PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1860.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Pittsburgh Daily Gazette has a large circulation among the business men in this and the surrounding cities, among those who buy and sell, and among manufacturers and producers. It may be found in nearly all the counting rooms, store houses, banking houses, hotels, factories and workshops in these cities, where it is read and carried to … the families … It therefore offers inducements which no other … in Western Pennsylvania can offer, to all who desire to … large class of our citizens. The Weekly Gazette … has a much larger circulation in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia, among substantial farmers … merchants … than any other secular paper in the … portion of the State.

FOR GOVERNOR,
HON. ANDREW G. CURTIN,
OF CENTRE COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS—XXIst DISTRICT,
JAMES K. MOORHEAD.

FOR CONGRESS—XXIId DISTRICT,
ROBERT McKNIGHT.

ELECTORS.
HON. JAMES POLLOCK,
HON. THOMAS M. HOWE.

Christ, 10 David Mumma, Jr., 11 David Taggart, 12 Thomas R. Hull, 13 Francis B. Penniman, 14 Ulysses Mercur, 15 George Bressler, 16 A. B. Sharp, 17 Daniel O. Gehr, 18 Samuel Calvin, 19 Edgar Cowan, 20 William McKennan, 21 John M. Kirkpatrick, 22 James Kerr, 23 Richard P. Roberts, 24 Henry Souther, 25 John Greer.

THE ENTHUSIASM AT BALTIMORE.—By the reports of the proceedings of the late Baltimore Convention, it would seem that it was not, after all, a very tame and quiet affair. The "plugs" were in attendance, mostly in conspicuous portions of the galleries, and in a very accommodating spirit applauded all the speakers at short intervals. It is said that these complacent claqueurs made it a rule to "come down" whenever the words "Constitution," "Union," "the whole country," "the conservative element," and the names of prominent Union-savers were mentioned. Some of the Old Gentlemen, who had never before been guilty of causing a cheer or … response from an audience, were astonished at the sensation which they created in … whenever they opened their venerable mouths. Of course this generous conduct of the plugs put everybody in a good humor, and so delusive is enthusiasm that before the close of the … the speakers were not backward in expressing a belief that Bell and Everett might possibly carry … out of the thirty-two States!

On the other hand, the Convention proved to the … a sort of curiosity shop, and accordingly afforded them some little amusement. There were present a live grandson of Patrick Henry, all the way from Tennessee—a savage-looking Texan, with a beard about a half a yard in length, which he is under a vow not to cut until Henry Clay shall be elected President—and an old … from New Jersey, who professed to have some personal knowledge of the "Fathers of the Republic," and who deprecated the discussion of any public question which did not originate in the times of the first Adams. Then the "plugs" had their own fun in listening to the pompous harangues of small potato politicians, who … the votes of great States, which had neither knowledge of their existence—such a politician as "Mr. Lillall of Pennsylvania," for instance, who talked as if he really believed that he was representing some other party than that of the democrats. Indeed, taking everything into consideration, the Baltimore Convention was a pleasant little social gathering—a sort of political party garnished with piquant episodes—which pleased everybody; the delegates, because it gave them a … importance; the audience, because it ministered to their amusement; and the "fossils," because it reminded them of times when they were of the quick and not of the dead.

THE JAPANESE IN WASHINGTON.—The telegraph announced yesterday, the arrival of the Japanese visitors at the national metropolis. Rooms have been fitted up in splendid style for their occupation at Willard's Hotel, including thirty handsomely furnished bed chambers, twenty parlors, two dining rooms, a kitchen and laundry for the use of their own servants, bath rooms, etc., entirely separate from the rest of the house. Provisions have also been made of fowls, birds, fish, rice, vegetables, and a profusion of sugar ornaments. Hot tea is to be in readiness at all hours, and sideboards are supplied with champagne. For smoking their little pipes, a balcony has been built, overlooking a court yard, in which there is a fountain.

An immense amount of etiquette is involved in the exact rank of these new comers, and the Ministers, who have always insisted on taking precedence of the Cabinet and the Senate, will not, if they can avoid it, yield the pas to the gentlemen with two swords.

