THE HOMESTEAD BILL.—No act of the present week, corrupt and infamous National Administration has created more indignation throughout the community than the President's veto of the Homestead Bill. The frauds upon the treasury of which the Administration is the acknowledged parent, sink into comparative insignificance before this giant fraud upon the free laborers of the country, to whom the public lands belong, of right, if they are willing to occupy them. Fowler may steal $175,000 of the public money; but the government, poor as it is, is better able to bear that loss than the poor laboring man is to lose his rightful share of the public lands.

The bill vetoed was not the House bill, which met the general approval of the country, but the Senate bill, which the House accepted as the best that could be had under existing circumstances. It was framed especially to meet the very objections which the pettifogging President so unfairly states in his veto message; and it is creditable to Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, who labored hard to make the bill as little objectionable all round as possible, that, when the veto message was read, he denounced its author in good set terms, and exposed not only the hollowness of its logic, but the petty quibbling in which the message abounds. The free and bold denunciation thus administered to the President by a Southern democratic Senator must have made the old hypocrite in the White House wince as if another Covode were after him.

The miserable quibble of the President that the bill discriminates in favor of foreigners, is refuted by the bill itself, which in the very first section contradicts his positive assertion. This "native American" doctrine comes with an ill grace from the President, who has all his life been courting the "foreign vote," and who owes his election to that influence, and the free use of manufactured naturalization papers in Pennsylvania; and it is all the more despicable from the fact that there is nothing in the bill to justify it. But even if it were true, Satan rebuking sin would afford an instance of modesty compared with Buchanan rebuking the American Congress for pandering to the "foreign vote."

His other objection, that it would decrease the public revenue, is none the less despicable. If he had not squandered the public revenue by millions, and ran the government into a heavy debt in a time of profound peace, the Treasury would not need, now, the few thousands of dollars which the sales of public lands afford. It is a humiliating confession for him to make—humiliating to the country if not to him—that an administration which found $17,000,000 in the Treasury when it came into power three years ago, should now be so lamentably short of funds that, after borrowing $100,000,000, it cannot get along without the paltry revenues from the public lands.

The true reason for vetoing this bill is to be found in the fact that the South is opposed to it. Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., was its only Southern friend. The Homestead bill is dreaded by the South because it will foster free labor and secure the new territories to freedom. It was for that it was vetoed, and for the same reason the democratic Senate refused to pass it by the constitutional majority.

The Homestead Bill is thus, by no act of ours, an issue in the campaign, as well as Free Kansas and the Tariff. So let it be. Old Abe, if elected, will settle all these questions promptly, and we may safely trust the people to promote their early settlement by his triumphant election.

THE TARIFF BILL.—No amount of squirming, dodging or explaining can relieve the democracy from the odium of defeating the Tariff bill. The Morrill bill was sent from the House to the Senate on the 10th of May, and, notwithstanding the efforts of our friends in the Committee of Finance, it was not touched until near the close of the session, and then only to be postponed till next session. Mr. Latham, of California, was the only democrat who came to the relief of Mr. Bigler on the test question. All the others who had promised so much, and of whose support he had given so many confident assurances, failed at the crisis, and the tariff bill failed solely because the democracy was inexorably against it.

It is true that Mr. Bigler made a show of sincerity in its behalf, and that Mr. Henry D. Foster went to Washington ostensibly to promote its passage; but all their influence failed to have the bill considered at all in the Finance Committee of the Senate. Mr. Hunter, the Chairman of that Committee, agreed to report it, but as it now appears, mainly to attack it with an elaborate speech, prepared upon data furnished by the agents of foreign manufacturers, who have been swindling the treasury for years by a system of fraudulent invoicing, and by the Custom House in New York. Upon his motion and by a party vote, the bill was postponed till next winter, until the farce of reconsidering was performed a few days ago. Mr. Bigler became exhausted by the effort of that motion and his own speech, and after the reconsideration had been obtained, the subject was dropped as if it had never been heard of.

While democratic Senators pretended that the Morrill bill was objectionable in some of its details, they never undertook to amend or modify it in any manner or form, or to present a substitute which would relieve their alleged difficulties. While the House had expended so much pains in perfecting it, and Mr. Simmons, of Rhode Island—who may be regarded as the highest authority upon this subject—had declared in the Senate it was less complained of than any tariff for thirty years, yet its friends were at all times willing to give up the form if they could preserve the substance and principle. They were not obstinately wedded to it, but stood ready to yield to the necessities of the case by meeting the Senate more than half way, if any advance had been made. But no step was taken, and none was ever intended. The bill was shelved because Democracy and Slavery are inseparably wedded, and the control of the one must always be turned to promoting the interests of the other. Free labor can find protection only by overturning the pro-slavery democracy. The solution of the Tariff question is thereby hastened by the dissolution of the Democratic Ratification Meeting.

