MEDICINE.

Health and Strength must Inevitably follow its Use of BOERHAAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS
LE MAIN TIENDRAI
THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,
AND the various affections consequent upon a disordered Stomach or Liver. Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Costive Habit, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.
Nature finds no new energy to combat, with this delightful tonic in the system. Dyspepsia, almost mastered, yet the corresponding reaction, and relapse, follows the shock to the system, but by arousing its vital energy to normal action, enables it to throw off the enemy, and thoroughly eradicate the disease.
This celebrated Bitters is now universally a known adjunct, and particularly now, where it has become so popular a family medicine, as to be sold by druggists, it would seem needless, to offer further evidence, yet as there are doubtless those who have tried many advertised remedies, and still suffer from Dyspepsia in one or more of its dreadful forms, it is thought that the following testimony, the strongest of which cannot be doubted, comes so strongly from persons so well known.
What is it doing for the Sick.
Wm. Schuchman, Esq., the well known lithographer, says: "I have frequently used Holland Bitters, and find it invariably relieves indigestion and debility."
Jacob Schnell, Esq., of the firm of Schnell & Jones, United states, takes pleasure in announcing that they have tried a most important testimonial in favor of the above disease, it has been subjected to a test by the most rigid scrutiny, and it is now in use in London, Philadelphia and New York, it has been declared to be the only useful instrument ever yet discovered for the cure of Internal Weakness, or any disease of the liver, or the stomach and indigestion."
James M. Murphy, one water sufferer, says disease had failed, Boerhaave's Holland Bitters restored the pale from my heart and its action is perfect."
The editor of the Christian Press says: "After one of the best physicians in the place had failed, I have tried Holland Bitters perseveringly, and find it a most delightful remedy for dyspepsia."
Francis Fells, only manufacturer of the "Original Extract of Coffee," says: "I know that your Holland Bitters is one of the best medicines in the world for a disordered stomach or liver."
W. Rowe, editor of the Patriot, Baltimore, pronounces it a medicine deserving the confidence of the public.
Jr. Eberhart, the leading druggist in Lancaster, says: "Your Holland Bitters during the last 3 years, with marked success, in debilitated states of the digestive organs, and of the system generally."
The manager of Hallock's Steamer Factory says, I used it myself, and was therefore induced to try it on other upon my wife, (troubled with the great debility common to all of a consumptive habit,) and now she is doing her more good than anything she has ever taken."
CAUTION—The great popularity of this delightful Aromatic Bitters has induced many to imitate the genuine, to the great injury of the public. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have tried Holland Bitters, and then a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all other Bitters.
Sold by all druggists, at $1,00 per bottle, or a bottle for $7,00, by the sole Proprietors.
