There was a very hard rain here last night, and it looked as though we were going to have a flood; the rains vanished this morning was ushered in warm pleasant.

A case has recently occurred at Goshen, Pa., that seems to confirm the popular belief that beech trees are never struck by lightning. A beech and maple standing together with branches interlocking in other, received an electric bolt from a sing cloud which shattered the maple and passed into the earth through a prostrate hemlock tree lying near, which was split of its bark nearly the whole length. The trace of the lightning was upon the bark.

THE HOUSE AT BOOT-JACK.—The house at Boot-Jack owned by J. S. Hyde was burned yesterday afternoon. The fire is known to be an incendiary, as the building has been fired several times before.

A family was living in the house at the time of the fire; but they managed to save nearly all their household goods. We have not learned the extent of the loss by the fire.

Incendiarism seems to be a growing epidemic in this country and we know of no better use to which Judge Lynch could be put than exterminating the class of people that persist in firing other people's property. The fire at Boot-Jack was through personal spite at Mr. Hyde.

Last Friday was a gala day for Ridgway. Van Amburg's circus and menagerie was here and everybody came to town to see the show. It is said there were from fifteen hundred to two thousand persons in town.

Several persons were seen meandering about town filled with the fiery poison that steals men's souls, two or three fights, the legitimate fruits of sad passion were reported at various times during the day.

The circus came into town to late to exhibit twice as advertised, having traveled all night from Sheffield over an extremely bad road their horses were somewhat jaded and the men tired completely out, and to cap the climax the rain poured in torrents as they came into town.

In the afternoon the weather cleared up and the performance in the evening was well attended, the crowd present being variously estimated at from ten hundred to two thousand.

The one hundred anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Mary Jones Lockard, of Bigler, this county, was celebrated by a picnic on August 4th 1875 Mrs. Lockard was born in Montgomery county, Pa., on August 4th 1775. Early in life she removed to Philadelphia, and came to this county nineteen years ago. She is the mother of four children, has sixteen grand children and fifty-three great grand children. Mrs. Young, aged sixty-six, was the only one of her children present at the anniversary. Dr. T. J. Boyer, of this place, was present by special invitation and made an address. If Mr. Lockard lives she will be present at the Centennial in 1876. She is at present in good health and possessed of strength remarkable for one of her age.—Roafmans Journal.

At the new well of Satterfield, Taylor & Co., Stewart farm, near New Athens, this county, a strong vein of gas was struck on Saturday night last at a depth of about 1,800 feet. On the Sabbath afternoon a number of persons visited the well. Among these were two boys named Marlin and Lough. The boys attempted to light a cigar by igniting a match against a stump, not far from the well. With the lighting of the match occurred an explosion of the gas with which the air was charged, with a shock like an earthquake. The two boys were seriously burned, and it was with great difficulty that the well-rig could be saved. Both the boys were taken to the residence of Widow Lough, at New Athens, and at last dates were getting on comfortably. The accident was the result of recklessness. The boys having been warned of their danger of lighting matches present in the vicinity of the well.—Clarion Republican.

It is astonishing how much cold blooded and murderous persecutions the potato bug will endure. Nothing but Paris green seems to depress his spirits. He has been found proof against aquafortis, and a variety of like stimulants wherewith the vengeful granger has experimented; and last week it was demonstrated on the Honesdale dock that even railroad cars were powerless to harm him. A boy named Kavanaugh, from Shanty Hill, brought a well developed specimen to the railroad tract with a view to immolating him under a passing train. The bug, however declined to participate in the proceeding, and his captor endeavored to hold him on the rail by brute force. In the wrestle that took place, the boy's forefinger was caught under a car wheel and crushed to the first joint. The bug however, emerged from the contest unharmed, and is now ready for a fight with a trip-hammer. The damaged finger was amputated by Dr. Gibbons, and the new mode of destroying the potato bug was pronounced a failure.—Honesdale Citizen.

