AMONG the many issues of base coin which from time to time were made in Ireland, there was none to be compared in worthlessness to that made by James II. at the late Dublin Mint. It was composed of anything on which he could lay his hands, such as lead, pewter, copper and brass; and so low was its intrinsic value that 20 shillings of it was worth only two pence sterling. William III., a few days after the battle of the Boyne, ordered that the crown piece and half crown should be taken as one penny and one halfpenny respectively. The soft mixed metal of which that worthless coin was composed, was known among the Irish as nim bog, pronounced bumbug, i. e., soft copper, i. e., worthless money; and in the course of their dealings the modern use of the word humbug took its rise, if, in the perfect phrase, "That's a piece of humbug," Don't think to pass off your humbug on me." Hence the word humbug came to be applied to anything that had a spurious appearance, but which was in reality not spurious. It is curious to note that the very opposite of humbug, i. e. false metal, is the word sterling, which is also taken from a term applied to the true coinage of Great Britain, as sterling coin, sterling worth, &c.

THEY CAY FOR MONE.—It requires the possession of a vast amount of patriotism to withstand patiently the impudent calls for money made by the Female Regency that have taken Washington's bones under their special charge. The public were blind unconscionably until the necessary wind was raised to get Mt. Vernon out of the hands of the speculating John Washington—who, to the honor of George, be it spoken, is not a lineal descendent of the great man—and now there is an Oliver Twistic cry for more.—The Regent appeals for $140,000, the interest of which sum is to go for the maintainance of Washington's burying place. The lady writes:

"Practical men whom I have consulted on the subject, estimate that it will cost from $8,000 to $10,000 annually, to cover the expense which must be incurred if Mount Vernon is to be kept in repair, and provided with a force sufficient to protect and preserve the house and grounds in security and good order worthy their future national position.—Of this sum, the annual receipts from visitors may furnish from $1,500 to $2,000, although those of the past year only amounted to $1,200 25, but the remainder cannot be safely relied on, except from a principal invested so as to yield the requisite interest."

SNUFF DIPPING.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal writes:

"A few months since I attended a country church in West-Tennessee, and saw a lady of good general appearance, dressed in the richest style, walk up one of the aisles with a stick in her mouth! She took her seat, arranged her crinoline, drew out her snuff-box, which she opened, and then proceeded during the services to "dip snuff." The entire back of her seat was unoccupied, and when she had occasion to spit, as she did frequently, she gracefully turned her head back and spit between the vacant seat and the one she occupied. It really seemed filthy, but there is nothing like getting used to such things."

THE COPPER MINES OF LAKE SUPERIOR.—The Lake Superior Miner gives the most flattering accounts of the mining business in the vicinity of Lake Superior. The product of the Minnesotamine alone, for the month of February, 1860, was one hundred and sixty tons, one thousand nine hundred and sixty pounds, and that in a month when, from the intensity of the cold, the mine was worked only about one-third of the time. The receipts at Ontonagon, since the close of navigation, are seven hundred and forty-two tons, three hundred and forty-two pounds. Several new mines will be opened this spring from which it is expected that not less than twenty thousand tons of ore will be taken during the season, or $4,000,000 worth of copper alone.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE!

Spalding's Prepared Glue!

Spalding's Prepared Glue!

SAVE THE PIECES!

ECONOMY! DISPATCH!

☞ "A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE."

As accidents will happen, even in well-regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Toys, Crockery, etc.

Spalding's Prepared Glue

meets all such emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready, and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls, and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone, shell, and other ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-makers' Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.

"USEFUL IN EVERY HOUSE."

N. B.—A Brush accompanies each bottle.

Price, 25 Cents.

Wholesale Depot, No. street, New York.

Address— HENRY C. SPALDING & CO., Box No. 3,600, New York.

MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of

DR. EATON'S

INFANTILE CORDIAL,

and why! because it never fails to afford ingenuous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains
