PITTSBURGH:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1856.

THE TEMPERANCE LEAGUE REMONSTRATING AGAINST APPLICANTS FOR LICENSE.—The Board of Licensers met yesterday for the purpose of hearing the remonstrances that might be made against applicants. The list was called over, and no objections being made, the President remarked that letters had been received protesting against the granting of license to certain parties, but such evidence was deemed insufficient by the Board, and it would be necessary for the remonstrants to be examined personally.

At this stage of the proceedings J. H. Foster and Christopher L. Magee entered the room, and after a few moments delay, the former addressed the Board, stating that on behalf of the Temperance League of Allegheny county, he had a remonstrance to offer against certain parties named, of therein receiving licenses.

Mr. Foster then read the following paper to the Board:

To the Honorable the Board of Licensers for the County of Allegheny:

We, the undersigned, citizens of the county of Allegheny, as citizens, and on behalf of the Allegheny County Temperance League, do most respectfully, but earnestly protest and remonstrate against licences for the sale of intoxicating drinks being granted by your Honorable Board to the applicants hereinafter named, for the reasons herein set forth:

The Act establishing the Board being in restraint of an unlimited and unauthorized sale of intoxicating drinks, is both a remedial and restraining statute, and should be construed with reference to the evil sought to be remedied, the mischief and the remedy, in such way as to suppress the mischief and advance the remedy.

Your Remonstrants believing that the mischief arises in great part from the licensing of improper, intemperate and immoral men, who even under the stringent provisions of this act, will bring themselves within the letter, though not the spirit or the law, feel justified that if they can show by incontestible evidence that any one of the applicants has heretofore rendered himself amenable to criminal information and indictment by a premeditated and open violation of the laws of this Commonwealth, not only by the wilful, illegal sale of intoxicating drinks, but by evading and defying the process of the Court after Bench Bill found, and continuing the unlawful traffic up to the present time, your Honorable Board cannot consider such applicant a person of "good moral character," and entitled to license under the provisions of this law, and in the exercise of a sound discretion with reference to the intent of the Legislature and the aim and purpose of the Act, will refuse to license any such applicant, notwithstanding a prima facie case made out through the intervention of friends.

Your Remonstrants, relying upon the records of the Court of Quarter Sessions for this county, which in law import absolute verity, hereby offer them in evidence to prove that the applicants hereinafter named are not "citizens of good moral character," such as under the provisions of the Act of 1856, are entitled to license to sell intoxicating drinks. Your Remonstrants have taken the pains to give the number, and session of each case, so that the statements herein made may be verified by inspection.

Here follow the names of some fifty applicants, all residents of the city, who were indicted under the late restraining liquor law, as stated in the remonstrance.]

Your remonstrants further represent that William Bennett, James Shannon, and John Savage, aforesaid, were indicted, tried, and convicted at October Sessions, 1855, as will appear by reference to Nos. 178, 187, and 190, of said sessions, and after the expiration of their several terms of imprisonment paraded through the public streets of this city, in procession in contempt of law, and in defiance of the evil example of the youth of the country.

They further say that they are informed that George Schneck and Henry Rea, aforesaid, are persons of intemperate habits, and that Joseph Spencer and C. C. Seely, permit their houses to be made the resort of idle, dissolute, and evil disposed persons, all of which they are ready to verify by competent testimony; and pray your Honorable Board to refuse licenses to the applicants aforesaid, for the reasons herein set forth.

The undersigned agree as to the above remonstrance, so far as it refers to the persons heretofore indicted for violating liquor laws.

Thos. Berry,
N. Patterson.

T. B. Hamilton, and J. W. Riddell, Esqs., objected, at different stages, to the reading of the above document, but the Board overruled them. To-day has been fixed upon for hearing testimony in support of the allegations made as above by the Temperance League.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judge McClure, Boggs and Adams.

Commonwealth vs. Mary McWilliams; indictment keeping a bawdy house, on oath of Eliza Kemp. The jury found the defendant guilty, and she was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the county jail.

Commonwealth vs. Conrad Schaad and Esq. Wm. Hageman; indictment, false pretenses, on oath of John Ammann. The offense alleged against these defendants, was that Schaad, assisted by Hageman, had obtained from Ammann the sum of $400, by giving a note from Schaad, endorsed by Alderman Daft, of this city, whom they had represented to be worth $100,000.—The defence made was that Hageman had nothing to do with the matter except drawing the note, in his official capacity; that Schaad was worth all he represented himself to be; and that Daft was reported, at the time the note was endorsed, one of the most reliable and wealthy men in the city. The case was tried at the last term of the Quarter Sessions, and the jury found a verdict of guilty. On the 23d of April, a motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment was argued, and after hearing counsel on both sides, Judge McClure decided that the verdict was against the evidence, or rather without evidence, and a new trial was granted. He remarked that the loss of the prosecutor occurred from his own neglect in not entering up a judgment bond within the prescribed time—that he wished to secure his money by means of a criminal prosecution, which the Court would not permit.

The case was on trial yesterday, but had not been concluded at the hour of adjournment.

