MONDAY MORNING, MAY 23.

Go ahead.

In our Country, blest by Freedom,
Which has spread, spread wide
Let the happy, joyful millions
Sing the song of Polk ahead!
Go ahead! surrender never!
We will hail the day of rest
When the banner of Old Glory
Floats in triumph o'er the West!

We'll rather in her bower,
Should, hand in cradle rock,
Freedom's song—sweet Freedom! sing darling,
Put the song of "Go Ahead!"
Go ahead, you blooded Tally!
You'll be President, it may be—
Go ahead!

Though not born in stately palace,
Set with gilt and color shed,
Yet our happy Shade Dallas,
We'll make you go ahead—
Dallas proudly trowing,
With our banner proudly waving,
Go ahead!

Here a farmer or mechanic
Is as noble as a king—
Bowing only to his Maker,
Onward pushing, he can sing,
"Come my friends, and come my neighbor,
Let us all, in honest labor,
Go ahead!"

Not in vain our patriot fathers
For Columbia bought old Shed,
Where their sons in paths of progress,
Free and happy, go ahead!
Go ahead and still aspire—
Onward upward, high and higher!
Go ahead!

If that "Old Hickory" calling—
Roll your sleeves up! buckle to it!
Go ahead, and, "pull through!"
"Time and tide will wait for no man"—
Hickory up! don't be a slow man!
Go ahead!

If you stumble, do not grumble—
All your "croaking" will be vain!
Keep your lip as stiff as ever—
"Go!" and at it" once again!

Oil each your throat, and through them mutter,
I'll go earn my bread and butter,
Go ahead!

DEFERRED ITEMS.

School-Girl Elopement.—A case of school-girl elopement, probably attended by a private marriage, has just come to light at the Misses Spingler Institute, Tarrytown. It appears that Mr. Adnor, by the attendance of a page from Tennessee, a Miss Phipps. Miss Phipps recently introduced to the house a young gentleman known as Gen. Bynum, of Tennessee, representing that he was a relative. He made several calls upon the young lady, and at length Mrs. Adnor saw that which led her to suspect that Gen. Bynum's attentions to Miss Phipps were a little too tender for a relative. Inquiries were made, regarding him, and it was determined that his calls at the Institute must cease, and a promise to that effect was extorted from the General. Notwithstanding his pledged word, the gentleman called again on Saturday afternoon, and, meeting Mrs. Adnor at the door, desired to see Miss Phipps. The young lady arrived in the hall at that moment, and wished to speak with the gallant General. Mrs. A. desired her to retire. The Gen. put a fee in her ear, and she didn't retire. Mrs. A. said all conversation must take place in her presence. Miss Phipps then said she would bid her good by. Mrs. A. thereupon clasped her around the waist, and said she shouldn't go with her naughty man. Then the General seized Mrs. A. and hurled her away. The same individual then clasped the form of his beloved to his heart and moved towards the carriage. Mrs. A. then came toward the door and protested against the outrage, but was powerless to prevent it. Miss P. faltered at the carriage step, when her preceptress begged her retire, then wiped her eyes, and got in.—By this time the whole Institute was alarmed, and responded to the cries of "Shame! shame!" from many feminine throats. The driver of the carriage cracked his whip, the horses "moved on," and before a policeman came to arrest the abductor and his victim, they had disappeared in the dim, dusty distance. The latest intelligence received from them reported the twain as one flesh, in elegant rooms at the St. Nicholas, a clergyman having been hastily summoned to pronounce the fatal words that united their for life. It is said that Mrs. Adnor will make a complaint against the chivalrous General for assault and battery.—[Phila. Inq.

The Late and Public Services of Hon. Abram Lincoln and Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, the Republican candidates, by a competent hand, is announced as in the press by Thayer & Eldridge, of Boston. The work will be illustrated with portraits of the distinguished subjects. It will be an edition for the people, and be afforded at the very low price of twenty-five cents per copy.

A few friends of John C. Heenan met at Boston on Tuesday evening to take the initiatory steps towards raising a fund as a testimonial to Mr. Heenan, as an offset to the Sayers movement in England. Resolutions in favor of Heenan were adopted, and those present subscribed $350 two weeks his benefit.

Mr. A. E. Burr, editor of the Hartford Times, was on Saturday presented with a solid silver service. The cost was $1000. The presentation was made by Mr. Burr by his political friends, in consideration of his services as Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Connecticut.

The New Orleans papers do not seem to fear disunion. The Picayune doubts whether dismissed has sufficient advocates either North or South to carry a single State. "For ourselves," says the Delta, "we have not a shadow of apprehension for the stability of the government in these States."

The New York Central road will bring out this week no less than twelve "and-dist" cars. These cars are so arranged that they are at all times at rest of dust as a drawing-room. The central road has purchased a patent for this car, paying $50,000 for the same.

A number of freight cars belonging to the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad, which had been sent to Buffalo with freight, have been seized by the Sheriff of Erie county, to satisfy an old claim.

Mr. Jonathan Stewart, merchant, of Trenton, N. J., bought of farmers, during the past Winter, 250,000 lbs. of dead hogs, and in addition, 60,000 lbs. of green hams and 50,000 lbs. of beef.

The latest novelty down east is "Heenan Butter," so called on account of its strength. Out West they have "Sayers Cheese," which combines mite-y strength, toughness and activity.

One balloonist, who was hurt while making an ascension, in Rome, eight months ago, is now out, minus one hand and with his back bone shortened three inches.

The average price of wheat in England, for the last twenty years, has only been about $1.40 per bushel, and at Dantzic about 70 cents.

The National Medical Convention will hold its thirteenth annual session at New Haven, Conn., on the 5th of June next.

THE NEW-YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show windows, door cards, and newspaper headlines, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOO'S LEBIDA, WILLIAMS' CELTIC OIL, BERRY OIL, warranted and cured, make up the list of beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics, and when that costly, new bauble of stiff some triplicate nets, are caught at by credulous young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This preparation comes before the world without any "high falutin'," Kickaboshery, or any other astounding and mystified catchpenny terms, but simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you raise your scalp, say, your very brains, apply to anything else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard on on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will prevent at once all Itching,
Will cure all Dandruff,
Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will stop in Twelve it and stop its Falling,
And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.
