DR. R. A. WILSON'S
Tonic, Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic
PILLS.
WILSON'S PILLS have had a more local existence for over twenty years, unsupported by advertising of any kind, and but little more than the price of salt they are now sold at, yet with all these disadvantages, wherever used they have in no instance failed to render the utmost satisfaction in performing all the requirements of a valuable family medicine, and as such are recommended by a host of the most worthy and responsable citizens of the land. Hear for instance what Col. William Hopkins, of Washington, Pa., says:
From Col. Wm. Hopkins, late Canal Commissioner of the State.
WASHINGTON, January 8, 1858.
DR. R. A. WILSON, Pittsburgh, Pa.—I have been using your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, when occasion required, for many years, and can truthfully say that I have never found any medicine equal to them in relieving me from affection of the stomach and bowels; they have never failed to relieve me from headache, and have always left my system in better condition than they found it. I must confidently recommend your Pills as a safe and highly valuable medicine.
Yours, respectfully, WM. HOPKINS.
Hear Dr. Keyser.
MESSRS B. L. FAHNESTOCK & CO.—I have had considerable experience in the use of the extraordinary Pill compounded by Dr. R. Adams Wilson, of which you are now the proprietors, and have often felt their benign influence in my own case for Nervous Headache, arising from a disordered condition of the stomach. I have likewise prescribed them for others, in cases of semi-coma and other forms of head ache depending on a deranged and irritable condition of the stomach and digestive organs, for which they seem peculiarly adapted, being entirely free from any griping tendency. I regard them as a very valuable Pill, and one that purges, without at all debilitating.
Yours, truly, GEO. H. KEYSER.
Prepared and sold by B. L. FAHNESTOCK & CO., Wholesale Druggists, and Proprietors of R. L. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, No. 60, corner of Wood and Fourth streets, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold at retail by druggists everywhere. feb26ud&wdecl7

NEW YORK.
WHEN completed six years ago the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to day—without a rival in size, in magnificence, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment—The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the travelling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house still remains unshaken, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors.

The Republican Party and Railroad Taxation—A Protest.

MESSRS EDITORS:—As one of the Republican voters of Allegheny county, deeply interested in its welfare and jealous of its good fame, I wish to enter my protest against the action of the late Republican County Convention, in relation to the question of taxation to pay interest on the County Bonds given for Railroad purposes. That Convention reaffirmed "the declarations and principles and opinions" previously enunciated, and which you, Messrs. Editors, at my request, re-published in your issue of June 8. Those "principles and opinions" are in brief as follows:

1. An utter and irreconcilable opposition "to any tax to pay the principal or interest on municipal bonds given in payment of Railroad subscriptions."

2. A declaration of a determination to resist the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State, in the mandamus case, "by every constitutional means, and to use every possible device peacefully to hinder, delay, thwart and nullify the decree in that case."

3. A resolution pledging the party "to vote for no man for any office, who is in favor of levying a tax to pay interest on Railroad Bonds, or who will execute, or assist in executing any decree or command of the Courts to that effect."

4. Instructing the County Commissioners to resist any mandate of the Supreme Court, directing them to levy a tax to pay interest on Railroad Bonds, and pledging the party to sustain and protect them in this rebellion against the highest Constitutional authority.

5. Pledging the members of the party to each other, not to pay any such tax which may be imposed; not to bid for any property which may be exposed to sale; nor to give any countenance to a collector who may undertake such collection.

By the enunciation of these "principles and opinions," the Republican party of the county is placed in a position of rebellion against the authority of the Supreme Court, adviser and defender of constitutions and rebellion in the persons of the County Commissioners, and of recommending, defending and sustaining the dishonest and hated doctrine of repudiation.

—And to crown this huge monument of delusion and wrong, a gross act of injustice is perpetrated against every member of the party, however fervent and pure his Republican sentiments, however long and faithful his services, whatever sacrifices he may have made for the cause—who hesitates to prostitute his conscience and his patriotism on the altar of Repudiation.

