PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

Too Good to be Lost.—An old miser in New England owning a farm, found it impossible to do his work without assistance, and accordingly offered any man food for performing the requisite labor. A half-starved pauper hearing of the farmer, accepted them. Before going into the fields in the morning, the farmer invited his help to breakfast; after finishing the meal, the old skin-flint thought it would be saving time if they should place the dinner upon the breakfast.—This was readily agreed to by the unsatisfied stranger, and the dinner was soon dispatched.

"Suppose, now," said the frugal farmer, "we take supper; it will save time and trouble, you know."

"Just as you like it," said the eager eater, and as it then was,

"Now we will go to work," said the satisfied and delighted employer.

"Thank you," said the delighted laborer, "I never work after supper."

The Rev. Dr. M'C———, minister of Douglas in Clydesdale, was one day dining in a large party where the honorable Henry Erskine and some other lawyers were present. A great dish of cresses being presented after dinner, Dr. M'C., who was extravagantly fond of vegetable, helped himself much more largely than any other person, and as he ate with his fingers, with a peculiar variety of manner, Mr. Erskine was struck with the idea that he resembled Nebuchadnezzar in his state of condemnation.—Resolved to give him a hit for the apparent grossness of his taste and manner of eating, he wit addressed him with "Dr. M'C., ye bring me in mind of the great king Nebuchadnezzar," and the company were beginning to titter at the ludicrous allusion; when the reverend vegetable devourer replied, "Ay, do I mind ye o' Nebuchadnezzar; That'll be because I'm eating among the brutes!"

To Consumers of Pickles.

BELIEVING that the Public have become tired of purchasing Pickles in Packages, holding, in many cases, fifty per cent. less than represented, we have commenced putting up, in addition to our present assortment, a variety of PICKLES, bottled in Pint and Quart WOOD & GOTS EXTRA CLARET, and are selling into small jars, which are legibly stamped in the glass, with their exact contents in pints or quarts, enabling the consumer to verify their truth.

These Extra Pickles are put up with every regard to style, quality and flavor, and will be sold at fairly remunerating prices.

We have made no change in our manner of Greening Pickles, never having recourse to any deleterious means to attain this end. The Clear Vinegar we use is made from some fruit, and is entirely free from Vitriol or any other mineral acid, which is not the case with the Vinegar used in most brands of English Pickles found in the market.

When the medicinal virtues are so universally acknowledged, and particularly here, where it has become so popular a family medicine, that it is sold by almost all the grocers, as well as all the druggists, it would seem needless to offer further evidence, yet as there are doubtless some who have tried many advertised remedies, and still suffer from Dyspepsia in one or more of its dreadful forms, and which the following certificate, the testimony of which cannot be doubted, coming as they do from persons so well known,

What it is doing for the Sick.

Wm. Schuchman, Esq., the well known lithographer, says: "I have frequently used Brandreth's Vegetable Pills, and find it invariably relieves indigestion and debility."

Rev. Samuel Babcock says: "I found special relief from the use for a severe headache, with which I had long suffered."

Mr. Cardwell, Esq., says: "I use the Pills for weakness of the stomach and bowels."

Rev. Mr. Hitchcock says: "After several physician had failed, Brandreth's Vegetable Pills restored me to perfect health and ease, arising from indigestion."

Rev. Mr. Fitzwater, Methodist Preacher, says: "After one of the best physicians in this place had failed, Brandreth's Vegetable Pills effected a cure of the worst form of dyspepsia."

Phineas Yaple, early manufacturer of the celebrated "Yaple's Best of Ales," says: "I know that your Brandreth's Vegetable Pills are the best family medicine in the world for a disordered stomach or bowels."

Mr. Lyon, of the firm of the Packet Baltimore, pronounces it a medicine deserving the confidence of the public.

Mr. Bachman, the celebrated German physician of Germantown, says: "I have used your Brandreth's Pills in my family for many years, and find them invaluable; they have cured many of the digestive complaints."

The Manager of Dallon's Vinegar Factory says: I used it myself, and was therefore induced to try its effect upon my wife, (troubled with the great debility common to all female complaints,) and now she is doing her own work, and attributes her improved health to the use of Brandreth's Pills.

NOTICE—Persons expecting to get rid in a few days of a cough, or a cold, or a bad cold, or a cold that has settled on the lungs, or any other cough, or cold, or disease, are hereby informed that the Brandreth Pills are not intended for such cases. Persons who are in the habit of taking cathartic medicines, and who are in the habit of taking cough medicines, and who are in the habit of taking cough medicines, and who are in the habit of taking cough
