The Very Valuable Farm

ADJOINING the borough of Butler, Pennsylvania, formerly owned by Archibald M'Coll, Esq., is offered for sale. It contains about two thirds are under cultivation and the residue in timber. The beautiful situation and costly improvements make it one of the most desirable farms in Pennsylvania. It may be divided into three farms.

First—Eighty acres with the mansion house, out buildings, garden grounds, etc., all suitable for, and much admired, as a country seat. The mansion is 50 feet square (usually new) with kitchen, ice house, etc., attached. It is built in the most complete and substantial manner. The outbuildings are a large stable and carriage house, dwelling house for gardener, etc., all the buildings are of brick. The garden is large, and well stored with choice fruit trees.

Second—Ninety to one hundred and twenty acres, nearly all under cultivation, with brick farm house, stone barn and stabling, with shed, etc., very neat. Different farm by itself.

Third—One hundred and fifteen to one hundred and forty-five acres. Upon this tract is a large FLOURING MILL, three stories high with dwelling house and stable. The mill is a good merchant mill with steam power, and is doing a profitable business. This tract lies upon Conoquenessing Creek, and contains over 50 acres of excellent meadow land.

The property lies contiguous to the line of the North Western Railroad, the depot grounds adjoining it. The railroad is in successful progress and will soon bring Butler within two hours ride of Pittsburgh, by a connection with the Allegheny Valley Railroad at Freeport.

Underlying the farm is a vein of Coal of superior quality. It is opened within a few rods of the depot grounds, and may be mined and sent by railroad to Cleveland at a price which will afford a handsome profit.

The entire property is offered for $20,000, which is less than the cost of the improvements, or it will be sold in two or three parts.
