Pittsburgh Gazette.

PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 5, 1859.

Republican City Convention.

The Republicans of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby requested to meet in their respective wards, at the usual places of holding such meetings, on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10TH, 1859, and elect, by ballot, five delegates from each ward to meet in Convention at the Court House, on WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14TH, 1859, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating one person for MAYOR, one person for CITY CONTROLLER, and one person for CITY TREASURER. The meetings in the various wards will be held between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock P. M.

The various ward committees of vigilance as at present existing, are requested to call preliminary meetings, where the same may be necessary, for the appointment of Judges to conduct the election.

THOS. A. ROWLEY, Ch'n. City Ex. Com.

THE following is a recapitulation of the amount of marine losses during the month of November, 1859, according to the best information we can obtain. The amount largely exceeds that for any month of the past forty years:

	Freight & Vessels	Cargoes
Steamers	$1,126,600	$3,445,000
Ships	1,325,500	1,270,250
Barks	506,000	79,050
Brigs	132,500	151,800
Schooners	112,800	216,900
Freight and vessels	$3,203,400	$5,543,100
Cargoes	6,543,100
Total	$9,746,250

"THE ETIQUETTE OF ADVERTISING."—A servant girl recently advertised in the Transcript for a situation, and the wife of one of our merchants sent to make inquiries about her. The girl called at the house of the inquirer the next morning, and apologized for so doing, stating that she was passing through the street, and thought she would call. "I sent for you," said the housekeeper, "and thought, of course, you would come." "No marm," replied the girl, "when a lady advertises for a place, it is expected that the lady wanting her services will call—that is the etiquette of advertising." "If you stand so much upon etiquette as that," retorted the housekeeper, "I am quite certain you will not do for me." The above incident took place last week in C——street in Boston.—[Boston Transcript.

THEY DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP.—We stated some time since that the British frigate Shannon, which captured the Chesapeake, was to be broken up in England. A correspondent has saved the ship, as O. W. Holmes says, from our old Constitution. One of the London papers, on reading the admiralty order to break up the Shannon, addressed a patriotic protest to the powers that be, the effect of which is, that the captor of the Chesapeake will not be hacked from the navy register. She has just been detailed as a sort of practice ship for young marines at Liverpool, and will be carefully attended to.

TEXAS SHEEP FARM.—There is continual steady feeling in favor of making Texas one of the greatest wool-producing States in the Union. Mexican ewes are purchased at low prices and crossed with males of the best breeds in the older wool-growing States.

A BUILDING is in course of erection in Pekin, which, when completed, will cover three acres of land, all under one roof. It is intended for the manufacture of pork, and when fully completed and in operation will constitute the largest establishment for that business in the world.

I feel proud in my exertions to call the following certificates, which others are to speak for themselves.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 28, 1858.

Dr. Keyser: Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure to inform you of the recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any way be affected with coughs, colds, cough and hoarseness of any kind, and for its peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed up that I could not speak, above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purposing to cure the disease, not shielding the character of the owner or compound, and the merits of the disease.

Yours, most respectfully,

EDWARD D. JONES,

Cashier Citizen's Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 11, 1856.

Dr. Keyser: I have used your Pectoral Cough Syrup for a few years past, and can chearfully say that it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

COL. FRANT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

DR. KEYSER: Dear Sir: I have the delay of my not acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in imparting that it is all you say it is. It knocked the bottom out of my cough, and the word and I was cured effectually. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it a fair trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would and suffer much sooner than to attempt to say a single word, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for procuring so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name, in that respect, as you think proper.

READ THE TRUTH.—Dr. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough. JOHN DAVIS,

Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 8th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the county, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.