SUMMIT OF THE ALLEGHENIES.—The highest point touched by the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, in crossing the Alleghenies is Kane in McKean county. It is located on what is known as the Big Level, a great plateau twenty miles in length, and varying from four to six miles in width. The village of Kane which takes its name from Gen. Thomas L. Kane, a brother of the famous Arctic navigator is twenty-two hundred feet above the level of the sea. There is a large hotel at this place known as the Thomson House, which was so named in honor of the late president of the Pennsylvania railroad. It is a very delightful place, and tourists soon fall in love with the wild and romantic country surrounding it. The air of that high elevation is very pure and invigorating, and the mornings and evenings are cool and pleasant. The inside of the hotel is finished in native woods, the doors and window casings being of cherry, while the floors are of white wood, and ash and maple are also used largely. The effect is beautiful, and on entering the house the attention of strangers is at once attracted by the rich appearance which the interior presents, by the blending of these rich woods. The house which is now used as a dining station, is kept by Mr. R. M. N. Taylor a gentleman of large experience in the business, who was the first man to open the new Galt House in Louisville. Gen. Kane occupies a handsome chateau within a short distance of the hotel, which is surrounded by native oaks, where he lives in princely style, and dispenses his hospitality with a liberal hand to all visitors.—Renovo Record.

Official Order. The following is the official order for the encampment at Erie next month: HEADQUARTERS SEVENTH DIVISION, NATIONAL GUARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA. MEADVILLE, Pa., Aug. 2. (General Order No. 3.)

1.—The annual fall inspection of this command will be made, as published in General Order No. 4, from the Adjutant General's Office, Harrisburg, at Erie on Saturday, the 4th of September, at an early hour in the morning, after which probably at 2 p. m. the troops will be reviewed by His Excellency the Governor, Commander-in-Chief.

As the $400 authorized by law to be paid each company, will be allowed only to such companies as present a creditable appearance in numbers, uniforms and equipments, and a proficiency in drill, the Major General urges upon all the necessity of constant and thorough work from this time on, both in manual of arms and company movements on open ground, particularly in marching by company front.

2.—To facilitate the discipline of this command, the troops will assemble at Erie on Wednesday, September 1st, not later than 4 p. m., and go into camp until the inspection and review; each company providing for itself camp cooking utensils, rations, for four days fuel two axes, two shovels, and one pick and each man for himself, a woolen blanket a canteen and a cup.

The importance of this encampment is enhanced by the possibility of the Legislature authorizing a general encampment of ten days at Philadelphia in 1876, during the Centennial Exhibition.

3.—The commanding officer will take with him to Erie the company books of record for inspection, and also one inspection roll, which must be properly filled up and signed, attention being paid to the instructions thereon. The blank rolls will be afforded in ample time.

4.—Arrangements will be made for transportation to and from Erie at the expense of the State, and the tents will be furnished upon proper requisition.

5.—Upon receipt of this order, each company commander must without fail, report to these headquarters, through the proper military channels, the condition of his command, and what number of men will probably be present and ready for muster on September 4th.

6.—As his Excellency the Governor Commander-in-Chief of the National Guard, will review this division at the time of the fall inspection, the Major General trusts that every member of it will report in person, and that every effort will be made to have the parade a perfect one in number and appearance.

7.—The Major General announces the following Staff appointments: Major M. P. Davis as Division Quarter Master.

He will be obeyed and respected accordingly. By order of Major General HUIDEKOPER. Official John M. Clark, Lieut. Col. and A. A. G.

Game. Under the laws of this State game is only allowed to be killed as follows:

Squirrels.—From the 1st of September to the 1st of January.

Rabbits.—From the 1st of October to the 1st of February.

Wild Turkeys.—From the 1st of October to the 1st of January.

Woodcock.—From the 1st of August to the 1st of January.

Partridges.—From the 1st of November to the 1st of January.

Pheasants.—From the 1st of September to the 1st of January.

Persons interested would do well to keep in mind these provisions of the law since the penalty for the violation of any one of them is rather severe.

