PROGRESS OF THE CONCILIATION.—Our anxiety to see the fractions of the Democracy reunited, so that we may have but one enemy to whip, leads us to watch closely the progress of the fractional efforts of the Breckinridge men to bring in the Douglas men to the incidental support of their ticket by means of a one-sided compromise; and we are grieved to say that the Douglas men will not come into the perfectly fair and honest arrangement.

The State Committee met at Philadelphia on Monday. Sixty members out of the one hundred it contains were present, and of these, it is said, only four were from the West. Philadelphia had over twenty members present—nearly all of them government retainers; and the effort of the Douglas men to admit substitutes for the absent country members was, of course, voted down. The Breckinridge men had two to one of the members present, and they were determined to have their own way.

Three propositions were submitted by the Douglas men. Mr. D. Salomon, of Philadelphia, moved that a committee of five be appointed to devise some plan for a union of the party. Mr. Carrigan, of Philadelphia, moved to amend by providing for the reassembling of the Fourth of March Reading Convention. Mr. Johnston, of Cambria, moved as an amendment to the amendment, that a new convention should be called, which was defeated by a vote of 9 to 52. Mr. Carrigan's proposition was negatived by 11 to 51, and Mr. Salomon's by 20 to 40, and then a resolution by Mr. Johnston, of Cambria, that Douglas and Johnson be recognized as the regular nominee of the Democratic party, was defeated by a vote of 20 to 50.

Mr. Welsh's compromise plan, to have but one electoral ticket, unpledged to either, but to cast its vote, if elected, for the democratic candidate most likely to be successful, was then adopted. Gen. Miller, of Dauphin county, offered a resolution that the editors of the democratic papers of the State should be recommended to hoist the democratic flag. Chairman Welsh arose and stated that he was an editor of a democratic paper, and that he would not feel bound by such a resolution, if it were adopted.

Certainly not; such papers as the Pennsylvanian and the Harrisburg Union do not intend, for the present, to put up any flag. They are for Breckinridge; but they will not commit themselves until, having put on the most sanctimonious pretences of being in favor of Union, they have done their best to inveigle the Douglas men into the compromise plot. When that fails, they will hoist the democratic flag and come out for Breckinridge.

The Breckinridge papers are, of course, delighted with this action of the State Committee. The Pennsylvanian, Harrisburg Union, York Gazette, and others, land it to the skies, and pretend to think it is obligatory upon the party because adopted by the State Committee; but the Philadelphia Press punctures it thus:

"This action of the State Committee will be received by the democrats of the State with contempt and indignation. It is a proclamation of insult to the friends of Douglas and to the Democratic National Committee, which has demanded the appointment of pure Douglas electoral tickets in all the States. We regard the decision of this close corporation as releasing all the Douglas democrats from any obligation whatever to support the electoral ticket. They cannot vote for it, as it stands, without stultifying themselves. They cannot vote for it without voting for disunionists and seceders. They cannot vote for it without sanctioning fraud and force in their worst shapes. There is but one rescue from this last shameless act of despotism—and that is, a mass meeting of the democratic people, to purge the electoral ticket, and to cut loose from the disunionists forever."

The Washington correspondent of the Press says also:

"The miserable compromise hatched up by your Central Committee on Monday last, and telegraphed to Washington, was undoubtedly the work of Senator Bigler. That immaculate patriot thinks that, by such a procedure he may be returned to the United States Senate. The proposition is received with derision alike by the friends of Douglas and of Breckinridge. The Douglas men here have already telegraphed to Pennsylvania that no such scheme will be tolerated, and Mr. Haldeman, the member of the National Committee from your State, will be instructed to ask the Democratic people to assemble in mass Convention to lift out the Seceders from the electoral ticket, and to select unadulterated Douglas Democrats in their places."

Even the Breckinridge men seem to be opening their eyes to the fact that the scheme is an abortion. The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

"It is authoritatively announced, on behalf of the Breckinridge wing, that no coalition or combination of any sort or kind will either be permitted or considered. And if attempts should be made to run State tickets in connection with the Douglas interest, all such action will be openly repudiated and denounced, no matter who may be concerned in the scheme. They are resolved to have a pure and simple electoral ticket in every State, and will consent to no manner of arrangement by which one party may claim as much importance as the other. The partnership with Douglas is to be dissolved entirely, and the basis of the new organization rests upon his election now, and probably hereafter. They intend to make him occupy the position of a disorganizer, like Benton and Van Buren, and then leave him to the same fate when that point has been reached."

PROPERTY IN MAN.—The New York Times publishes a luminous paper from one of the surviving sons of Alexander Hamilton, upon the leading political topic of the day, which discusses the provisions of the Federal Constitution upon the subject of Slavery, in a spirit of candor and with the temper and ability of a statesman. He shows conclusively that Judge Taney's dogma, that the Constitution recognizes the idea of property in man, is utterly false. There is nothing whatever in the Constitution to warrant it; on the contrary, the authorities cited by Mr. Hamilton show conclusively that the framers of the Constitution took special care to keep so odious an idea out of that instrument.

