THE report of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital for the past year, shows that since April 1st, 1856, 332 patients have been admitted; 209 males; 123 females; of these, there have been discharged—restored, 119; improved, 67; unimproved, 23; deaths, 23; remaining in Hospital Jan. 1st, 1860, 100.

The supposed causes of insanity: Ill health, 64; intemperance, 33; puerperal, (females) 18; masturbation, (males) 16; disappointment, 14; epilepsy, 14; religious excitement, 14; domestic difficulties, 16; pecuniary troubles, 17; excess of labor, 7; use of opium, 2; loss of sleep, 4; inflammation of brain, 7; use of quack medicine, 2; excessive study, 8; spiritualism, 1; monomania, 5; stock speculations, 1; palsy, 3; injury to the head, 3; exposure to the sun, 4; nostalgia, 3; use of tobacco, 1; want of employment, 2; loss of friends, 7; dread of poverty, 3; jealousy, 1; fear of starving, 1; destitution, 1; fever, 2; litigation, 1; fear, 1; amenorrhœa, 1; excitement, 1; eruptive disease, 1; unknown, 58—total, 332.

The statistics show that in cases where the malady was less than six months standing before admission, the restorations amount to 60 per cent: in cases of long standing the cures are only about 11 per cent. of the admissions, giving proof of the importance of early treatment in all cases of insanity.

POLICE MATTERS.—The Mayor had a party of women from the Fifth ward before him on Friday, charged with keeping a disorderly house on Mulberry alley, which was a common nuisance to the neighborhood. The evidence being insufficient to fix disorderly character of the establishment, such as to bring it within the terms of the law, the Mayor discharged the case. The complainant, a lady who owns property adjoining, states that she is unable to rent her houses to advantage on account of the bad character of the persons against whom the charge was brought. There is a great difficulty, however, at present, according to the provisions of the Act relating to such cases, in making out a charge, and the parties will therefore continue on the premises, as much if not more of a nuisance than before, without any remedy so long as their vile business is not made entirely public.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Before Judges Mellon and Adams.

Friday, Jan. 10.—In the case of the Guardians of the Poor of the City of Allegheny and Clark Hessick, vs. Nicholas Rupert and wife, a verdict was rendered for plaintiffs for $50, against the husband; a new trial moved and reasons filed.

Andrew Morton, vs. Philip Bellister, bail of Jacob Whitsell. Verdict for plaintiff for $100, penalty of recognizance, to be released on the payment of $98.43, the amount of original judgment, now due, with interest to date.

James Patton, jr., vs. C. Kirshenbaum and William Kirshenbaum. Rule granted to show cause why the judgment should not be stricken off, and in the mean time execution stayed as against the wife.

THE MANDAMUS.—In the Supreme Court at Philadelphia, on Wednesday, Judge Lowrie, bail of Woodward, Thompson, Strong and Read, in the case of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel, Joseph T. Thomas vs. Zaccheus Patterson, et. al. In this case on motion of George Harding and William M. Meredith, counsel for relators, a rule is granted on the defendants to show cause why an attachment should not issue against defendants returnable Saturday, February 18, 1860.

The following cases were argued and submitted: Chow's Appeal; Cahill vs. Powell; Craig vs. Western Insurance Company; McCurdy vs. Smith.

BISHOP'S HOUSE.—We are informed that the occupants of this city contemplate building a new house for the Bishop, in place of that which was recently destroyed by fire some time ago. The plan of the new house, as submitted to a meeting held on Sunday last at the Cathedral, contemplates a building in the Gothic style, with a front of fifty feet on Grant street, and extending back seventy-five feet. It will be three stories in height, and will cost at least $13,000. The Messrs. Patterson, we understand, have the contract for its erection, and it is to be completed by the first of January, 1861.

THE 12th annual report of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association and Mechanics' Institute, of this city, has been issued.

The principal statistics and other matters connected with this excellent institution for the past year, already have been published in our paper, and it is unnecessary to report them. The pamphlet, which contains, besides an account of the business of the year, a list of the members and the charter of the Library Hall Company, is printed by Mr. Haven, in neat style. The report states that the record of the past year gives ample encouragement.

RULE SERVED.—As will be seen by the proceedings of the Supreme Court, at Philadelphia, on Tuesday, a rule was granted on our County Commissioners to show cause why an attachment should not issue against them, in the Peremptory Mandamus case. The rule, which is made returnable on the 15th, was served upon the Commissioners, on Friday, by an officer of the above Court, and replication must therefore be made by them at the time specified.

MR. FIELD'S THIRD LECTURE ON THE CREATION, &c.—The subject of Mr. Field's lecture this evening, will treat of the various theories and assumptions in regard to the Creation mentioned in Genesis—Dr. Pye Smith, Hugh Miller and others, as also the fallacies of those who assume the earth to be eternal, as well as the alleged ignorance of the world when the history was written. Lecture in Apollo Hall, (Merchants' Exchange) to commence at 7½ o'clock.