As a citizen of the county, and a devoted member of the Republican party, I beg leave, with your permission, Messrs. Editors, to enter my protest against the above noted "declaration of principles and opinions," enunciated by the late Republican County Convention, for the following reasons:

1. Because I cannot agree with the opinions laid down in the resolutions adopted by the Convention, believing them to be erroneous, dangerous and indefensible—leading to dishonesty, repudiation and rebellion.

2. Because a Republican Convention had no right to commit the party to a local policy, on which there is a vast difference of opinion among its members in this county, and which is undoubtedly detested by nineteen-twentieths of the party throughout the State and nation.

3. Because, by the action of the Convention any member of the party who will not subscribe to its opinions on a local and incongruous issue, is denied all share of the rewards and honors of the party, however devoted may be his Republicanism; thus prostrating the greater, the national issue, at the feet of the local and inferior issue.

I am a Republican. I rejoice in the prosperity and rising grandeur of the party. I glory in its principles as enunciated at the Chicago Convention. Its national candidates will receive from me a cheerful and hearty support. But here, in this Republican Gibraltar of Western Pennsylvania, where the party in this State was rocked in its cradle, and first prescribed, distinctished, denied the equal rights and privileges of the party, and compelled to stand neuter in a great contest, or vote for men who are pledged to a local policy which I cannot conscientiously approve.

I protest against this policy as ungenerous, unjust, impolitic and ruinous. As a Republican, I am under no obligation to support the ticket put in nomination; as an upholder of the laws of the State, I am bound to oppose it, unless the gentlemen upon it repudiate all of its creed except its Republicanism. I suppose I shall be answered with the taunt that it makes no difference how I vote—that the party is strong enough to elect its ticket without the few who dare resist the madness which rules the hour. That may be true. Still there may be more voters than party demagogues are aware of, who may think as I do, that it is high time to utter a protest against the injustice of the majority of the people. Larger majorities than the party can boast of in this county have been force sunk before the persistent resistance of manly independence.

I have also to protest against the action of the late Republican County Convention in two other particulars, to wit:

1. In sustaining the Commissioners in their rebellion against the authority of the Supreme Court. This article is already too long, and I cannot now, without trespassing upon indulgence, Messrs. Editors, enter into an argument to show the danger and folly of their conduct, which is only paralleled by the weakness and marked unfitness for their position which characterizes the Commissioners themselves.

2. In nominating for the Legislature, Thos. Williams, Esq., who only two years ago ran against the party in a contest for Congress, and who has done more than any man living to poison the minds of the people by his sophisms, and to bring this community into the position of odium in which it stands before the world. Such a nomination was a direct bid for anti-tax voter, and a direct insult to every Republican voter who believed that the county was in duty bound to meet its solemn obligations.

I have thus, Messrs. Editors, discharged a painful duty. It is with great reluctance that I thus obtrude myself upon the public notice. I like much better the quiet retirement which I have of late enjoyed. But I could not rest until I had cleared my skirts, both as a citizen and a member of the Republican party, of all participation, passive or implied, in the doings of the late County Convention as regards the question of railroad taxation. THE HOMESTEAD BILL AGAIN DEFEATED.—The Democratic Senate have again struck down the Homestead Bill. The second Conference Committee have failed to agree, the Republicans insisting on the Bill passed by the House, and the Democrats adhering to their deformity.

Mr. Colfax, in reporting the disagreement to the House yesterday, set forth the points of difference as follows:

First, as to persons—the House Bill includes all citizens over 21 years old, and all who have declared their intentions. The Senate Bill excludes all but heads of families, cutting off young men over 21, a large and valuable portion of our population.

Second. The House Bill includes in its benefits all pre-emptors now on the public lands. The Senate Bill excludes them, but allows them two years to buy their lands at the Government price. Under the Senate Bill, pre-emptors now on the land cannot take the quarter section they are on, but must abandon or pay for it.

Third. The House Bill applies to all land subject to pre emption, which covers all Government land not reserved for special purposes, whether surveyed or not. The Senate bill is confined to lands subject to private entry, which are only those remaining after a public land sale and the speculators have had their pick.