THE PENNSYLVANIA BURGARS.—The burglars who have been terrorizing the inhabitants of the cities and towns of southwestern New York and northwestern Pennsylvania for several weeks past, during which time a vast quantity of valuables have disappeared, are still plying their nefarious avocation. Additional particulars are received daily of new robberies and attempts at robbing from all portions of Chautauque and Cattaraugus counties, New York, and Crawford and other contiguous counties in this State. Early Sunday morning burglars effected an entrance into the elegant residence of A. C. Hardroper, of Meadville, and succeeded in securing plunder mostly consisting of silver plate, valued at $5,000. Two or three burglaries were also committed in this place, the valuation of the property taken being about $2,000. The robbers seemingly not satisfied with the extent of their crimes, have added incendiarism to their operations, and the citizens in the invested places are becoming apprehensive that other and more violent outrages will soon eventuate. The papers of Meadville are calling upon the authorities and the people to adopt such measure as will effectually stop a repetition of the criminality that has prevailed. The Republican the leading daily there suggests that in the event of the capture of any of the law breakers that they be hung to the first lamp post, which suggestion meets with the approval of the outraged community. On Sunday night the burglars visited Callensburg, Reisburg and Corry. At the first named place, the residence of Geo. Snyder was entered and robbed of $2,500 in bonds and cash. The occupant of the house awoke just in time to see two masked men leave the house. Between Saturday night and Sunday morning the Eagle House was entered and robbed of $2,000 in cash.—Erie Dispatch.

Meeting of the Republican Co. Committee. The members of the Republican County Committee are requested to meet at the Ridgway Bank, in Ridgway, Pa. on TUESDAY, AUGUST 24th, 1875. A full attendance is desired as business of importance relating to the time of holding the County Convention and the Primaries, will come before the Committee.

AN INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN JOURNAL! A LIVE NEWSPAPER, IN ALL ITS DEPARTMENTS.

In entering upon the New Year and within a few months of the second anniversary of the first appearance of the publishers of the PITTSBURGH EVENING TELEGRAPH renew their expressions of thanks to an intelligent and appreciative public for its

during the year just closed. Coming into existence at a time when every kind of business was to a certain extent depressed, and when retrenchment in every direction was the rule, the TELEGRAPH has fought its way, and become, not only an established fact, but a

whether it be of the counting-room, the professional office, the workshop, or the family of men not fully qualified to be heard from the start, has grown in extent and importance daily, until now it acknowledges two equals—the Dispatch and Leader—so far as the number issued daily is concerned, and no equal as to the character of its readers. These facts are so well known and appreciated by the business community, or the shrewdest members thereof, that our columns have been well filled by the favors of and we are glad to know that their faith in the TELEGRAPH as an advertising medium has been firmly established.

THE PITTSBURGH EVENING TELEGRAPH, has, we think, during the past year maintained its claim to the good will and support of the people, irrespective of party, inasmuch as its opposition to bad nominations within the party whose principles it favors was largely instrumental in procuring their defeat. While it shall be our aim to promote the established principles of the Republican party, we shall in the future, as in the past, oppose the election of one of men not fully qualified, or who shall by trickery or any unfair means manage to secure a place on the ticket. Honesty and capacity only will receive our support.

THE TELEGRAPH will continue to publish ALL THE NEWS OF THE DAY at the earliest moment, and in such a shape as to be acceptable to the most critical reader.

The TELEGRAPH will continue to reflect the sentiments of the people on all public questions touching their welfare. The TELEGRAPH will uphold zealously the hands of all men honest and earnest in reform, and it will, in the past, give all sides a hearing on the topics of the day. The TELEGRAPH will labor with renewed zeal for the prosperity of the city and State and the advancement of the material interests of our citizens. Its LOCAL DEPARTMENT will continue to be carefully attended to, and its reports of local events will be always fresh and reliable. Its

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS AND CORRESPONDENCE from the Capitals of the Nation and State and from all important news centers will continue to be of the most attractive and trustworthy character. Its

MARKET AND FINANCIAL REPORTS will receive the same careful attention that has been remarked in the past, and in this respect the TELEGRAPH will continue to be without a competitor. Its

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will contain an honest expression of views on all important, live topics, political and otherwise. Its

NEWS AND LITERARY DEPARTMENTS, which have always enjoyed an exalted reputation, will continue to be of the same unexceptionable character. In fine, the

EVENING TELEGRAPH

IN ALL ITS DEPARTMENTS, will be during the year 1875, superior to the past, excellent as it has been by general admission. No expense will be spared to keep the paper abreast with the times, and its managers will exert every effort that experience may suggest to make it possible, more attractive to the general reader.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO., about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them in vain, an essay upon the value of several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of procuring physicians' druggists and themselves, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute.

PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure OIL in the best and cheapest form.

DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined, and this is the sole reason why the pure OIL is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty Capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other medicine can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, so how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from many valuable remedies.

Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor Oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO SMELL.
