A LITTLE GIRL CARRIED THROUGH A CULVERT.—During the heavy rain, on Tuesday, says the Easton Express, a little girl, about eleven years old, daughter of Jacob Fulmer, through some means got into a stream of water that swept through Locust Alley, and, its force being so great that she was unable to help herself the child was carried off with the current about fifty feet, and then plunged into a culvert through which she passed a distance of one hundred and eighty feet, and from that into the Bushkill, bringing up finally on a rock in that stream.

The culvert is three by four feet in size, and those who saw the child carried into it by the water thought that she would meet her death by being dashed against its sides or be drowned, but their surprise may be imagined when we state that only a few bruises on one of her legs and about her head could be discovered when she was taken, very much frightened, from the rock in the Bushkill. The escape of the little girl is one of the most remarkable that we have heard of for some time.

SNOW AND HAIL STORMS IN ENGLAND.—The Liverpool Mercury, of August 1st, says that the phenomena of snowstorms in the dog days have occurred in Yorkshire. On the previous Saturday a very severe thunder storm passed over Marstoo and district, ending in a shower of snow and hail of fully a quarter of an hours duration. The ground was quite white, and on the Wolds the snow was of a depth in some places. Hailstones as large as nuts fell in quantities. A few days after there was another snow and hail storm.

THE Rev. Patrick Bronte, father of Currer, Acton and Ellis Bell, is at length so far overcome by age and infirmity as to be compelled to cease from active duty. He preached his last sermon in Haworth church on Sunday, the 21st ult. It is thought that the Rev. Mr. Nicholl, husband of Charlotte Bronte, will become the incumbent of Haworth.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS IN SAXONY.—The Indicator, of Dresden, Saxony, some weeks ago, published an article against capital punishment on the occasion of an execution. The paper was seized, and the editor and the author of the article were sent to prison. On appeal, the sentence was confirmed.

DIAMONDS IN AUSTRALIA.—An interesting discovery, namely the existence of native diamonds, has been made in Australia. The stones were discovered in the black sand of the Ovens district by an Irish miner. Rubies, and other gems, of very small size, had previously been found in the same deposit.

THE MAMMOTH CAVE TAVERN DESTROYED.—Bell's Tavern, well known to all travellers in Kentucky as the comfortable stopping place for visitors to the Mammoth Cave, has been burned down. Thousands upon thousands from every nation and country have enjoyed its hospitality and all will regret to hear of its destruction.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes,—Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant and rebellious and fantastic titles as are so paraded in show window cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WILLOW OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the neatest character of tonics; and when thus coolly, are baptized with some tripitious Greek and Latin name, they are caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any 'high falutin' Xilopholorium, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Say Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, supply such articles as may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove at once all Itching,
Will remove all Dandruff,
Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always Fasten it and stop its falling,
and is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.