Fourth. The House Bill gives the land to the settler for ten dollars for a quarter of a section. The Senate Bill requires forty dollars for a quarter section—twice as costly as the graduated lands in Missouri.

Fifth. The Senate Bill compels the President to expose the public lands for sale in two years after a survey. The House Bill does not; but the House has passed a separate bill, now pending in the Senate, preventing sales until ten years after the survey.

Mr. Colfax added, there was no land of any consequence, except in Minnesota, Washington Territory and Oregon, to which the Senate Bill would apply, and but little in California, Kansas and Nebraska. Under the House Bill the Government land every where would be open to the pioneer.

The difference between the two measures resolves itself into this shape: the Republicans propose to give every poor man, who chooses to avail himself of the offer, an entire loaf, while the Democrats stingily throw to them worthless crust. We trust the free poor laboring men of the country, for whose benefit this Homestead measure is especially designed, will appreciate the liberality of the Democracy.—Chicago Journal.

A NEW census of St. Louis has just been taken—very imperfectly, the Democrat says—showing the following result:

Whites—Male,	73,320	Female,	68,246	Total,	141,566
Colored—Free,	1,019	Slave,	1,245	Total,	2,264
Total Population					143,830

The proportion of colored population is very small, and accounts for the fact that St. Louis is a free soil city. The same condition is likely to be brought about in the rural districts, were free labor is already proven to be more economical than servile. The planters—or rather farmers—are rapidly selling their slaves south, not from any sentiment of liberty, but from that other and stronger passion, the love of money.

GETTING ON THE RIGHT SIDE.—The Clearfield (Iowa) Independent, which has hitherto maintained a neutral position in politics, in its last number says: "We conceive it to be our duty to place the names of Lincoln and Hamlin at the head of our columns, as a pledge that we will extend to them such honorable and faithful support as may belong to our position and influence."

CROPS IN THE WEST.—In Northern Illinois, wheat will be an average crop. Although scattering and headed rather low, the berry is plump, and will be harvested in good condition. Corn promises finely, the weather in Spring having been favorable for plowing and planting, and it is hoped that the losses by reason of last year's severe frosts may in great part be made up by an abundant harvest. Fruit will be abundant. In the central portions of the State, the Spring opened very early, and continued so clear and pleasant that the farm work was well done and in good season. Some who planted their corn about the first of April were compelled to re-plant because of frost. The accounts from Wisconsin and Minnesota, and, in fact, from the entire Western country, in the main corroborate the experience of the districts above referred to. In Missouri and Kansas, however, the drouth has been so great as to seriously injure the grass and grain crops, while the fruit growers are said to have but a gloomy prospect before them.—Chi. Press.

THE FIRST OREN OF THE CAMPAIGN.—In 1858 the Republicans of the Sixth Ward planted an ash liberty pole on the corner of Ash and Sycamore streets in this city. Now, after a period of democratic dryness for two seasons, the pole is putting forth green leaves, sprouting out in verdance. The incident is singular. It is an Ash tree, the free of Henry Clay; planted on Ash street, it revives with the nomination of Lincoln, and in omen of victory puts forth the leaves of hope and promise. Is not this an omen indeed?—Buffalo Courier

AN Indiana correspondent of the Washington Union admits that the Republicans of that State are now thoroughly organized, and that the prospects are that they will carry the State. This is the tenor of all information from Indiana. The whole Opposition are cordially united on Lincoln and Hamlin, and the Republicans do not seem to entertain a doubt that they will sweep the State in November by a large majority. There was an opposition majority of the popular vote of the State at the last election.

THE CROPS.—The grain crops of every description at present present a most promising appearance. Although the western and northern portions of this county, and in the whole of Lebanon, Berks, Montgomery and Chestercounties, the growing grain looks beautiful. Except where it has been destroyed by hail, there is now the most encouraging prospect of a beautiful harvest.—Har. Tel.

LAST week's Rural New Yorker, than which no better authority can be quoted, inclines to believe that the wheat crop of western New York, or at least that portion sown early, on good properly prepared soil, will this year escape the midge and produce abundantly.
