ESTABLISHED IN 1786. PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 5, 1856. VOLUME LXX—NUMBER 91.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Druggists and Physicians.

YOUR attention is invited to a new Medicine warranted valuable for

"CHILDBIRTH PAIN ALLEVIATOR."

The proprietor of this article well aware of the great prejudice that exists against anything new in the practice of medicine and especially of a secret character, by which this is intended, invites the examination of medical men, feeling sure that they will be satisfied of its merit and value.

Great care is taken in its manufacture to procure only the purest drugs, and only such as are warranted genuine are used. There is no ingredient in it that would injure any person, and the whole combined cannot possibly be injurious. Circulars containing full information and testimonials can be had at the wholesale depot, 366 Bowery, second floor. This is the only article of the kind in our extensive city, and is truly wonderful. When used rightly and in due season, it entirely prevents the suffering usually attendant upon childbirth, and preserves the mental and bodily strength of the patient in a marvelous degree, in its action it is perfectly safe, it is soothing and strengthening to the whole system, and most pleasing in its effect throughout the whole period of confinement.

Here are a few testimonials:

COUNTY, Mich., Jan. 20th, 1856.

Dr. Branan—I have used your "Childbirth Pain Alleviator" a number of times in my practice. I find it to be a most excellent article, and one that I can recommend with every confidence to the public. Its effects are truly wonderful.—Thos. Greene, M. D., Washington co.

OLINOS, N. Y., Nov. 17th, 1855.

Dr. Branan—I have on several occasions used your "Childbirth Pain Alleviator," and find it the best article I have ever seen for the purpose. It lessens the pain and causes the birth to be effected easily and quickly. I cheerfully recommend it.—Francis Lothrosse, M. D.

New York, Oct. 24th, 1854.

Dr. Branan—After having been confined several times with great danger and much pain, I was induced to try your remedy, and am happy to bear testimony to its wonderful effects. I did so, and experienced a most beneficial result. You have my best thanks, and I would cheerfully recommend your preparation to every sufferer.—Truly yours.

For sale by all respectable druggists and wholesale only at 366 Bowery, 2d floor, New York. Price $2 per package, with full and simple directions for use.

NEW STORIES FOR YOUNG FOLKS—With Ten full page Illustrations,

BY FANNY FERN.

320 pp. 12mo, cloth, price 75 cents; full gilt, $1.00.

TRIUMPHANT, as has been the success of this favorite American Authoress in every department of literature which she has attempted but one, still yet shines with most peculiar lustre in her writings for the young. Her pen is simple, and here she stands in the pinnacle of the best of living authors.

"Little Fanny," issued by Sept. 1, 1856, has all read, it is selected, reviewed & praised as this fair one can or work of its class, yet the book we now announce will deserve to even distance its predecessor in real and intense interest. It is of unmeaning interest, every page sparkling with the vivacity and grace of its author, and is rich in instruction as well as amusement.

CANTERBURY TALES.

By HARRIET LEE. 2 Vols. 12mo cloth. Price $1.75.

These sterling and remarkable novels have long been standards in English literature, and it is believed, will not fail to be received by American readers. They were favorites of Sir Walter Scott, who wrote "Nothing of Scott's is finer than 'The Germans' Tale.' I admired it when a boy, and have continued to like what I did then." The Spectator said: "Her tale is strongly and expressly written in this century when pale and sickly, or else drawn in attractive glimpses from other times." The Edinburgh Review said: "For readers of a contemplative turn, who can be amused and delighted by pure productions, and who like the pure morality which results from a keen taste for what is excellent, we know of no collections which we can more heartily recommend than these tales." They ought to be in every family library.

THE POETICAL WORKS OF HORACE SMITH AND JAMES SMITH.

Authors of "The Rejected Addresses." With Portraits and a Memoir by Horace Smith. Edited by Fred Saunders. 1 vol. 12mo, cloth. Price $1.25.

THE NEW-YORK ALMANAC AND WEATHER BOOK FOR 1857.

About 240 pp. 18mo, cloth. Price 50 cents.

This book is to contain a world of information it is small in size, and to be sold at a very low price. Besides a complete Almanac for various latitudes, it will be a complete Weather Book, for it will have a record of the state of the Thermometer, for every hour during the year ending December 31st, 1856, and a table of the Barometer, &c. &c. N. B.—Mason Brothers are now publishing a

SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED WORKS,

Which are to be sold by Subscription only. Persons desiring to be supplied with these books, will please leave their names with the publishers, or with any of the agents who are now in the country, as it exhibits more than any other document emanating from Washington, the almost fabulous expansion of our population, and rapid increase of our settlements in the new States and Territories. The increase in the expenses of the Post office Department over its receipts in 1855, amounted to $3,042,364, and in 1856 to $2,787,046. A great portion of the increased deficiency of 1856 over 1855 was caused by the additional compensation to Postmasters, ordered by Congress. The extension of the service since 1853 far exceeds in cost the increased deficiency. During the three years ending June 30, 1856, the railroad service was increased 7,968 miles in length of routes. The increase of service by other modes of conveyance, in the same period, amounted to 10,722 miles in length of post routes, or the addition was made of five millions, two hundred and fifty-two thousand, nine hundred and forty-four miles in annual transportation of the mails—the cost of which additional service was but $479,671.

The notice which the Postmaster General has taken and the observations made upon our existing system of ocean steamship mail service, and of its monopoly by a single city, and the statements of the enormous sums of money annually contributed by Congress to the commercial interests of the port of New York alone, are entitled to the special consideration of Philadelphians, and indeed of every Pennsylvanian interested in the prosperity of his own metropolis.

A DELICIOUS TEMPERANCE TEST.—Who would not live in almost any place where the young ladies are addicted to the delicious custom which is set forth by an exchange as follows:

"Quaker young ladies in the Maine Law States it is said, still continue to kiss the lips of the young temperance men, to see if they have been tampering with liquor. Just imagine a beautiful young girl approaching you, young temperance man, with all the dignity of an executive officer, and the innocence of a dove, with the charge—Mr. Ike P., the ladies believe you are in the habit of tampering with liquor, and they have appointed me to examine you according to our established rules—are you willing? you must acquiesce. She steps gently up to you, lays her soft, white arms around your neck, dashes back her raven curls, raises her sylph-like form upon her tip-toe, and with her angelic features lit up with a smile as sweet as Heaven, places her rich, rosy, pouty, sweet, sugar, molasses, strawberry, honeysuckle, sunflower, rosebud; nectar lips against yours, and buzzes you, by cracky! Horrah! for the gals and the Maine Law, and death to all opposition!"

M. BARNEY, member of the French Institute, assures the world that it need be under no apprehension from comets, which he calls "visible nothings," and which have no more power to set this world on fire than Hamlet's father's spirit had to supply his son a light for his cigar.
