MR. EVERETT ANNOUNCED IN THE SOUTH.—The Jackson Mississippian charges upon Mr. Everett the crime of being an abolitionist, of "the most virulent and undisguised form." Here is what it says:

"But what of their slick and oily candidate for the Vice Presidency? The facts published below show that in 1850 he was the open and avowed champion of the following anti-slavery schemes against the South:

1. The abolition of slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia.
2. The abolition of slavery in the Territories.
3. The exclusion of new States applying for admission into the Union whose constitutions recognize slavery.
4. The abolition of the slave trade between the States."

These damaging reminiscences were promptly transmitted to Mr. Everett by a gentleman of Eutah, Alabama, for the purpose of having them explained. The candidate for Vice President replied through a substitute, a Mr. Saltonstall, who signs himself Chairman of the Massachusetts Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union party. The deputy does not attempt to deny the charges thus ruthlessly and inopportunely preferred, but pleads the statute of limitation, on the ground that "no good can result from a review of all that has been said or written North or South, for twenty or thirty years, on the question which now more than ever distracts the country." In order to assure the Southern people that Mr. Everett is entirely sound on this question now, reference is made to the bitter hostility which he is compelled to encounter from the entire anti-slavery press of the North—to his speech at Faneuil Hall on the occasion of the attempt at Harper's Ferry, and to his letter of acceptance of the Old Gentleman's nomination. As a specimen of special pleading, we give an extract from this apologetic letter:

"The papers inclosed in your letter, viz: the resolves of the Massachusetts Legislature, Mr. Borden's letter and Mr. Everett's reply, date from the year 1839. They were brought before the Senate of the United States in 1841, at the time of his nomination as Minister to England, and made the ground of a motion for his rejection. Henry Clay opposed that motion with great warmth, and said, that if, through the influence of the South, the appointment of a man of Mr. Everett's known conservative opinions was rejected, the Union was already dissolved." At the close of a fervent speech by Rufus Choate in support of Mr. Everett's appointment, the late Hon. W. C. Preston exclaimed, "I am afraid I have committed myself to vote against him, but by Heaven he shall not be rejected." Mr. Preston was afterwards heard to say that he regretted that vote more than any ever given by him." Mr. Everett's nomination as the first Minister to China, two years later, was, I believe, unanimously confirmed in the same Senate, of which Mr. Vice President King and Mr. Calhoun were members. His nomination as Secretary of State on the death of Mr. Webster was unanimously confirmed in 1852. In the following year he was elected by the conservative members of the Legislature of Massachusetts to the Senate of the United States."

Mr. Everett has a happy knack of getting out of difficulties of this kind. When taken to task on a certain occasion by his Southern friends for signing a letter deploring the brutal attempt made by Brooks to assassinate Mr. Sumner, he very gravely assured them that the offence was committed while under the influence of an anodyne.

FUSION IN NEW YORK.—The New York World thus refers to the result of the recent conference between the leading Douglas and Breckinridge men in that city:

"The conference had a wider and more ambitious purpose than the local one of bringing about a fusion between Tammany and Mozart halls. It was a proffer by the friends of the administration to the supporters of Mr. Douglas, to unite with them in running a joint electoral ticket in the State. We learn, from sources which we have every reason to believe authentic, that this proposition met with no favor from the Douglas men. Though the spirit of the meeting was most amicable and conciliatory, Dean Richmond and the other leaders of the Softs, were positive and emphatic in their refusal to consent to such a movement. They told the Breckinridge men that such a coalition would weaken their candidate in the South, and could not help the Democratic party here in New York. The people wish to know for whom they are voting; and the contest cannot be sharply enough defined to be efficient, if there is any doubt in whose favor the vote is to be counted. The Douglas men have weighed this matter maturely, and have come to a definite decision that they will make no compromises. They will run a clean Douglas ticket, glad of the support of other opponents of the Republicans, but not consenting to purchase it by any concessions."

The World infers from this that the Douglas men will be enabled, from their position, to compel the Breckinridge men to support the Douglas electoral ticket; but this seems a very unwarranted inference, considering the nature of New York politics, and the chronic inclination to a split of some kind which affects the democratic party of that State. The present temper of the Breckinridge men is anything but encouraging to the hopes of the Douglas men.

It seems very probable, however, we may almost say certain, that the distinctive Bell men of New York will unite in a body with the Douglas men. The committee appointed by the late Bell State Convention to frame an electoral ticket, is composed of men who are for Douglas at heart. They will put off the formation of a ticket until the last possible moment, so as to prevent any other movement to that end, and then advise their friends to go for Douglas. A large proportion of them will follow this advice; but all who are Republican at heart, as very many of them are, will come over to Lincoln. Large numbers of those who supported Fillmore in 1856 have already given in their adhesion to Lincoln; others are following daily; and the whole party will thus inevitably be absorbed by the other parties, each man following his natural inclinations. Those who were anti-slavery whigs or democrats before they became Americans, will join the Republicans; while those with pro-slavery leanings will very naturally fall into the arms of the Douglas men.