MISSING.—Mr. Francis Liephart, a lumberman, who was stopping at the Red Lion Hotel, St. Clair street, left for his home, in Crawford county, Pa., on the 24th of January, to take the 1:45 Cleveland train. Since that time he has not been heard from, and his relatives have come to this city in search of him. He had on his person about $600 in gold and paper money.

THE Infantry Corps, Duquesne Greys, announce a grand Military and Civic Ball, to be given at their Armory, Fourth street, on Tuesday evening next. The managers are gentlemen of high standing in the community, and we have no doubt everything will be superb. Military ball is to be used for the dance, and Wilkins for the supper-room.

A CHARGE of a very serious nature has been made before Mayor Wilson against a gentleman of respectability in this city—that of an attempted outrage on a married woman, a tenant on some property owned by his father-in-law, for which he is agent. The accused, we understand, is a minister, and denies the charge positively. A hearing will be had to-day.

A FOUNDLING, only a few days old, was discovered on the steps of the residence of a grocer in the Third Ward—Mr. M'Afee—on Thursday evening. The child was wrapped in some old clothing, and was properly cared for by the family until placed in the hands of the Guardians of the Poor.

HORSE STEALING.—Information was made before Justice Slessor, of Shaler tp., on Thursay, charging a man named Owens, with stealing a horse from Samuel Bridge, of Venango county. A warrant was issued.

THE Board of Guardians of the Poor have re-elected Mr. George Fortune as Secretary for the ensuing year. Mr. F. has served for a long time in this capacity.

THE Firemen's Association hold a regular meeting on Monday evening next, in their new hall in the market building, which has been set apart for them and fitted up tastefully.

MORE WINE BRAWING.—Alderman Donaldson, on Friday, committed Charles Roberts, charged with assault and battery upon his wife, Minerva.

THE original "Webster Swiss Bell Ringers," we are informed, intend giving concerts in this city soon with the first bellsound in this country.

THE District Court had not yet finished the case which was on trial on Thursday.

LIFE OF JOHN BROWN, by Redpath, is sold in this city by Hunt & Miner; price $1 per copy.

THE IMPENDING CRISIS, in cloth and paper, is sold by Hunt & Miner.

MUNT & MINER'S double carbonized Amalgam Pen is the best steel pen in use.

RECEIVED AT THE DAILY GAZETTE OFFICE.

Thirty-Sixth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 10.

SENATE.—The Senate was not in session to-day.

HOUSE.—The Speaker submitted a copy of the Kansas Constitution, adopted at Wyandotte, as preliminary to admission as a State.

Mr. Reagan was appointed a member of the Committee on Indian Affairs, in place of Mr. Farnsworth, excused.

Mr. Thomas was appointed a member of the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, in place of Mr. Reagan, excused.

Mr. Hindman was appointed a member of the Committee on Private Land Claims, in place of Mr. Hamilton, excused.

Mr. Moore offered a resolution, which lies over, calling on the President to communicate copies of all communications which have been received from the British government, and other offices, on the subject of the African slave trade, since February, 1858, and copies of all the correspondence between the British and United States governments, on the subject of the slave trade.

On motion of Mr. Morse, the Committee on Commerce were directed to inquire into the expediency of prohibiting by law all American vessels engaged in the Coolie trade, or for transporting apprentices to the West Indies, or other parts of the world.

Mr. Morse introduced a resolution that the Standing Committees, who were authorized to employ clerks at the last session of Congress, be now authorized to do so, with the addition [of the Committees on Accounts and Territories.

The resolution was resisted on the Democratic side.

Mr. Houston said there was no present necessity for clerks. He moved to table the resolution. Negatived.

Mr. Barnett said they could be of no use except as private Secretaries to the Chairman.

Mr. Maynard said the committees were thus to be provided for. Complaints were made that clerks were appointed when there was nothing to do.

The democrats continued to oppose the resolution dilatory motions.

Without disposing of it, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. Washburne, of Ill., in the chair.

Mr. Sherman offered a series of resolutions referring the various branches of the President's Annual Message to the appropriate standing committees, and the Pacific Railroad question to a select committee of eighteen.

Mr. Terry proceeded to reply to that which he characterized as unfounded and unprecedented assaults made on the Republican party, and spoke at some length.

Mr. Reagan explained his views, denying the legal authority either on the part of Congress or the people of a territory to deprive a man of his slave property therein. When, however, the people of a territory come to form a constitution, they may, by the exercise of a revolutionary right, destroy slavery, but in no other way.

The Committee rose.

A memorial from Mr. Blair, of Mo., contesting Mr. Barret's seat, was presented and referred to the Committee on Elections.

The House then adjourned.

Pennsylvania Legislature.