We know of no other Establishment in this city, so deserving of patronage as A. McTighe's Dry Good Store, corner of Grant and Fifth Sts. McTighe not only keeps good goods, and sells them cheap, but he daily receives direct from importers, the very latest Paris fashions. His stock of Manillas is now very extensive, in addition to which he will this morning open one hundred and thirty new style, richly trimmed, and made of the best material. Ladies in want of such goods, should certainly call and see the largest and cheapest stock of Manillas ever brought to this city.

JUVENILE THIEVES.—Two colored boys named Alfred Hall and John Marshall, were yesterday arrested on suspicion of having stolen ten dollars from a German who keeps a beer hall and hotel on the Monongahela wharf. Marshall had one hundred and five dollars in his pocket, while Hall but a half a dime. They also had a pair of man's boots, and a pair of ladies' slippers, which were doubtless stolen. Hall was arrested a few days ago charged with the larceny of an umbrella from a man on St. Clair street. They are awaiting an examination before Mayor Bingham.

OWNER WANTED.—A resident of the Second Ward, found a large black trunk in an alley a day or two since, and took it to the Mayor's office. It is filled with clothing, books, etc., and seems to have been in the possession of a notorious character named Mary Woods. Several of the books have her name written in them. Some of the clothing is valuable, and has doubtless been stolen. It can be seen at the Mayor's office.

ASSAULT WITH KNUCKLERS.—On Monday night between ten and eleven o'clock, a man was assaulted on Wood street, between Fifth and Virgin alley, and received a terrible cut below the left eye. He cried "murder," "watch," until his assailant fled. Neither of the parties were known, and the origin of the assault is of course a mystery. A crowd of about a hundred people assembled to see the "mêlée," and seemed greatly excited at the cry of murder.

The extensive sale of fine Summer Clothing at Davis' Auction Rooms will be continued this morning at 10 o'clock. Several cases (just received by express) containing choice new styles will be opened for this morning's sale, which is peremptory and to which the particular attention of the trade is requested.

MAYHEM.—Richard Armstrong yesterday sued out a warrant, before Mayor Bingham, for the arrest of Alexander Wylie, whom he charges with assault and battery and mayhem. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant beat him at a house in the Diamond, and bit off a portion of his forefinger.

THE Grand Jury will rise to-day. They have been in session but eight days, and have passed upon upwards of four hundred bills. The whole number of indictments for the present term, will reach four hundred and twenty.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—A man named Jacob Parker was arrested and taken before Mayor Bingham yesterday, charged with having stolen from a steamboat engineer named Graham, goods to the amount of $40—and two promissory notes, one for $960, and the other for $250. He is awaiting a further examination. Warrants are out for two other men, supposed to have been accessory to the robbery.

A LECTURE FOR THE TIMES.—The Rev. W. S. H. Keys will speak in Masonic Hall this evening, (11th inst.,) commencing at 8 o'clock. Subject: The Supremacy of Moral Obligation, in opposition to the expediency of temporising Religionists, and the Doughfaced, truckling lies of Political Demagogues. Admittance 25 cents, (taken at the door.) Proceeds to be applied to the Free Kansas Missionary Fund. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

WANTON OF THE SUNDAY LIQUOR LAW.—A warrant was issued by the Mayor yesterday morning for the arrest of Frederick Krause, charged with selling liquor on the Sabbath. The defendant resides in Pitt township, and keeps a beer shop.

THE DISTRICT COURT was in session yesterday, Judges Hampton and Williams on the bench.—The day was consumed in hearing arguments, motions, &c. Nothing was done worthy of note.

BISHOP POTTER will lay the corner-stone of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Etna, Pine Creek, on Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

BELTING

Patent Rivetted and Stretched

LEATHER BELTING,

From the Manufactory of Hoit & Brothers,

NEW YORK.

THE Belting of this manufacture has been awarded the Premium at the Fairs held in the United States the most remarkable of late years. It is for superior quality, every branch of the business being conducted under the immediate supervision of the firm, who are selected by themselves as their own receiving house, insuring perfection in their selections. Belts made from our tannery, after the hollow and shoulders have been trimmed, are returned to New York and there stretched on machines with every modern improvement, and then the belts are carried immediately, wet and dry stretched on machines with every modern improvement, connected and riveted with best copper rivets, and burrs which make a perfectly even surface on both sides of the band, enabling them to run truly on the pulleys and giving a power of more than 20 per cent, over those made in the usual manner. To mechanics of all kinds, to cotton and woolen manufacturers, rolling mills, paper makers, sawing and planing mills, flouring mills, owners of gins, distilleries, breweries, foundries, the homes, in short, of every consumer, this Belting is specially recommended, as the best, if not the cheapest article in the Belting. For sale by M. DE LANGE, No. 233 Liberty st., Pittsburgh. Manufactory, 348 Lewis st. mh18:1yd&w3m

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET.

For the Week ending June 10, 1856.

The opening of the Summer season finds business a little dull, but not so much so as was expected. The jobbing trade, and the produce dealers, still have considerable to do, but every day brings it more nearly duller, and we look for but little activity from now till after harvest.

