves scrofulous swelling of the neck and under the ears. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table-spoonful per day. Children over eight years, a dessert-spoonful. Children under eight years, five to eight years, half a dessert-spoonful. The medicine can be made applicable to all conditions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

MR. KENNEDY gives personal attendance to his cases of scrofula.

Speaking What They Know.

These gentlemen take pleasure in testifying in regard to R. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, based on the use of the article in their private practice as physicians for a number of years, and they have known it, by observation, to be good.

New Albany, Ind., July 4th, 1853.

To R. A. Fahnestock & Co.—

GENTLEMEN—Having sold your valuable Vermifuge for some time, and having seen it used for many years, we would recommend it to all as a safe and efficient remedy for all cases of worms. In no instance have we ever seen any evil results following its administration, but always found it answered the purpose for which it was intended, and been entirely satisfactory.

Believing that everything that has been set forth in regard to its virtues is strictly in accordance with our observations not only as practitioners, but as men of business, we would unhesitatingly say to all who send this, that it is the best Vermifuge now in use, and that its virtues are best known when tried.

A Gentleman living on Squirrel Hill says—"My wife has been sorely afflicted with Dyspepsia for the last year. During this time, she had used no many medicines, which seemed to aggravate rather than remove the disease, when I accidentally heard of her recommend. Being in the country, she enjoyed all the advantages of pure air and exercise, yet each day she seemed to be more exhausted. With some difficulty I prevailed her to take your Balsam Roots, which I am happy to state has taken your Balsam Roots, which I am happy to state has effectually cured her."

Joy for the Invalid.—We cut the following from the "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," and we commend our readers to pursue it "which is the perfect medicine not delay purchase."

DR. HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—This celebrated medicine, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the ingenious German Medicine Store, 120 Arch street, is meeting with unprecedented sale, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is daily receiving testimonials of its a scientific physician, is daily receiving testimonials of its wonderful effects in curing the most inveterate cases of dyspepsia, liver complaint, and other diseases arising from a disordered state of the digestive organs. Indeed, we believe that many a disease, which never falls to yield to the invigorating influence of this medicine, such as nervous debility, jaundice, costiveness, a sallow complexion, a morbid breath, loss of appetite, lowness of spirits, and a general feeling of prostration, are its immediate results, and its lasting attendants. These diseases, which have defied the skill of the ablest of our physicians, have been speedily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters."

From the Home Journal, New York.—"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and who hasn't?) the reason is obvious; as it not only beautifies the Hair, but preserves and renders it as soft and flexible as of 18. Its perfume and agreeable enlivening effects, should stamp it an indispensable article of the toilet." The above is but one of thousands of similar testimonials—let strangers unprejudiced use a toilet article. Be sure and ask for Lyon's Kathairon, as its unparalleled popularity has caused several unprincipled persons to put up valueless imitations, which they call by somewhat similar names. Important to Farmers—New Discovery.—VEGETABLE CATTLE POWDER.—These Powders are put up in one pound packs, and are really a good article, and cheap for the disease incident to horses, cows, sheep, and other animals, but they are likewise an excellent article to improve the condition of the animal.

For Milch Cows, they not only improve the condition of the milch cows, but they increase the quantity as well as improve the quality of milk and butter. The proprietors say that it increases the quantity of butter from half a pound to a pound a week to each cow, while those persons who have tried it say a pound and a half to two pounds per week, with the same kind of feeding as before. Of one thing we are certain, all who use it once will use it all the time, and save money by the operation as well as improve the appearance of their stock. Price 25 cts. a paper; 5 papers for $1.