In view of the fact that our Democratic friends are holding back in the matter, we have with a magnanimity which must be appreciated, concluded to call a Ratification meeting for them on our own hook. We submit the following programme for the occasion:

GRAND DOUBLE BACK-ACTION RATIFICATION MEETING OF THE "NATIONAL DEMOCRACY" IN THE REAR OF THE "SYMPOSIUM," ON FIFTH ST., PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 30, 1860.

The following gentlemen are expected to be present and address the meeting. The speakers on each side, with the exception of SAM'L HARPER, Esq., are necessarily limited by the Committee of Arrangements to 15 minutes each.:

FOR DOUGLAS.

Judge Shaler,	Rody Patterson,
Ed. Campbell, Jr.,	John C. Dunn,
R. Biddle Roberts,	J. Augustus Gibson.

FOR BRECKINRIDGE.

James P. Barr,	Gen. Will A. Stokes,
Samuel Harper,	Joseph R. Hunter,
Charles Barnett,	James M. Richards,
Geo. M. Keyser, M. D.,	D. D. Bruce,

George McCook, M. D.

Music—We're a band of Brothers!
We're a band of Brothers!!
We're a band of Brothers!!!
And we'll sound it through the land.

☞ The meeting will convene at 7:60 P. M.

☞ Shanter Sovereignty Cocktails and Breckinridge "Smashes" served out at the counter.

JUDGE SHALER, of this city, we learn from the St. Louis Democrat, made a speech to the Breckinridge men in that city on Monday night last. A large crowd of Breckinridge men had assembled to pay their respects to Col. Preston, our Minister to Spain, who was then in St. Louis, when they were disturbed by a crowd of Douglas men, who hooted, shouted, groaned and manifested the most malignant feeling toward the Breckinridge crowd.

After they had quit the Breckinridge meeting, and order was restored, Judge Shaler addressed those present in what the Democrat calls a very sensible speech. As there is no nonsense about Judge Shaler, we are not surprised to hear that he is openly against Douglas

THE Post denies that Mr. H. D. FOSTER said that he would decline if Douglas were not nominated; but it has no right to speak in the matter, as it knows nothing whatever of what it affirms. Mr. FOSTER did say that very thing, and will not deny it; and he was at Baltimore, electioneering for Douglas, as hundreds who were there can testify. The Breckinridge men know these facts, and no denials, such as that of the Post, can blind their eyes.

Messrs. Editors: Whoever will examine the reports of Lunatic Asylums, of this country or Europe, cannot but be struck with the very large and disproportionate number of insane classed as being caused directly or indirectly by intemperance. Medical men all admit that the offspring of drunken parents are predisposed to some of the forms of insanity—and it is a well established fact that drunkards frequently transmit to their children a hereditary predisposition to intemperance, (as a scrofulous or consumptive diathesis may be hereditary) and the victim of this inherited cause, obeying the laws of his organization, falls readily into the sin that doth so easily beset him.

Most authors on insanity divide the exciting causes into moral and physical—the line of demarcation in many instances being very obscure and difficult to trace. Among the physical causes, intemperance forms the most prominent one. Dr. Tuke, in his valuable work on Insanity, says that among "physical causes, intemperance ranks first in the scale," while under the head of moral causes come reverse of fortune, loss of friends and domestic troubles. In analyzing the reported causes of the cases admitted into sixteen of the Hospitals for the Insane in the United States, we find that out of sixteen thousand and forty-one cases in which the cause was ascertained, nine thousand five hundred and eighty-eight were due to physical, and six thousand four hundred and fifty-three to moral causes. Out of seven thousand four hundred and sixty cases reported by Dr. Aubanel A. Thore, we find that four thousand six hundred and thirty-one originated in physical, and only two thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine in moral causes; and in a total number of twenty-nine thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine cases admitted into various Asylums, we find three-fifths referrable to physical and two-fifths to moral causes.