The result is not hard to foresee. The State will go for Lincoln by an overwhelming majority.

ILLINOIS.—The campaign has opened in Illinois with great earnestness. The Republican papers publish a long list of appointments for Lyman Trumbull, Carl Schurz and Mr. Hasselrig, all of whom intend to traverse the State from end to end. There will be no idle Republicans in that State.

NEW JERSEY.—There were, in 1856, fourteen papers in New Jersey supporting Fremont, six supporting Fillmore, fourteen supporting Buchanan, and eleven neutral. At the present time there are twenty two for Lincoln, two for Bell, ten for Douglas, four for Breckinridge, and fourteen neutral and undecided. The Bell men have called their State Convention to meet on the same day as the Democratic Convention, and will probably coalesce with the Douglas wing of the party.

"WE WILL SUBDUE YOU."—This was the menace which Douglas, a few years ago, when he stood in the United States Senate, backed by the united Democratic force, proclaimed, with a mien and voice of insulting triumph. We are not subdued yet; but how is it with him?

THE 1860 GRAIN CROP OF OHIO.—The crop of 1860, now bids fair to overtop any of previous years, even the bountiful harvest of 1857, when the respective crops were as follows:

Corn	82,555,186 bushels.
Wheat	25,307,614 "
Oats	25,000,000 "
Other small grain	3,000,000 "
Aggregate	135,952,186 "

This aggregate, large as it is, will probably be increased in 1860. The Cincinnati Gazette thinks the wheat and corn crop may be more, the oats not as much.

The county of Butler produced 3,240,351 bushels of grain in 1850, as returned to the Commissioner of Statistics, and it is thought will produce one fifth more in 1860. The Cincinnati Gazette says: "So far in 1860 we have had a remarkably good season. In Southern Ohio the wheat is harvested, and seldom has there been seen a better crop. It will be safe to say that the wheat crop of Ohio will be equal to any we have had. The oats were short, but the return of rains will give a fair crop of that grain. The corn is very good, and seems almost impossible now, that it should be seriously injured. The rains have been ample, and it only needs the hot sun of August to produce a great crop of corn.

The same remarks apply to the season and crops in Northern Ohio. The weather has been all that farmers could desire, and the wheat and other grains yield much better than usual. The grass crop, an important item in the Lake country, is heavy, and the corn has seldom given as good promise the middle of July. Potatoes, vegetables and fruits are very abundant, and so far the season has been one of unexampled health and prosperity.—Cleveland Leader.

THE FUSION MOVEMENT.—Mr. Buchanan encourages bombinations with the Douglas men in different States, hoping by that means to prevent an election by the people, and then, through a violent and protracted struggle in the House, to carry it into the Senate for the benefit of Geo Lane. This is the reason why, in his speech from the White House, he declared neither candidate to have been nominated according to the usages of the party. He also prompted the proposed coalition in Pennsylvania, which Mr. Douglas's friends have spurned. He professed partiality for Mr. Breckinridge in Indiana. The only interest he feels in the ticket is for Geo Lane, who has been a supple instrument of his Administration throughout. This scheme will fail, no matter how much pressed, for the leading friends of Mr. Breckinridge understand Mr. Buchanan's game, and have expended nearly $500 in telegraphing over the country not to enter into any arrangement or bargain with the Doughlas faction.

The proposed fusion in New-York, by which the Bell men are to be nominally transferred to Mr. Douglas, but really to Geo. Lane, was really contrived here immediately after the Baltimore Convention. Its managers and objects are perfectly understood. If an election by the people could be defeated, which is now hardly possible, and is only contemplated by a few desperate managers as their last hope, and Mr. Douglas should be returned to the House as one of the three highest candidates, he would have but one vote in that body—Illinois. The present probability is, he will not receive an electoral vote, and cannot be regarded as a serious candidate.—New York Cor. N. Y. Times.

A SANGAMON COUNTY FARM.—There is a farm of 3,000 acres twelve miles east Springfield which for its productiveness this season will, we think, compare favorably with any farm in the State. This farm belongs to Mr. Hamilton, of Kentucky, and is divided as follows: 1,400 acres wheat, 400 acres rye, 1,200 acres corn. The wheat field was entered last week and in a few days more the entire crop will be in market. Seven headers are at work, with thrashers to match, producing a very lively spectacle and suggesting visions of a goodly number of dollars placed to the credit of the lucky owner. We understand that 20,000 bushels have already been sold to a Chicago house at $1 25 per bushel, to be delivered in that city immediately. This is equal to $1 08 on the farm. Such a crop as this is worth raising, and we are glad to say in this connection that the wheat crop of old Sangamon is turning out well—much better than was anticipated. Good bye to dull times and empty purses as soon as the fall trade begins.—Springfield (Ill) Journal, July 9th.