The rains of last week have improved the navigation of the Ohio, but have not brought it up to a good stage.—The smaller steel boats are still running freely, and bringing forward considerable amounts of produce, the bulk of which is for the east.

The break in the dam in the Monongahela is to expose last will be closed this week, and navigation resumed.

Flour is a shade lower than last week, especially on the poorer grades. The better grades are still in good demand, and maintain their prices more firmly.

The prospects of the growing wheat crop continue exceedingly flattering, being quite favorable. As this prospect improves, the feeling in breadstuffs grows duller. As long however, as the supply is so restricted as it is now, prices cannot be much further depressed.

In the grocery market there is more firmness than at the date of our last report, but in other articles we have no special change to note.

The dry goods import at New York for the week is $1,132,751, against $316,078 the corresponding week last year.

The New York Evening Post says:—We have no change to note in the condition of the money market, and money can be obtained quickly on prime securities at low rates, 7 to 9 per cent. The demand for good commercial paper is quite active, all rates, and 6 to 7 per cent loans on call on time.

The New York Journal of Commerce remarks:—

We notice that the increased supply of money now offered in the market, is attributable to many sanguine persons in the belief that so far as the stringency is concerned, it is over for the present, and that the demand for money will be light for present troubles, such a hopeful spirit is not out of place; but we do not think it is yet time for anticipations of increased activity and extension of business by persons possessing any small capital. Merchandise is very high, and we do not see how any current rate, even, this is especially true of dry goods, fabrics, and the like, to be imported, can be realized, and afford any reasonable encouragement of immediate improvement. The change in our revenue laws, which will tend to prevent those pernicious speculations system, while it tends to make the foundations of commercial business more secure, and rapid transactions in money and credit, tends to more frequent and rapid transactions in business. We do not believe that the next six months will prove a favorable time for anticipating any extension in business with all sail set. Money may be had cheaply, but if it is it will be because of a stagnation of business, and this an evidence of unusual prosperity. Capitalists may prefer to keep their money at interest, but it will only be loaned for very, unexceptionable security.

The Philadelphia Ledger says:

The same improved tone in the money market that we have already had to notice, continues, continues. Among those who have occasion to make applications, the supply of money is considerably beyond the demand, which must soon have the effect to ease the demand, which must soon have the effect to ease the street rates.

The Baltimore American says:

COTTON—There is a good inquiry for Cotton, and the market is firm at the quotations. We have reported today sales of 650 bags fair Rio at 10¾ cts, and of 400 bags prime at 11¼ cts. We now note sales yesterday of 500 bags fair to prime Rio at 10¾@10¾, and of 400 bags fair to good Rio at 10¾@10¾ cts. We quote Rio Coffee to-day at 10¾@11¼ cts for prime, to fair, 10¼ cts. Our market is quiet, however, with very choice lots are selling at the last named figure. There is a fair demand for Sugar, and prices are firm. We hear of sales of 100 hhds Cuba, 7 mos. We quote it at 11@11¾ cts, New Orleans is still quoted at 12¾@15 cts.

The New York Post of Saturday, says:

The money market is disturbed by speculators, who control the entire stock in the city. The grocers and refiners have small stock. The advance on refined sugars, of half a cent, and now cent and one-half. There is also some disposition to buy up Molasses on speculation. We understand that 1,000 bags Hio, forming the cargoes of the three ships, Julius, Sun and Lizzy, were taken up by speculators at 9¾@10¼c.

The demand for money is just now pretty active, and the banks mostly have their discount lines full. The drug mand has probably been swelled by the increase of trade on the west, which the manufacturers are now driving on after finishing up their spring orders. There is not much that class paper finding its way to the street, however.

The following are the leading items of receipts last week:

ASHES—the active season for Pearls is over, and prices have fallen somewhat since our last report. We now quote Pearls at 6¾@7 for country superfine and extra; Pots are dull at 5¾. Sales of Ash of ordinary quality continue steady at 3¾, on time.

APPLES—but few arriving, and receipts are mostly on account of retail dealers; we quote firm at $1.50@$2.50 per bbl as to quality.

BEANS—dull, with a light supply and lighter demand. Prime small white are worth $1.50 on arrival, and $1.75 from store.

BUTTER & EGGS—there is no roll butter offering, and but little packed; we continue to quote prime nominal at 10@12c. Eggs have been in steady request, and sold readily at 10@10½c, with some sales as high as 11.

BACON—a firmer feeling is manifest and prices are a shade higher than last week. We notice a good demand for prime city cured hams, which we quote at 7¾@7¾c. Hams 10@10¼—the general tendency being to the outside figures. Western Hams, a fraction off. Since Monday, there has been more activity, and we observe one sale of 57,000 lbs Sides at 9, and 30,000 lbs Shoulders at 7¾ cash, 10,000 lbs Western Hams at 9¾, cash, and 12,000 lbs assorted at 7¾, 9 and 10, cash; and 87,000 lbs do at 7¾, 8¾ and 10.

BRICK—is fair and regular demand for Bolivar Fire Brick at $28@$40, common and extra.