The annual report of our Western Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, for 1859, shows thirty-three cases, out of three hundred and thirty-two, as being produced directly by intemperance—ranking as second in the scale of known causes of insanity, pecuniary difficulties and domestic troubles, coming next in frequency.

In nearly all these reports, among the physical causes, comes second—and after first—intemperance—while prominent among the moral causes, come reverse of fortune and domestic troubles: and when we consider how very frequently these same moral causes are superinduced by intemperance, we are compelled to admit the frightful agency of drunkenness in peopling our lunatic asylums and slaughter houses. Now, in view of these facts, is it not an imperative duty of society to provide some means of lessening this terrible cause of so much misery and disease.—The most feasible plan, manifestly, is the establishment of an Inebriate Asylum for Western Pennsylvania, at or near our city. At present, the poor inebriate is often consigned to our common jails, to herd with felons, pickpockets and thieves, or if taken with delirium tremens, he frequently becomes the inmate of our lunatic asylums, though by no means a legitimate subject for institutions of that kind. We want an institution set apart and adapted expressly for the needs of the inebriate, and conducted in no manner whatever with anything that would degrade or lower the respectability and self respect of those who may desire to seek its advantages.

The State of New York, aroused to the necessity of providing some means for the reformation of inebriates, donated $100,000 to the trustees and commissioners of the New York State Inebriate Asylum, besides, providing by act, for an annual income to the same by a per centage levied to a certain amount upon all monies received by the different commissioners of excise, paid by those applying for, and receiving licenses throughout the State. Governor Morgan in his recent message states that $75,000 more are needed to complete it. They have already had over three thousand applications for admission, a much larger number than even that large institution will be able to accommodate.

Why would not the Western Pennsylvania Hospital near our city make an excellent Inebriate Asylum? We understand that in a short time its inmates will be transferred to the new and commodious Insane Asylum now in process of erection near Haysville, and in that event, we know of no more judicious, useful or benevolent purpose to which it could be appropriated. It would require little or no alteration to adapt it to the requirements of a first class Inebriate Asylum—than which, no institution is more imperatively needed in our glorious old Commonwealth. I.

MR. JOHNSON'S NOMINATION.—A committee assumed the responsibility of nominating Hon. Herschell V. Johnson as Vice-President with Mr. Douglas. This contingency was not contemplated by the Rump Convention; as Mr. Forsyth and others had urged Mr. Fitzpatrick after a full understanding of his views. Mr. Johnson, who is nominated, was refused admission into the Douglas Convention for not being accredited as a delegate properly. He was formerly Governor of Georgia, and one of the most thorough placed ultra fire-eaters and secessionists in the State, beside being in favor of reopening the slave-trade. When Mr. Cobb was put forward as the Union candidate in 1850, Mr. Johnson was among the violent opponents for surrendering the rights of the South.

This combination is peculiarly appropriate, in view of Mr. Douglas' denunciation of the Disunionists, which that very conservative gentleman, Pierre Soule, reiterated as his mouthpiece at Baltimore.—N. Y. Trib.

The aggregate on the way to England amounts to $3,745,000.

A large field of wheat on the opposite side of the river, harvested this week, is good wheat and a fine crop. Many of the farmers in this neighborhood are now harvesting and securing their hay crop. The latter is as good as it can be anywhere with the same treatment.

The weather has been very favorable for ten days, for harvesting and for growing crops. In fact the weather has been very favorable since planting time.—Cercelo Crescent.

The histories of men and parties are best written after their death. The late Democratic party is now ready for history. It is a maxim to speak no evil of the dead, but anything not evil said of that party would be false. It did evil and only evil and that continually. It was evil in its birth, evil in its life, and evil in its death. Its first breath was offensive, and its last a stench.—Louisville Jour.

THE REDUCE OF THE ADMINISTRATION.—Much feeling is excited among the few friends of this Administration that neither of the Conventions gave it the first word of recognition, toleration or comfort. Mr. Buchanan thinks he deserved as much from the South as Mr. Pierce received, having surrendered much more to it.—N. Y. Trib.

HON. F. A. PIKE, of Calais, has been nominated for Congress in the sixth district of Maine. Mr. Pike was the last speaker of the Maine House of Representatives.

THE Wanderer of Vienna publishes a letter from Ancona, dated the 6th, which says:

"The Irish yesterday had a fight among themselves, and wounded some of the gendarmes who interfered to separate them. The delegate has hitherto treated the Irish like princes, and their pretensions are, in consequence, unbounded. Every soldier insists on having his own room, table, &c. It is to be feared that, after all, the Pontifical government will be under the necessity of requesting the Irish to go home again."