WAR OF THE ROSES.—We published a few days since a list of democratic papers in New York supporting Breckinridge and Lane. A number have come out for the same ticket since, and from present indications the list will soon be considerably increased. The zeal with which they support their favorite candidates is significant of what may be expected by the followers of Douglas and his keepers, Richmond, Cagger, & Co.. The following papers now have the ticket at the head of their columns:

New York Journal of Commerce, New York Day Book, Brooklyn Eagle, Hudson Gazette, Putnam County Courier, Yankees' Herald, Albany Standard, Schenectady News, Banner of Liberty, Delaware Republican, Whitehall Sentinel, Middletown Mercury, Binghampton Democrat, Central City Courier, (Syracuse,) Genesee Democrat, (Batavia,) Buffalo Evening Post, Dunkirk Press and Argus, Port Jarvis Journal.—N. Y. Com Adv.

THE COMING CROPS.—A prominent citizen of Dane county, who was in town yesterday, informed us that he had two hundred acres sown to wheat, which promised to yield nearly thirty bushels to the acre. He added that a near neighbor had from seven to eight hundred acres in wheat, from which he expected to realize twenty thousand bushels. This, at a dollar a bushel, would be twenty thousand dollars—a pretty fair income.

One of our experienced Produce Dealers, yesterday, estimated the grain crop of Wisconsin for 1860 to be equivalent to twenty millions of bushels of wheat. Should this not prove exaggerated and prices keep up to their present standard, this would represent a value of twenty millions of dollars. That would answer for one year.—Milwaukie Sentinel.

DEMOCRATIC TROUBLE.—A friend sends us information that the Piqua Enquirer, late the Democratic organ of Miami County, has "flopped" over to the Republican side of the house, and that Democratic agony is intense in consequence thereof. Mr. Fleaming, the editor, got disgusted with doublefaced political professions, and not being able to distinguish the difference in principle between Douglas and Breckinridge, and not agreeing with either, unceremoniously repudiated them, and accepted the Republican doctrines and candidates, which were in accordance with his principles. Mr. Fleaming's paper displays the Republican National and State tickets at its masthead.—Cin. Com.

CENSUS OF ALLENTOWN.—The new census of Allentown has been completed, and shows the following result:

First Ward,	aggregate population	1,567
Second "	" "	1,648
Third "	" "	1,378
Fourth "	" "	1,607
Fifth "	" "	1,847
Total population		8,047

In 1850, the population was 3,776, showing an increase of 4,268, or more than 100 per cent. Allentown has probably increased more rapidly than any borough in the eastern part of the State.

HOTTEST SUMMER SINCE 1828.—The Montgomery, (Ala.) Mail, of the 6th, says:

We learn that the thermometer marked 102° in several open houses in the city yesterday.—One of our citizens who has kept a diary of the weather for thirty odd years, says that the present is the hottest summer since 1828. We have not known the mercury to range as high as 98° but once before in Montgomery, and that was, we believe, in 1856.

WOOL.—The wool clip of Sangamon county this year is said to be a little heavier than usual. Prices have ranged from twenty-five to forty-five cents; forty has been about the average. The season will probably close by the 1st of August. It is supposed by good judges that the clip will not vary much from 210,000 pounds. There are probably not far from 90,000 pounds yet remaining in the hands of growers.—Ill. State Jour.

MORE HELP.—The Staats Zeitung, the leading German paper in Indiana, has come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. It is published in Indianapolis, and has heretofore been Democratic. That party having become demoralized and indifferent to the interests of free labor, the honest Germans who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket are daily deserting to the Republican in large numbers. This is a fact of deep significance.

THE IOWA STATE JOURNAL says that five voters in one family at Ryan's Grove, near Des Moines, who voted the Democratic ticket last year, are now in favor of the Republican ticket. Thus it goes everywhere.

GARIBALDI, in promoting the union of Italy, has seriously interfered with another union. The marriage of the Count of Trani, brother of the young King of Naples, with the Princess Isoguel, of Bavaria, which was to have "come off" in September of this year, has been adjourned sine die; his Bavarian Majesty, like a prudent papa, declining to send his daughter into a house out of which he sees so great a number of rats running at the top of their speed. We hope the young pair will take a little "divine philosophy," and not rush rashly into the veis of Romeo and Juliet.

THE "HEATED TERM" AT THE SOUTH.—Intense heat prevailed in the Southern States last Wednesday and Thursday, the mercury, in some places registering 100° and upwards. Many deaths from sun-stroke resulted. Charleston papers mentioned twelve fatal instances; Augusta six; in Savannah there were several. The Charleston Mercury says the heat was "terrible," and the fatality unprecedented

HON. EDWIN ROSE, of Bridgehampton L. I., formerly an American, has given in his adhesion to Mr. Lincoln. He is not prepared to embrace the distructive doctrines of the Republican Party, but between Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Douglas he prefers the former and this he thinks will be the choice of a large proportion of the Americans of Suffolk County.

