WE were gratified to learn that George W. Thurston was last week elected Superintendent of the Board of Trade Rooms and Merchants' Exchange, and hope through his influence to witness a revival of interest in this institution. The importance of a body like the Board of Trade has often been felt and witnessed by our mercantile community, and we shall be glad to learn that any efforts of Mr. Thurston be to give new strength to its resources and fresh vigor to its existence, have been liberally met by our business men. It is also with pleasure that we understand that the Manufacturers' Sample Room, projected by Mr. Thurston last fall, and deferred because of the general prostration of business, will be immediately opened by him in the Board of Trade Rooms.

The benefits which will result from a Sample Room, properly arranged, presenting at a glance the industry and manufacturing skill of Pittsburgh, are numerous. We hope that Mr. Thurston's efforts for the establishment of this exhibition of our manufactures will be seconded by our manufacturers in such a way as will shortly create a place of public resort, where can be seen every article manufactured within our community. Such a boon would be one right and long step toward the formation of a Mechanics' Institute.

A NEW DODGE.—Some "sharpies" from the east, we are informed, have been operating a new game of swindling in this city for the past few days. One of them has been at last detected. We will explain the modus operandi. A sharper goes into a store, for instance, with a $10 gold piece, and asks for change. The proprietor gives the proper change in notes, but by slight-of-hand, Mr. Sharper slips one of the bills, in the presence of the man, from the roll into his pocket or some other place of secretion, and throwing the money on the counter, pretends to count it, and tells the accommodating person that he has not given him sufficient change. In some cases, persons have been swindled in this manner. On Saturday, a fellow named James Riley, from Baltimore, tried the game on a butcher in the market, but the butcher detected it, and, officer Mason happening to be near, Mr. Riley was marched before the Mayor, who holds him for a hearing. Any persons who have lost money in this way should call and see the gentleman.

A QUEER WAGER FULFILLED.—On Saturday, Mr. S. P. Ross, a red-hot Democrat of Temperanceville, fulfilled a queer wager, made with Mr. James M'Conigle, a good and true Republican, on the result of the late election. The condition of the bet was, that in case Mr. Ross should lose, he was to carry a bushel of salt from his Salt Works at Temperanceville, to the residence of Mr. M'Conigle, distant about four miles down the Ohio. The wager was faithfully performed, in the presence of a large number of witnesses who accompanied him, on horseback, in vehicles, and on foot, and by the time he reached his journey's end, he began to think that Locofocoism was a heavy load for him, and that his "Jordan was a hard road to travel." It was a very practical illustration of a journey on the Salt River route. Mr. M'Conigle had a feast prepared when the party arrived, and they all made merry over the affair.

ANOTHER CASE OF BRUTALITY.—Between ten and eleven o'clock Friday night, the watchman at the Point heard cries of "murder" proceeding from the house of John Taylor, and on entering found that Taylor had beaten his wife in a brutal manner. A fellow named John McLaughlin was also there looking on, and told the watchman that the woman deserved what she got. Taylor had knocked his wife down, broken her teeth, trampled on her with his heavy boots, and abused her several times most outrageously. Taylor and McLaughlin were taken before the mayor, who committed them for trial on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. A true bill was found against the parties by the Grand Jury on Saturday.

An occurrence of a horrible nature transpired in the town of Johnson, Mahoning county, Ohio, a few days since, by which an aged and respectable gentleman, named Robert Hamilton, lost his life. It appears that he had a daughter named Catharine, who was deranged, and that entering his room in the morning, and while he was yet asleep, she struck him several blows on the head with an axe, fracturing the skull and producing instant death. She was at once secured, and on Tuesday was sent to the Asylum at Newburg, where she now resides.

PRATT'S BOOK SALES.—The long winter evenings are at hand, when a cheerful fire and a good book are the delight of the family circle. Mr. Pratt's extensive collection of late and valuable publications which he is now selling nightly at Trade auction, Fifth street, at one-third and one-half the regular prices, will enable all to supply themselves with choice volumes for a little money. The excellence of his stock and inducements to buy are well known here, as this is his twenty-first annual visit with books to our city.

INHUMAN.—A fellow named Fred. Grow, of Indiana township, was committed by Alderman Parkinson, on Saturday, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, on oath of his wife. It is alleged that while the wife was in ill health Grow treated her in a brutal manner, forcing her by threats to work, and misusing her in various ways. On Thursday, he without cause, tied and horse-whipped her, threw her down stairs, and then sent her to her father's house, covered with wounds and bruises. She also says that he has frequently threatened to poison her. He must certainly be a brute.

SWINDLED.—Mr. M. R. Wilks, of Greensburg, was swindled in Philadelphia, by some sharpers last week. He gave $10 for some rings, which were represented to be worth $20, and found but upon after they were brass. He was left without funds to return home. The fellow who offered the trinkets, on the street, referred to an apparent stranger coming along, as to the value of them, and he of course, after examining them, corroborated the statement of Sharper No. 1.

THE Republicans of McKeesport, we learn, had a grand jubilee and glorification over the result of the election, on Saturday night. Several went up from this city, and speeches were delivered by Mr. Penney and others. The borough was illuminated, fire works displayed, and a grand time was had generally. The good men of McKeesport are capable of getting up a creditable affair of the kind, and from all we can hear they had it.

THE Clerks of the Return Judges' Convention, Messrs. Major and Gormley, after getting the return from M'Keesport, (which was not there on account of some misunderstanding in regard to the day,) got through with their laborious work in very good time on Saturday. The certificates were not ready for their signatures, but they will be ready to-day.

THE race on Saturday between the two-oared row-boats Fulton and Eurycliden, has not yet been decided. It is alleged that the Eurycliden ran into the Fulton at the buoy, and that the latter then stopped rowing, while the former continued on the course, making the distance in 24:00.

A contest between the M. F. Cassady and the Isaac Gullet takes place next Saturday.

THE Fire Department, we are informed, are willing, if they are given notice in proper time, to participate in the forthcoming celebration of the centennial anniversary of the occupancy of Fort Duquesne by the American and British forces.

ACCIDENT.—A lad named John Knickerbock, working at Bausman's coal works, above Birmingham, on Saturday, fell from a car running out of the pit, the wheels going over him, breaking his arm and injuring him severely. He was properly cared for.

BURNED.—Mr. Anthony Meyer, while endeavoring to save property at the fire in the Fifth Ward, last week, was severely burned. His condition is considered critical.

ORDAINED.—Rev. Henry Potter and Rev. Jno. Cromlish were ordained as Presbyters of the Episcopal Church, at Trinity church, last week. Bishop Bowman officiated.

THE great New Orleans English Opera Troupe has been re-engaged for this week. They are certainly par excellent. "Cinderella" is to be produced this evening.

CRICKET.—The return match between the Saw Mill Run and Union Cricket Clubs will, we believe, be played to-day. The former won in the last game.

ERROR.—We were misinformed in announcing the death of Mr. Enos, who was injured at the Dispatch building. He is still living, with some hopes of recovery.

THEATRE.—Don't forget that the irresistible Lackett, the great "Patsy" of America, appears at Foster's to-night.

JAMES DUFF was committed by Ald. Donald, on Saturday, charged with larceny, on oath of Margaret M'Coubrey.
