HARMONIUMS AND MELODEONS.

H. KLEBER & BRO., hire received the celebrated for sales lot of the above instruments which they warrant equal of not superior to any others made.

Harmoniums with 5 stops made by PODBIELSKY, Stuttgard, Germany.

Harmoniums with 3 stops by Trayser & Co., Stuttgard.

These instruments have been examined by the Professors and amateurs of the two cities, who pronounce them, in point of volumes and sweetness of tone, fully equal to any small Church or pastor Organ. The bellows are so arranged that a child of eight years can work them with strength; the MELODEONS MADE BY CARHART & NEPDIAN are,

It is almost superfluous to say anything in their favor to the senior partner, Mr Carhart is the original inventor of the Melodeon and the superiority of his instruments has never been questioned. They receive orders for them from all parts of the world. One of their last and most important improvements is the bellows swell, which, while it enriches the tone affords the player greater variety of effects. Purchasers are requested to examine and convince themselves of the superiority of the above, which will be sold on the most reasonable terms by H. Kleber & Bro., No. 33, Fifth street.