The persons composing this embassy are reputed to be men of more than ordinary intelligence. A correspondent, in noticing their arrival, says:

"It is fair to assume that they are of the class of whom Solomon wrote when he enunciated the aphorism, 'The wise man's eyes are in his head.' They will be men of observation, and they cannot fail to observe the rapid progress which the United States have made in commerce and its adjuncts. They are familiar with our history, as Commodore Perry very soon found in his intercourse with them. They know that we are an independent people, … going and seeing what we have already accomplished, they cannot fail to see that a future is before us, in commerce and in arts, that will make their treaty with us of value to themselves, and a contract which it will be to their interest to carry out effectually and in the most liberal spirit. And to impress the embassy with this truth should be the great aim of this country. Of course it is desirable that they should know that the secret of our prosperity is in the popular nature of our government and institutions, but it is still more expedient, so far as our commercial interests are concerned, and practically, they are of the first importance, to induce them to visit our large cities, our larger seaports, and our manufacturing districts, and convince them that we can supply what they need, and find a market for whatever they produce."

MR. SMITH OPPOSED TO THE TARIFF.—"Occasional"—Forney's Washington correspondent, in a late letter, says:

"Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, the American Administration candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives, who received the votes of Mr. E. Joy Morris, Mr. Scranton and Mr. Junkin, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Nixon, of New Jersey, and other opposition members, under the supposition that he would favor the protection of American industry, voted against the Morrill tariff bill on Thursday last, thereby justifying those gentlemen in withdrawing their support from him after they had reason to distrust his professions on the subject. They were roundly denounced at the time, particularly Mr. E. Joy Morris, for changing their votes, by several of the newspapers in your city, but their suspicions have been fully sustained by the course of Mr. Smith himself, who, had he been elected, would have proved to be one of the most thorough-paced Administration men in the House. It gives me pleasure to say that Mr. E. Joy Morris and his friends deserve credit for the course they took in preventing his election to the chair."

THE Covode Committee haunts the President like a terrible spectre, notwithstanding his assumed indifference to its movements. In a recent speech to the visiting editors from the West, who called on him at the White House, he alluded to this "private grief" in a very abrupt manner, thus showing that it was the subject nearest to his heart:

"The President is elected by the people of the United States, the Senators are chosen by the Legislatures of the States of this Union, and the members of the House of Representatives by the people of those several States, but the President is elected by the whole people of the United States, and to them alone is he responsible, under the Constitution.

"Any encroachment upon his just constitutional rights, come from whatever quarter it may, is, therefore, an encroachment upon the rights of the people themselves."

This is the position he assumed in his famous protest, and expresses his willingness to … it, without regard to time or place, until the close of his term. The President's own conscience is at work, and he is endeavoring to talk it into silence. In the meantime, the Covode Committee is not done with him—it has more trouble reserved for him in the future.

[Correspondence of the Daily Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 14, 1860.

The hotels are all full, and the city is all in a buzz to-day. … the delegates are … The public rooms of the hotels are thronged with … of people, discussing the chances and the claims of various candidates, but no bad feeling is manifested. The trains on Monday night and Tuesday morning will bring in immense crowds, and arrangements have been made to give them a warm reception. Enthusiasm is up to a fever heat, and at the dedication of the Wigwam, (in which the Convention is to meet,) the attendance was immense. No National Convention ever held in this country has been attended by such tremendous numbers as this will be.

As to the nominee, … as various as the candidates. The Seward men are urging him with great warmth, but are not so confident to-night as they have been, and the most shrewd among them do not … entertain much hope of his nomination. The West is almost a unit against him—Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, although he has a few friends in the delegations from each. Ohio is for Chase, nominally, but is much cut up in sentiment, and after Chase her vote will be divided. Indiana and Iowa have not yet determined whom they will vote for. Illinois is for Lincoln as a unit, but if he is withdrawn, her vote will be divided between Cameron and Seward. Minnesota will vote on the first ballot for Seward, after which her vote will be divided between Cameron and Seward. Indiana will probably vote for Bates, first, and Iowa for Cameron. The New England States are divided—but Seward is not so strong there, as anticipated, and it is now thought that Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and perhaps Vermont, will all vote against him. These, however, are mere speculations.

