CURTIN AND KELLY CHIEF MOURNERS.

REPUBLICAN ROOSTERS HAVE CROWED THEMSELVES HOARSE.

HAYES ELECTED BY FROM 10,000 TO 20,000 MAJORITY.

HEAVY REPUBLICAN GAINS.

PENNSYLVANIA WILL GIVE HARTRANFT 30,000 Majority.

The telegraphic dispatches from Ohio Tuesday evening and yesterday morning give a Republican majority of from 10,000 to 20,000 for Hayes, Republican candidate for Governor.

Newark N. J., heretofore Democratic elected a Republican Mayor, giving a republican gain of 2,500.

The people of Pennsylvania owe it to themselves to re-elect Gov. Hartranft. Three years ago he was abused shamefully by the opposition, and it was predicted that his administration would be the most corrupt in the history of the State. Instead Gov. Hartranft has proved an honest, wise and careful Governor, and he has won golden opinions from his enemies as well as friends.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

WEAS, in and by the 13th section of the Act of General Assembly of Pennsylvania, passed July 2nd 1869, entitled, "An act relating to the Elections of the Commonwealth," it is enjoined on the Sheriff of every county to give notice of such election to be held, and to enumerate in such notice what officers are to be elected in pursuance thereof. DANIEL SCULL high Sheriff of the County of Elk, do therefore make known and give this public notice to the electors of said county of Elk, that a general election will be held in said county, on TUESDAY NOVEMBER 2, 1876.

(It being the first Tuesday of the month,) for the purpose of electing the following officers to wit: One person for Governor. One person for State Treasurer. One person for State Senator to represent the Counties of Cameron, Clarion, Elk and Forest. One person for Treasurer of Elk County. One person for Prothonotary, &c., of Elk County. One person for Surveyor of Elk County. Three persons for Commissioners of Elk County, each elector to vote for but two. Three persons for Auditors of Elk County, each elector to vote for but two. And the qualified electors of the county of Elk will hold their elections in the several districts, as follows.

Benecette township, at the house of Elizabeth Winslow. Benecette township, at the school house near D. C. Oyster's Hotel. Jay township, at the house of Alfred Pearsall. Jones township, at the Wilcox Tanning and Lumber Co's office in Wilcox. Millstone township, at the house of Henry Herr, at Barr's Dam. Blacksmith township, at the Court House. St. Mary's Borough, at the Town Hall. Spring Creek township, at the house of Stockdale, Downer & Co. I also make known the following act entitled "An act regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of the Commonwealth," approved March 30, 1860.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, &c., That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general townships and special elections are hereby authorized and required to vote by ballot, printed or written, or partly written and partly printed, and such ballots shall embrace the names of all the Judges of the Courts to be voted for and to be labelled on the outside, "Judiciary," one ticket shall embrace the names of all State officers to be voted for and labelled "State," one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers to be voted for, including the office of Senator, member or members of Assembly, if voted for, members of Congress, if voted for and labelled "Congress," one ticket shall embrace the names of all the township officers voted for and be labelled "Borough," or "Township;" and each shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

I also make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of aforesaid act, and in and by the 14th section of aforesaid act, approved April 19th 1860, it is enacted that the 14th section shall be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as Judge, Inspector, or Clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth. Also in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An act relating to elections and for other purposes," approved April 19th 1860, it is enacted that the 14th section shall be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as Judge, Inspector, or Clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

I also make known the following: Whereas, The Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States is as follows: SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. That Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. And whereas, The Congress of the United States, on the thirtieth day of March 1870, passed an act entitled, "An act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote at any election by the people of any State, Territory, district, city, county, parish, township, school district, municipal or other territory or subdivision shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of color, race, or previous condition of servitude; any constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under the authority of the contrary, notwithstanding. SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That if by or under the authority of the constitution or laws of any State or Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done by any person or persons for voting, and by such constitution or laws persons or officers are or shall be required to perform the duties of such person or officers, and to become qualified to vote without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, and if such persons or officers shall refuse or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section, he shall for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars; to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just, and shall also for every such offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall on conviction thereof be fined not less than five hundred dollars or to be imprisoned not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

And whereas, It is declared by the second section of the VI article of the Constitution and of the U. S. that "This Constitution of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be supreme laws of the land;" and "nothing in the Constitution or laws of any State, to the contrary notwithstanding. And whereas, The Legislature of this Commonwealth, on the 5th of April 1870, passed an act entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to elections in this Commonwealth," the tenth section provides as follows:

SECTION 10. That so much of every act of Assembly that provides that only white freemen shall be entitled to vote, or to be registered as voters, or as claiming to vote at any general or special election of this Commonwealth, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that hereafter all freemen without distinction of color, shall be enrolled and registered according to the provisions of the first section of the act approved the 17th of April 1869, entitled "An act further supplemental to an act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," and shall when otherwise qualified under existing laws, be entitled to vote at all general and special elections in this Commonwealth.

I also make known the following: Whereas, By the act of the Congress of the United States entitled "An Act to amend" the several acts heretofore passed, to provide for the enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March thirty-first 1862, eight hundred and sixty-five all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged, or relieved from the penalty, or disability therein provided are deemed and taken to be voluntarily relinquished, and forfeited, their rights of citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof.

And whereas, Persons, not citizens of the United States, who are under the constitution and laws of Pennsylvania, the qualified electors of this Commonwealth: SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March thirty-first one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

SECTION 2. That if any such judge and inspector of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall, for each offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote or tender to the officer thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person or persons deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots, to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

I also make known the following sections of an act approved the 30th day of January, A. D. 1874, entitled "A further supplement to the act regulating elections in this Commonwealth." SECTION 5. At all elections hereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock A. M. and closed at seven o'clock P. M. SECTION 6. In all election districts where a vacancy exists by reason of the death of the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts; and in the appointment of inspectors in any election district both shall not be of the same political party, and the judge of elections shall, in all cases, be of the same political party as the officer or officers in an election before heretofore appointed, or where any new district shall be formed, the judge or judges of the court of common pleas of the proper county shall, ten days before any general or special election, appoint competent persons to fill said vacancies and to conduct the election in said new districts;