NEW JERSEY.—The compromise scheme does not work in New Jersey any better than it does in Pennsylvania. The Democratic State Convention adopted a call for a State Convention to nominate a joint electoral ticket—four for Douglas and four for Breckinridge; but the Douglas men of Essex county have indignantly spurned the bribe and determined to have a ticket of their own.

WHO IS FOSTER FOR?—That is the question. Is he for Douglas or Breckinridge—compromise or no compromise? A few weeks since he was a land-mouthed Douglas man; but, with his usual facility for adapting himself to circumstances, he is now said to be for Welsh's plan of compromise—that adroit scheme of the Breckinridge men for selling Douglas. The Philadelphia Press would like to know if this is true. Hear it:

"We noticed in one of the city papers, yesterday, the remark that Hon. Henry D. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was greatly delighted at the scandalous action of the majority of the State Central Committee, in proposing that the Douglas men of Pennsylvania should vote for the disunionists on the electoral ticket. This, we are disposed to believe, is a somewhat unauthorized surmise, arising probably from the presence of General Foster at the Merchants' Hotel, during the session of the committee. Mr. Foster professes to be, and we believe is, a sincere friend of Judge Douglas, and a man of too much sagacity not to be aware that, with an electoral ticket recognizing, in any manner whatever, the slave trade and slave-code platform, and the desperate secession movement at Charleston and at Baltimore, at least fifty thousand democratic voters in Pennsylvania would remain from the polls. He should also know that, in a crisis like this, no double dealing and no equivocal silence will be supported by the democratic masses."

This must be very pleasant reading to a man of Mr. Foster's firmness and decision of character. Of course he will at once come out and say that there is no foundation for the story. There is no hypocrisy or double-dealing about him.

H. V. JOHNSON ON POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY.—A Democratic State Convention was held at Milledgeville, June 4, to take action in regard to the secession of most of the Georgia delegates at Charleston. A business committee of twenty-four was appointed, of which H. V. Johnson was one. A debate arose in this committee on the propriety of sending new delegates to Baltimore, which resulted in two reports being made; a majority report by twenty members of the committee and a minority one by four members. The latter report was presented by Herschell V. Johnson, as the chairman of the committee. After much discussion the majority report was adopted by a vote of 200 to 41, when the minority, under the lead of Johnson, seceded and organized another convention, and appointed delegates to Baltimore, who were admitted by the Douglas men on an equality with the regular delegates.

The following is the report presented to the regular convention by Mr. Johnson:

Resolved, That we reaffirm the Cincinnati platform, with the following additional propositions:

1. That the citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property of any kind, in the organized territories of the United States, and that under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dred Scott, which we recognize as the correct exposition of the constitution in the particular, slave property stands upon the same footing as all other descriptions of property, and that neither the general government, nor any territorial government, can destroy or impair the right to slave property in the common territories, any more than the right to any other description of property, that property of all kinds, slaves as well as any other species of property, in the territories, stands upon the same equal and broad constitutional basis, and subject to like principles of recognition and protection in the legislative, judicial, and executive departments of the government.

2. That we will support any man who may be nominated by the Baltimore Convention, for the Presidency, who holds the principles set forth in the foregoing proposition, and who will give them his endorsement, and that we will not hold ourselves bound to support any man who may be the nominee, who entertains principles inconsistent with those set forth in the above propositions, or who denies that slaveholding property in the territories does stand on an equal footing, and to the same constitutional basis of other descriptions of property.

DOUGLAS GIVES IT UP.—While the Mark Tapleys of the Douglas press, such as the Pittsburgh Post and Cincinnati Enquirer, are making themselves jolly under the most dismal circumstances by getting up the most extravagant estimates of how Douglas will run, the little giant himself calmly and despairingly gives it all up. In his serenade speech at Washington City he said:

"Those who enlist under the secession banner now will be expected on the 4th of March next to take up arms against the constituted authorities in certain contingencies. We are told in a certain event the South must finally, must forcibly resist the inauguration of the President elect while we find those who are loudest in their threats of such resistance engaged in the scheme to divide and destroy the Democratic party, thereby securing the election of the Republican candidate."

ANOTHER QUARREL.—Senator Gwin, of California, had a quarrel with the President on Saturday last. The war of words became very violent, and during the altercation the Senator denounced Mr. Buchanan in no very moderately measured language, and concluded by telling the old gentleman that he would never darken the doors of his mansion again. Gwin has hitherto been Buchanan's right-hand man, and this private quarrel will doubtless manifest itself, in time, in California politics. The man who betrayed Broderick has been in turn betrayed.—Serves him right.