Corwin, Greeley, Thurlow Weed, Gov. Curtin, Gov. Morgan and Giddings are among the celebrities on the ground. R.

CAPTURE OF A SLAVER.—The U. S. steamer Mohawk, Lieut. Commanding Craven, arrived at Key West on the 30th ult., with a slaver, an American clipper-built barque, called the Wildfire, about 500 tons and eight years old. The Wildfire cleared from New York on the 15th of last December, Stanhope, master, for St. Thomas. She has on board about 500 Africans, all quite young and in a very good condition. She has a Spanish crew of 15 men. The Spanish captain calls himself Manuel. She has also an American captain, Rathbone, and eight men (Americans.) The latter pretended to be passengers, but are probably the American crew of the vessel, the barque having a Spanish crew and an American crew.

The Africans were taken on board the Wildfire at the Congo river. The crew was to receive $800 for their portion of the proceeds of the sale of the negroes. They were out 30 days, and would have landed their cargo before had they not been becalmed four days where they were at the time of capture.

The Africans, 519 in number, about 80 having died on the passage, were brought on deck. A majority are children of from 8 to 18 years old. The females amount to about 70. The crew of the vessel made no resistance, and were taken and sent on board the Mohawk, and since her arrival, have been delivered up to the United States Marshal. The negroes will be landed as soon as a place can be built for their accommodation. Many of them have been confined in the hold of the vessel so long that they are not able to walk.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

THE PLEURO PNEUMONIA.—The Commissioners of the cattle disease, in Massachusetts, still continue their labors. In one day they killed twenty-five cattle, in all but one of which were signs of the disease. In the course of the same day the Commissioners received applications from several neighboring towns, where the disease had either broken out or was strongly suspected, on the ground of exposure. This was regarded as almost disheartening, and at least renders highly necessary, the employment of a larger force to prosecute the examinations and continue the work of slaughter.

It is proposed that the Governors of other States be invited to send agents to Massachusetts for the purpose of examining into what they may yet be called upon to deal with within their own limits. It is not improbable that the seeds of the pleuro-pneumonia have been carried out of the State, and the necessity of calling for Congressional aid, in the form of appropriations and preventive enactments, may soon be apparent. The magnitude of the evils resulting from the disease in Europe is positive evidence that the danger which it threatens to our own interests cannot be overrated and hence the means of relief should be lost sight on.

An investigation, by a scientific commission has been suggested. It is asserted with much confidence that well cattle can be protected from all danger of contagion by a prophylactic, which is said to be a secret with a few veterinary surgeons. A proposition for establishing a hospital for experimental treatment of the disease, is met by a statement of the discouraging fact that of the cases thus treated in Europe, where experience and skill are united in the matter, 95 per cent. prove fatal.

It being one of the delights of the Hon. Daniel Webster to annually visit the Granite hills of his native State to ruralize a few days, he usually favored Conway with his presence, where resided the famous Billy Abbot, both a small … and old of his age. For his humorous wit and wonderful knowledge of every little incident that made this or that place particularly charming and interesting to the historian and the antiquarian which he was very fond of imparting, he so ingrafted himself into the good favor of the great expounder of the constitution, that he always gave him a seat in his carriage when he rode out to view the beauties of nature. Billy's associates feeling envious on account of the honor conferred upon him by the distinguished man, one day after Webster's departure sarcastically asked Billy, in the crowded bar-room, what he and his friend Webster found to converse about as they rode around the country? Billy replied: "We usually talk about horticulture and agriculture, and the different breeds of cattle and horses, and upon these subjects I derive from him a great deal of useful information; and upon such topics I find him little more than my match—but the moment … with gesture, and a … of voice becoming the orator himself—but the moment he alludes to the constitution, I can floor him in a minute!" which was received with applause, and the Banquo of Envy never again affronted Daniel's rustic favorite.—Oswego Register.

DR. BRECKENRIDGE NOT GOING TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—Dr. W. L. Breckenridge, of Oakland College, Miss., who was elected to represent the Presbytery of Louisville in the General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church, writes to the Presbyterian Herald declining to do so. The ground of his non-acceptance is the passage by the Presbytery which elected him, of a resolution "approving of the action of the General Assembly of 1859, on the subject of the relations of the Church of Christ and voluntary societies formed for the purpose of Art, Literature, and Secular Morality."

