ON SATURDAY afternoon and evening the Panorama of New York City was visited by more than 2000 persons. It remains here three days longer and exhibits at Masonic Hall at 7½ o'clock each evening. This is a work which, wherever it has gone has produced a tremendous sensation. Competent judges have declared it to be admirable, not only as a work of art but also as a representation of what is undertaken to portray. In many respects it must be more interesting to the spectator, than a visit to the commercial metropolis, itself, could be. To have the most striking features of a great city selected with the judgment and the taste of an artist compressed into a picture which passes before the eye and through the mind in the space of two hours, must give a more just and lively idea of the city itself as a whole, in the general characteristics of its architecture, and the relation of its several parts to each other, than weeks spent by the stranger in studying it in detail.

But Mr. Bullard's work is said to be not only useful in this point of view, but also extremely admirable and interesting. Where over it has been hitherto, it has drawn night after night great audiences of all sorts of people, and we have yet to hear the first word of censure expressing it. Go and see it for one night at any rate.

CHARGE OF RIOT.—Lawrence Foley, Barclay Clahorty, Patrick Flaherty, Patrick Flagerty, Michael Morgan, Pat Connelly, Stephen Foley and Thomas Foley, were informed on before Mayor Vaux, on Friday, by Albert G. Scott, who charged them with riotous and disorderly conduct. His deposition states that the defendants are in the employ of Caleb Foster in working on Section four of the Steubenville Railroad, in Chartiers township, and charges that they did on the ninth day of November act in a riotous and disorderly manner by banding together in a body and refusing to work according to their contract and the rules of said Caleb Foster and by their actions and words intimidating others from going on with the work, which is a serious injury and damage to said Caleb Foster, and which places him at the mercy of a passionate, lawless body of men who may do him or his agents bodily harm, and of whom the deponent stands in fear.

On Saturday, Officers Richardson, Silsby, Spence and Ray proceeded to Section four, and arrested Lawrence Foley, Barclay Clahorty, Patrick Flaherty and Patrick Flagerty. They were brought into this city, taken before Mayor Vaux and in default of bail, committed to jail to await a further hearing to-day.

THE purchasers of the rights of the great Corn Sheller will be glad to hear that Messrs. Warwick, Atterbury & Co. have leased the large buildings at the corner of Grant and Water sts. for the purpose of turning out hundreds of the corn shellers weekly for the supply of the constantly increasing demand. The rights are being sold rapidly to the farmers all over the county, and those who are selling machines are accumulating handsome sums by the rapid sales they make. There never was a machine connected with the farming occupation so much needed nor so much desired by those who use it. One hundred hands will soon be at work in the factory, and whatever facilities may be necessary to multiply machines in large numbers will be added. It is their determination to make them as perfect as possible.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions, on Saturday, a motion to discharge Caroline Mounts and Geo. Boyd from imprisonment in the County Jail on a charge of adultery was argued by Mr. McCalmont for the District Attorney of Washington county, and for the defendants by Col. Black. The Court granted the motion. Col. Black will bring the matter before the Supreme Court this week.

BERGER, Shannon and Savage were discharged from jail on Saturday morning at ten o'clock. They were escorted through the streets by a long cavalcade of carriages and musicians, with a band of music and flying flags. The procession numbered several hundred persons.

THE Firemen's Association meets to-night for the purpose of appointing a committee to examine Lowry's Steam Fire Engine, and report upon it. A committee of the Boards of Trade and Underwriters will also examine the Engine.

BURGLARY.—About a week since, the house of Capt. Rector, on Franklin street, in the sixth Ward, was entered by a gang of boys. They ransacked the entire house. It is not known how much property has been removed.

ON Saturday a lad named Robert McCoy was arrested on information made by Albert Davis. He confessed to the charges of burglary and larceny, and was committed to jail. The police have no suspicion as to the other parties engaged in the burglary.

MISS EMMA appears at the Theatre this week at the earnest solicitation of many citizens. We understand she will repeat the thrilling play of "Camille" sometime during the week.

THE Duquesne Greys met to-night and every night this week for drill. They parade on Friday next.
