A Vitalizing Element
TO CONSUMPTIVES.
A PHYSICIAN of high standing, and formerly a Professor in one of the Medical Institutions of this country, now retired from active practice, has been entrusted from Patmos, with a certain remedy, which was cast in South America for his health, a gift to Consumptives. Bronchitis, Catarrh, Coughs and General Debility, and kindred affections, such as Night Sweats and Difficult and Painful Breathing, are speedily and effectually relieved, and in many cases entirely cured, by making known this most valuable remedy. Upon receipt of Fifteen Cents, to prepay the cost of transmission, he will send a Recipe, with full directions for making and successfully using it.
The amount required is asked for results, and the payment of this advertisement. Address

The Adams Express Company
Pittsburgh, Rochester and New-Brighton Express.
FOR the especial accommodation of the large population along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New-Brighton, whose business and social relations require such arrangement, this Express Company have made such arrangement with the Railroad as to enable them to put a trusty messenger on the accommodation train, which takes charge of all property and business properly entrusted to them. The Messenger will have an Iron Safe in the Baggage Car, for the deposit and be our security of Money, Jewelry and other valuables. He will leave New-Brighton by the Morning Train, reach in Pittsburgh and Allegheny City during the day to attend to such commissions as may be entrusted to him, and return by the Evening Train, with his goods and commissions for New-Brighton. It will be his duty to receive on his trip all parcels, packages and commissions, and have them delivered to the proper party soon after the arrival of the train at the Office, City Depot. He will also receive written or verbal messages to be delivered in the city—such as inquiries, information, obtain information, and return, replies—order goods, and return them—make purchases, large or small, from a sewing or pins to a steam engine. All goods, &c., will be delivered or called for in the two localities, free of cost, at distances, without extra charge, but if issues such duties, should be required, on messages especially for private business.
At Way Stations, all business will be left with the station Agent of the Railroad Company, when the owner party is not at the Station on the arrival of the Train, to receive his goods.
The charges for carrying, packages, &c. and our services rendered by the Messengers are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business is such as to admit of it special arrangements will be made.
As the Messenger is required to settle in the Office and business with the Company, and to pay in full the payment of the fees will be required of him, so will he not entrusted by the Company, he has no discretion in the matter.
HENRY E. LYON has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 27, 1852.

The Republican Platform.
ADOPTED BY THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION, JUNE 17TH, 1856.
THE Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—to the policy of the present administration—to the extension of slavery into free territory; in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State—of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do—
Resolve, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, is essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States, and the union of the States, must and shall be preserved.
Resolved, That, with our Republican fathers, we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and that the primary object and ulterior design of our Federal Government is to grant these rights to all persons under its exclusive jurisdiction. That, as our Republican fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution (against all attempts to violate it for the purpose of establishing slavery in the territories of the United States), by positive legislation prohibiting its existence or extension therein. That we deny the authority of Congress, of a Territorial Legislature, of any individual or association of individuals, to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be maintained.
Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territ