GEN. W. O. BUTLER, the old war-horse of Kentucky Democracy, is enthusiastic in his support of Breckinridge and Lane; and, we understand, contemplates taking the stump in behalf of the principles they represent.

The Nashville Banner announces, that the Hon M. P. Gentry, the Hon. Charles Ready, the Hon. Barclay Martin, and Sterling R. Cockrill, Esq., of that State, have left the Bell and Everett ranks, and declared for Breck. and Lane.

Catarrh! Catarrh!! Catarrh!!! Catarrh!!!!

What is it?. How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all kinds of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its loathsomeness and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation and often enlargement of follicles and consequent thickening of the mucous membranes, filling the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this it isn't tightness and often irritation of the head, offensive breath, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, taste, hearing, and sight.

The old school remedy has never been cured in any other thing for it. Nasal injections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet HUMPHREYS' CATARRH SPECIFIC, a simple Snuff, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases, cures at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as testified by the experience of hundreds

UNION HALL,

SARATOGA SPRINGS,

New York.

THIS WELL-KNOWN HOTEL, pleasantly located on the west side of Broadway, and opposite the celebrated Congress Springs, opens for Visitors

June 15th, for the Season.

By the addition, just finished, of a handsome brick building, two hundred and forty-one feet long, by forty-five feet wide, and five stories high, it is much the largest Hotel in the place, having a front of over One Thousand Feet, and can accommodate Over One Thousand Guests.

The Dining Hall, Kitchen and Laundry are unsurpassed in this country, in extent and completeness, and probably in the world. The Court, inclosed by the main building and family cottages, forms a lawn of several acres in extent, intersected with shaded walks. A fine band of music belonging to the house will be in attendance during the season. Carriage houses are also attached to the premises, affording every facility for excursions for the accommodation of guests.

The management of Union Hall, we trust, will meet with the approval of all who may honor us with their patronage.

PUTNAM & PAYNE, Proprietors

$30 WILCOX & GIBBS

Sewing Machine.

Fresh Stock just received. One lady says here has been in use a year without going out of order, or even requiring a new needle, and does all the sewing for a large family, and with very little noise or fuss. A tailor from Allegheny City says it is all he could desire—he knows it to constant use. A lady from the country orders one for herself and one for a friend—says "a neighbor has one and it gives great satisfaction," and that others in her neighborhood intend to have one, but the Wilcox & Gibbs are thought the best." Rev. B., of Ohio, having one, advises Rev. A. to get one, and likes a sensible man and good husband, he got it.

Please call and see for yourself, what needle-woman and woman having weight—

FAYETTE SPRINGS.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having taken a permanent lease of the popular

has had the buildings thoroughly refitted, with important additions, and the whole newly furnished. Being just over the top of Laurel Mountain, in Fayette county, Pa., and adjacent to scenes of natural and historic interest, near the National Road, only eighty miles from Pittsburgh and eight miles from Uniontown—the present terminus of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad, on which two daily trains now run—it is an easy and all accessible transition from the toils and heat of summer in town and city, to the healthy surroundings of a

MOUNTAIN RETREAT.

The waters are strongly Chalybeate—a pure and powerful tonic. Warm and Cold Baths are attached. Ample Bowling Alleys and other appliances for healthful exercise and amusement. No pains or expense

Horses and carriages will convey for with which guests can be furnished for excursions to the interesting contiguous localities. A passenger car runs the Springs, supplied by daily mails during the season.

The long experience of the subscriber in catering to the comforts of his friends, emboldens him to promise entire satisfaction in all respects, as well to abiding guests as transient visitors. Charges moderate. All is now ready. Come. Address

MOTHERS!

Read the following testimony to the success of Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial:

Mount Pleasant, July 20th 1859

DR. EATON—Your Cordial have much pleasure in certifying to the perfect harmlessness and efficacy of your Infantile Cordial, and cheerfully recommend it to those who have children teething. I have used it in my own family, and have sold over two hundred bottles of the last year. All those who have ever used it unite in the praise for all diseases for which you recommend it.

YOURS, &c.

E. F. LATROBE.

BLOOD FOOD! BLOOD FOOD!!

DR. ERONSON—Sir: It may not be valuable to you, to know that I have used the different Preparations of Blood Food in several cases and uniformly with success, and that I am convinced they are a much approving one for the means of a name in case of those cases of Chronic Disease for which they are prepared. Yours truly, your Medicinal Agencies known to the Pharmacopœia

I recommend these Preparations as I am naturally desirous that they shall be most widely tested and adopted.
