PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY S. RIDDLE & CO., FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

MR. BUCHANAN AT HOME.—LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 15.—The Lancaster County Democratic Convention commenced this morning. Dr. Jno K. Raub presided, and James M. Hopkins was nominated for Congress by acclamation, amid great enthusiasm. He made a speech accepting the nomination, taking strong grounds for the admission of Kansas with any population and for such a tariff as would put every furnace in blast.

Lancaster County is the place of Mr Buchanan's own residence. How popular he is there, may be inferred from this Convention, which, though made up of his neighbors and personal adherants, repudiates his policy and nominates a Congressman pledged to support measures which as President he is pledged to veto! Mr. B. though no prophet, is evidently "without honor in his own country."

The explanation of this remarkable movement in this:—Thaddeous Stephens, a straightforward, energetic Republican, and a long-life opponent of our respected President's shuffling and dodging career, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans. To avert the impending danger of his triumph over Buchanan in Buchanan's own County, the latter's friends are willing to move heaven and earth. The President is rumored to have written from Washington, imploring his friends to resort to any expedient, however desperate, to save him from that humiliation. Taking him at his word, they have adopted the only course that holds out a shadow of hope—that of repudiating his doctrines and denouncing the proposed measures of his Administration! If Mr. Hopkins is elected on this "platform," it is evident that somebody is to be cheated. Either he will violate his ante-election pledges to his constituents, or, keeping them, he will prove a standing rebuke to the President. Which he will do, is a question for his constituency to discuss. Meanwhile, it is a gratifying fact that all parties in Lancaster are unanimous in condemnation of Lancaster's President, none of them—not even his own—daring to endorse his policy!—Alb. Eve. Jour.

CHINA.—The China mail, already telegraphed, had reached England. The Hong Kong correspondent of The London Times, writing on the 6th of July, says:

"The Russian and United States Ministers have concluded treaties with the Chinese, and the bearer of the Russian treaty is a passenger by the present steamer. We cannot state positively what concessions have been obtained from the Chinese by these treaties, but it is probable a good deal is left to depend upon the treaties to be obtained by the Allies, the Russians and Americans stipulating for the same privileges as granted to other nations. It is mentioned that the Americans stipulated for the opening of the new ports of Swatow and Taiwan, in Formosa. As regards the question of compensation for property destroyed at Canton, we do not hear that anything was arranged.

"Negotiations for the Allied Embassadors are said to be progressing, and it was expected that treaties would be signed about the 22d ult. If this result had been obtained at the time mentioned, we ought to have a steamer direct from the Peiho with the intelligence. It is reported that all the demands of the Allies had been acceded to, and that the conditions of the treaties will confer extended privileges upon foreigners, and include guaranty for idemnification for property destroyed at Canton."

Great hostility continued to be exhibited at Canton toward foreign residents, and the acting British Consul had issued a notice advising the to be prepared for a sudden departure.

A blockade of the river at Canton had been established, in so far as Chinese boats were concerned, and trade was suspended. All the native merchants had left, and also the greater portion of the foreign community.

The latest accounts state that a French man-of-war had shelled Shamun, part of the western suburbs of Canton, as a Frenchman had been killed in that neighborhood.

In the Peking gazette the word "barbarian", had been omitted in referring to foreign affairs.

THE YANKEE CHARMER AND HIS RATTLESNAKES.—A correspondent of the South Carolinian, at the Sweet Springs of Virginia, thus mentions an exhibition there by the Snake-charmer: —A tall, bony, Yankee-looking foreigner last from California, made his appearance with a box of snakes—rattle-snakes, moccasins, black-snakes, vipers, &c. He collected a crowd around him, though at a respectful distance, and grasping with both hands a bunch of snakes, coiled them around his neck and thrust them into his bosom, as if they were strands of silk or cotton. Their twistings and turnings seemed to give him pleasure, while the bystanders were filled with very opposite emotions. He professes to tame his savage friends by mesmerism, and thus fights the rattlesnake with his own weapons.

Some in the crowd suggested that he should take a wild, untamed snake and show his power over it, which he agreed to do for twenty-five dollars. This sum was readily subscribed, and a rattlesnake, caught the day before, was soon procured. The operator examined him with some caution, but presently turned the box over and threw the venemous reptile upon the green sward. He kicked him about several times, caught him by the tail and threw him back and forth, finally seized him in the middle and held him at arm's length. The snake turned his head towards him, and their eyes met—the latter fixed his gaze steadily upon the snake and kept it so for several minutes, when he suddenly coiled it around his neck, thrust it in his bosom, as he had done the others, and the snake seemed entirely tame. Two days after he repeated his experiment for twenty dollars on a large rattlesnake which had just been caught, and with similar results. A crowd of ladies, gentlemen and children in the piazza of the hotel witnessed the singular exhibition. It was painful to see, though the individual seemed to have the most entire confidence in his ability to control the horrid animals.

We learn that the owners of the James Buchanan, a Slaver built and fitted out in the Delaware river, in sight of our dwelling, had become apprehensive of loss, since the capture of the Echo. But the James Buchanan has made four successive voyages since 1856, and cleared $400,000. So we go. Our readers may be incredulous, nevertheless, we state nothing but facts. —Southern Journal, Phil., Sept. 11.

The owners of the "James Buchanan" need give themselves little apprehension that their trade will be disturbed by our government, so long as they sail under that name; no application of this Administration would be likely to risk its place by interfering with them. It seems quite significant that whatever slavery operations are carried on in that name, are successful. It should be cannonized by the Southerners,—that it may be used after its original has served out his time in tyranny's service.—Toledo Blade.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT FOR THE COLORED PEOPLE—EXPEDITION TO THE RIVER NIGER.—The Association for the colored people of Canada and the United States, Mr. W. H. Day, President, co-operating with an organization in Wisings just now appearing for the probable benefit of Africa, and of the colored people generally, by commissioning an exploring party to the valley of the Niger. The colored people have now reached a point of advancement which enables them to send men of their own. Of this Niger Valley Exploring Party, Dr. Martin R. Delany, of Chatham, is the Commissioner, to be assisted by Robert Douglas, Esq, artist and professor, Robert Campbell, Esq., as naturlist. All of these are colored men, the latter two being at present residents of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—Another reason for the silence of the Atlantic telegraph is given, to the effect that Prof. Whitehouse was under contract to be allowed to experiment for forty days after the laying of the cable, to be paid £5,000 for his services, if successful, besides an annual salary of £5000 for twenty years, for the use of his instruments. If successful, Prof. Thompson was to have the use of the line for fifteen days, at a similar salary; and in the event of his failure, Prof Hughes to have it for twenty days, without stipulation as to remuneration.

LECOMPTON Congressional nominees in Ohio, Pennsylvania and elsewhere, pretend to be willing to vote to admit Kansas so soon as she presents a Constitution, whatever her population. But who will trust them? They have proved false once; they would prove false again. It will only be safe, as the Philadelphia Press suggests, to "judge them by their record," They voted for the English bill, which exacts a population of 93,000, if a free Constitution is presented; and the people will hold them to that record.

THE POTATO ROT.—The rot, though in some places severe, is not general, and it is now evident that the supply of sound potatoes will be abundant. At New York, the market is largely supplied, and the price ranges from $1 25 to $2 25 per bbl., the latter for very fine and large Mercers. There is no rot in the Middle States, and it is mostly confined to some sections of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, near the seacoast.

SCIENTIFIC PARODOXES.—The water which drowns us, a fluent stream, can be walked upon as ice. The bullet, which, when fired from a musket, carries death, will be harmless if ground to dust before being fired.