This action, Dr. Breckenridge says, he is opposed to, since it denies to the Church all right to have anything to do with such institutions. He cannot, therefore, accept his appointment as commissioner to the Assembly, since the Presbytery voted to request its commissioners to sustain the above measure.

As Dr. B. was moderator of the last General Assembly, and custom prescribes that he shall preach the opening sermon at this, a substitute will have to be provided. The Assembly convenes at Rochester on Thursday next the 17th inst.

SINGULAR CAUSE OF DEATH.—An Infant's Breath Sucked by a Dog.—Benjamin F. Thompson, a child of ten months, whose parents reside in the rear of Jefferson street, Smith's Hill, was left asleep on a bed by his mother, yesterday afternoon, while she made a call at the house of a neighbor. When she returned, after the lapse of an hour or so, the child was dead. The explanation of the cause of this sudden death is sought in the fact that two dogs belonging to the family were left in the room with the sleeping child, one of which, it is said, mounted the bed, placed its paws upon the little fellow's shoulders, and then drew his breath until he was suffocated. The child was in feeble health, and it is possible that the weight of the animal upon its body may have induced a spasm that proved fatal. We understand that when the child was found the dog was resting its head upon its body.—Providence Press, 9th.

OLD THAD.—A good story is told of Thaddeus Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in connection with the tenth ballot for Douglas at Charleston. The news came over the wires that Mr. Douglas had received one hundred and fifty and one-half votes. "One hundred and fifty—and one half," repeated Mr. Stevens, very slowly and mock seriously, "the one half means Butler."

HIGH WATER.—The high water of last week produced great damage along the streams throughout our county. They were all filled to an unusual height, carrying away bridges, fences, &c., to an alarming extent. So far as we can learn no lives have been lost.

CROPS.—The crops in Blair county never presented so favorable a prospect as they do this Spring. Wheat, Rye, Grass, &c., are looking luxuriant upon the ground, and if nothing happens, we may anticipate one of the richest harvests ever cut in the county.—Blair Co. Whig.

CALL TO THE DELEGATES OF THE LATE PEOPLE'S CONVENTION WHICH ASSEMBLED IN PITTSBURGH ON THE 8th OF MARCH LAST.—Whereas, it appearing to the Executive Committee, appointed by the Anti-Tax Convention, that, without strenuous exertion on the part of the people, there is danger that they will be, in all probability, compromised on the great question of resistance to Railroad Taxation by the … influences of office-seeking politicians. And being authorized by the fourteenth resolution to call the Convention again together when they might consider such a step necessary; therefore, all the Delegates which assembled in that Convention will again re-assemble at the COURT HOUSE, in the City of Pittsburgh, on WEDNESDAY, the 30th day of May, inst., to consider the propriety of putting in nomination candidates for the various County, State and National Offices, whose views are known to be perfectly sound and reliable on the subject of resistance to Railroad Taxation.

Save Your Carpets!
THE great enquiry has been made for a number of years by all housekeepers, What shall we put under our carpets to protect them from wear and moths? This grand and valuable discovery was effected and patented April 1st, 1859, by J. B. HARRINGTON, and is called Harrington's Patent Carpet Lining.
This article having proved its utility has now come into general use, so much so, that scarcely a carpet will be put down without it, and its cheapness puts it within the reach of every family. It is warranted to add fifty per cent. to the durability of Carpets, Oil Cloths and Matting. The details of its merits are too numerous to mention. It can be obtained at any of the principal Carpet Stores throughout the United States, and is manufactured only by the NEW YORK CARPET LINING COMPANY. Also, extensive manufacturers of MAMMOTH COTTON BATTING AND COMFORTABLES, the best and cheapest that have ever been introduced to the market.
(Office 11 Dey St., Salesroom 240 Pearl Street) NEW YORK.
All orders … will be attended to with promptness and dispatch. Under the supervision of the patentee. J. B. HARRINGTON, Agent.

Mrs. Winslow,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS IN THOUSANDS OF CASES. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
Principal Office, 13 Cedar Street, N. Y.
PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE.