THE Watertown (Wis.) Democrat says that the farmers in the vicinity of Fort Atkinson who gave mortgages in aid of the old Chicago, St. Paul, and Fond du Lac Railroad, are compromising the best way they can with the mortgagee. Several instances are reported where the old mortgages have been surrendered upon the payment in cash or security, with interest, of 25 per cent of the amount.

THE Huntingdon "Union" announces that Maj. Thos. F. Campbell, (who has all his life long been a leading Democrat in that place,) has bolted that vile party and come out for Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin, and purposes to stump the State for them. The Major is an efficient partizan worker, and his labors we have no doubt will tell in "Old Mother Huntingdon."

THE Lancaster Intelligencer supports Douglas, but says: "Disaster and defeat stare us in the face for the present, but the party will, sooner or later, recover from its prostrate and disrupted condition, and those who were directly or indirectly instrumental in producing the present lamentable state of things, will be held to a fearful accountability in the future."

THE Chicago Times says that General Joe Lane never does things by halves, but that his opinions place him under the ban with the Nothern Democracy. So, dear old Joe, you are not half Joe but under the ban-Joe.—Louisville Journal.

HARVESTING IN INDIANA.—Many of the farmers in Tippecanoe county, will commence cutting their wheat this week. From what we can learn, the present harvest will be one of the most plentiful known for years.—Lafayette Journal, June 28th.

A NEW Journal of Palermo, L'Unita Italia, comes out with the following motto at the head of its programme: "One country—One Law—One King—Victor Emanuel. One hero—Garibaldi."

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!! Dyspepsia!!!

What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA is our National Disease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habit, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstupefied head and attacks of headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system

But HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases. This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; do. in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $2.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address DR. F. HUMPHREY & CO.,

BOOK OF THE FAIR.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce that, with the approbation and countenance of the Board of Directors of the Allegheny County Agricultural Association, He will publish on Sept. 23, in time for the opening of the ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR, To be held Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, a volume bearing the above title.

THE BOOK OF THE FAIR will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, Statistics of its various Exhibitions, and much other interesting matter, relative to Allegheny County, and the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches. Also, a fine Octavo View of the Two Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Schuchman.

TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this seasonable book will be issued and ready for the opening of the Exhibition.

A SECTION of the volume will be devoted to a historical and statistical account of the various establishments to which Manufactured articles on exhibition may have been made, with full descriptions of the articles so exhibited.

As this book will be in the hands of the majority if not nearly all the visitors to the Fair, the shrewd business man, merchant or agriculturist will see the great advantage to be obtained in a proper presentation of his wares, patents or stock, through the pages of this volume, by taking TIME BY THE FORELOCK, and having a neat and correctly written notice thereof intelligently prepared and nicely printed in the pages of the BOOK OF THE FAIR.

As a medium of introduction to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good offices, during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate for the expense incurred in obtaining publicity in its pages, but as, from its Historical, Statistical and Illustrated character, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and be scattered far and wide, it is at once apparent to any shrewd business man that it offers unusual attractions to such as would strikingly commend their establishments, wares, patents or stock to the attention of thousands.

As the whole matter of the book must be prepared and printed, and the volume issued at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair, it will be obvious that all parties availing themselves of its pages must make application soon to the publisher.

All orders must be addressed to Save Your Carpets!

THE great enquiry has been made for a number of years by housekeepers, What shall we put under our carpets to protect them from wear and mothes? The grand and valuable discovery was effected and patented April 1st, 1858, by J. R. HARRINGTON, and is called

Harrington's Patent Carpet Lining

This article having proved the utility has now come into general use, so much so that scarcely a carpet will be put down without it, and its cheapness puts it within the reach of every family. It is warranted to add 50 per cent to the durability of Carpets, Oil Cloths and Matting. The testimonials of its merits are too numerous to mention. It can be obtained at any of the principal Carpet Stores throughout the United States, and is manufactured only by the NEW YORK CARPET LINING COMPANY.

Also, extensive manufacturers of MAMMOTH COTTON BATTING AND COMFORTABLES, the best and cheapest that have ever been introduced in the market.

Office 11 Dey St., Saltersroom 440 Pearl Street NEW YORK.

☞ All orders or inquiries for requested will be attended to with promptness and dispatch.

Under the supervision of the patentee.
