To Capitalists and Speculators

WE are making preparations on the opening of the Land Offices in Iowa, (May 4th) to locate lands for parties wishing to invest—either with money or services, and also by time entirely on the joint principle. If we use a larger per centage and is the safest investment capitalists can make. Those parties who locally select are always considered worth double the price paid for them. Two of our firm will give their undivided attention to the business and inspect all lands in person. One of our firm has been on a tour of inspection the fall and northern Iowa, the past winter, and is well prepared for making judicious locations.

If good market prices can be realized, we will sell.

We will give all necessary information to parties wishing to invest.

A GREAT NATIONAL WORK.

Commencing a series of exclusive Books by SUBSCRIPTION ONLY.

An Abridgement of the Debates in Congress,

FROM 1789 TO 1856.

From Gales & Seaton's Annals of Congress—from their Register of Debates and from the Official Reported Debates by John C. Rives.

By the Author of "Thirty Years' View."

to be completed in 15 vols. 750 pages each, comprising what is now contained in over One Hundred Volumes.

THE price for each volume, in law binding, will be $3.50, (not much over one half the usual price for law books,) or $3 in the best cloth, payable as delivered.

The first volume is now ready, and the work will be continued every two or three months till the whole is complete.

The large expense involved in publishing this work has induced us to offer it by SUBSCRIPTION ONLY, and we therefore, specially invite the co-operation of our fellow citizens in all parts of the Union to send us their names early, with directions how the volumes shall be forwarded.

The Debates have been accruing for a period of nearly seventy years and 8 1 more than one hundred volumes—one third of them quarto—and cannot be purchased for less than Five Hundred Dollars, nor read when purchased except as a necessity, nor any thing found in them when wanted except upon toil-some search. In the mean time, they contain the history of the working of the Government from its foundation—showing what was been done, and how it was done—and shed light upon the study of all impending questions, for there is not a question of the day, and will not be while the Government continues, which may not be illustrated by something to be found in these debates.

The following letters have been received:—

Washington, Wednesday, Nov. 17, 1856.

MY DEAR SIR:—It affords me pleasure to become a subscriber to your Work, entitled, Abridgement of the Debates in Congress, from 1789 to 1856. From the long experience of the Colonel in public affairs, his commanding ability, and his acuteness and discretion in the study of political history, we may expect that this work will add to his own fame, and prove highly useful to the public.

Yours, very respectfully JAMES BUCHANAN.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 5, 1857.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your letter of 24 inst., I have to say that I know of no work in the United States more competent than Col. Rives to undertake an abridgement of the Debates in Congress, and I take pleasure in becoming a subscriber to the work.

JOHN C. BECKINRIDGE.

MY DEAR SIR:—I have already subscribed for the Debates in Congress, published by Col. Rives. Possessed of talent and reputation as a statesman, his familiar acquaintance with our parliamentary history, and the untiring industry, are sufficient guaranty for the faithful execution of this work.

I am, dear sir, respectfully yours,
EDWARD EVERETT.

Of 4th ward Governor Chase, of Ohio, says:

Governor Chase, of Ohio, says:

DEAR SIR:—The proposed Abridgement of the Debates in Congress, by Colonel Benton, commends itself to the favor of all Americans. The work itself is most important. It will place within the reach of Americans, otherwise in considerable measure of historical knowledge. It will make audible to the present generation the discussions of the past—deeply interesting themselves, but even more interesting as exhibiting the beginnings of great traces of events, the progress of which, for years, passed before our own eyes.

And no man is so well fitted for this work as the distinguished statesman who has undertaken it. His large experience in the public counsels, his great reputation for talent, afford sufficient guarantee that nothing will be retrenched which should be retained, or retained which should be retrenched.

Very respectfully, yours, S. P. CHASE.

The Hon. Judge Ware, of the United States District Court of Maine, says:

A faithful and impartial Abridgement of the Debates of Congress, from the organization of the government to the present time, will be a work of very great value to every man who feels an interest in the history of his country and who knows from his own labor, how difficult it is, even with all the great questions of national policy which have agitated the country, to find, even in the last thirty or the last thirty five years, and his known industry, eminently qualify him for such a work.

Portland, Feb. 14, 1857. ASHUR WARE.

AND the various affections consequent upon a diseased Stomach or Liver, such as Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, Palpitation, Heartburn, Low Spirits, Dizziness, Pain in the Side, Dyspepsia, Fits, Blotches, Eruptions, Dropsy, Fever and Ague, Neuralgic Affections, Rheumatism, Gout, Piles, &c. Also, in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in many cases effected a decided cure.

Nature finds, in our new enemy to combat, with this delightful tonic in the system. Its effects are almost miraculous. Its operation is gentle, and unattended with pain. Nothing of value can be lost by arousing its vital energy to normal action, enables it to throw off the cause, and thus permanently eradicates the disease.

When its medicinal virtues are so universally acknowledged and so extensively used, it has become a popular family medicine, that it is sold by many of the principal grocers and druggists throughout the country, and offers, to offer further evidence, yet as there are doubtless some who have tried many of the nostrums of the day, without benefit, it may be well to cite one or more of its dreadful forms, which it has proved to be a sovereign remedy, the authority of which cannot be doubted. Coming as they do from persons so well known.

What it is doing for the Sick.

Mr. Murphy says: "After several physicians had failed, Boerhaave's Holland Bitters removed the pain from my heart and side, arising from indigestion."

The editor of the Gettysburg Star and Press says: "After one of the best physicians in this place had failed, Boerhaave's Holland Bitters proved to be the worst form of rheumatism."