UNION AND HARMONY.—The Douglas men would not let "Joe Lane" speak at the Breckinridge meeting in Philadelphia on Monday night last. As soon as he made his appearance on the stand they set up a series of discordant yells, which effectually prevented him from being heard. We are afraid the unbrotherly spirit thus manifested will prevent the consummation of the plan of compromise hatched out by the Democratic State Committee.

OHIO.—The Democracy of Ohio has split in two, just as every where else. The Breckinridge men seceded from the State Convention held at Columbus on Wednesday, and have resolved to have a State and Electoral ticket of their own.

DR. G. W. GRIFFIS, formerly of Butler, has started a new Republican paper in Blairsville, Indiana county, called the Blairsville Journal. It is very handsomely got up.

The Crops.

A GREAT DEAL of clover was cut last week in this county, and at least a part thereof gotton up in good order. The crop is a heavy one and hay will be abundant.

The grain fields in this vicinity changed color considerably within the past five days, and the early wheat is thought to be secure from either rust or weevil.

While other fruits, especially apples, will be rather scarce, many peach orchards are well laden, and there is good prospect for a fair crop of this delicious fruit.

A farmer residing in the western part of this county told us some days ago that the season thus far has been favorable for a heavy honey crop, the rich clover fields affording the bees ample means by which to fill their cells.—Ind. (Pa.) Register.

THE HARVEST.—The Delaware Republican of yesterday says:

The farmers in this section are in the midst of their harvest. The grass crop the present season is quite large. The wheat is very fine, and will yield an abundant yield of this grain. The oats are well filled, and the expectations are that there will be an abundant yield of this grain. The corn is rather short, but the warm sun the past few days has done much toward advancing its growth. In fact the indications are that the crops will be unusually large the present season.

HARVEST BEGUN.—The Mahoning Sentinel says: On Monday of this week, we notice that many of the farmers of the neighborhood commenced harvesting by cutting their hay. The grass is very heavy and the yield per acre will be abundant. Grain is ripening fast and the hay will be all finished by the time the wheat must be attended to. As to the abundance of help we are not posted, but suppose plenty is within reach.

THE CROPS.—We do not think that a better prospect for a heavy crop of all kinds of grain, than is presented at this time was ever before seen in this region. Our farmers are cheered with the rich prospect of plenty and those who suffered by the severe frost last year will find themselves surrounded with abundance.—Clarion Banner.

THE GRAIN AND GRASS CROPS OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The Pa. Farmer and Gardener, for July, says:

"We are pleased to be able to state that the grass crop of our State, at least the eastern portion of it, never looked fairer or gave better promise of a large yield. The grain crop looks equally well. All that is now wanting is good weather for harvesting."

THE Martinsburg (Va.) Gazette of Saturday says:

Most of the Berkeley farmers commenced cutting their wheat this week. The indications favor the belief that there will be a tolerably fair average crop in the county.

The harvest in the counties bordering on James river, Va., is nearly yet over, and the Richmond flour mills will not commence work before the 20th of July.

The Crop.

—In this county, of all kinds, are excellent. Hay is good—the oats and corn need rain, but still a fine prospect, and as to wheat, there will be nearer a full crop, than there has been for years. In some parts of the county, farmers commenced cutting it as early as a week ago.—Salem (O.) Rep.

THE wheat harvest in Kentucky, this State and Indiana is over, and the result is about as we stated in May last, a fair crop in this State and Indiana, and about three fourths an average in Kentucky, with a short head.—Cin. Pr. Cur.

HARVEST.—Our Farmers are busy this week in harvesting their wheat. It has ripened handsomely, and in this county, never promised a richer reward to the husbandman.—Carlisle American.

HARVEST.—Some of the farmers in this county have commenced cutting wheat, of which, we understand, there will be about an average crop, although thin in some places.

WHEAT CUTTING has commenced in Genesee county, New York, and considerable harvesting will be done this week. Winter barley is also falling before the sickle.

THE grass crop is superabundant in this county, and from present appearances hay will be sold at a very low figure.—Crawford Journal.

THE PEACH CROP.—From every quarter in this section we hear most gratifying accounts of the abundant promise of the Peach Crop, the present season. The orchards and gardens in our vicinity exhibit a fine show of this fruit, and the lovers of "peaches and cream" can confidently count upon a bountiful supply.—Brownsville Clipper.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!! Dyspepsia!!!
What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA is our National Disease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habit, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstupefied head and attacks of headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics, or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases. This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $3.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address DR. F. HUMPHREY & CO., No. 562 Broadway, New York.

BLOOD FOOD! BLOOD FOOD!!

DR. BROWN—Sir: It may not be valuable to you, to know that I have used the different Preparations of Blood Food in several cases, and uniformly with success, and that I am convinced they are a nearer approximation to the means of a RADICAL CURE of those cases of Chronic Disease Agencies known to the Pharmacopœia.

I recommend these Preparations as I am naturally desirous that they should be most widely tested and adopted.
