Amherst College—Resolutions of the Trustees.

To the President and Board of Trustees of Amherst College:

GENTLEMEN—I have been duty notified that at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, the title of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon me.

It would certainly give me pleasure should any respectable institution bear such a testimony of good will. But that Amherst College, my own mother, should so kindly remember a son, is peculiar gratification.

But all the ease of such a title ends with the pu[illegible] expression of a wish to confer it. For the [illegible] it would be but an incumbrance, and [illegible] address by no means agreeable to my taste. I greatly prefer the simplicity of that name which my mother uttered over me in the holy hour of infant consecration and baptism.

May I be permitted, without seeming to undervalue your kindness, or disseteeming the honor meant to return it to your hands; that I may to the end of my life be, as thus far I have been, simply HENRY WARD BEECHER.

A BOY OF TEN YEARS ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.—A boy named Finley was recently tried at Carlyle, Ill., for the murder of his uncle, Dr. Wren. The proof for the prosecution was that on the 5th of July last, Wren and the boy were left alone together for one or two hours, in a room in a drinking house, and that at the end of that period they were found there—Wren dying of wounds and bruises on the head, and the young boy asleep or lying on a bench and singing. There was no evidence of any quarrel between them, or of any motive for the deed. On the contrary, it was proved by the prosecution that the boy was playing with his uncle about three o'clock, and got a straddle of him as he lay upon the floor, doing it in a frolicsome way. The boy showed no sign of fear or consciousness of guilt, and the writer of the letter from which we quote intimates that the boy had not the capacity to distinguish between the good and evil. The verdict of the jury was not known to the writer, but there was no doubt of an acquittal.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in the window cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they have any, is, if at all, that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WILLS OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and without a name given to them, the costliest character of tonics; and when these costly, are blended with some triplicate term, are bought at by vendors young and old of both sexes, much is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative This unpretentious compound is free from the world without any "high falutin" Rhododendron, or any other astounding and startling outlandish terms to simply advertise a Hair Restoration—what it expresses precisely—and as a honest trial serve it intends. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else for 24 hours. If not, you will get some worthless nauseous thing purchased—lard oil or, your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Bald Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove at once all Itching,
Will cure all Dandruff,
Will cure all scriptions Fever Sick Head,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling.

And to one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both on Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Immortality of the blood, depending of what energy, pale and chlorotic sickly complexion, Debility, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Scrofula, Consumption, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Leucorrhœa, Menstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of Great Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description that offers attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land." Such very signal instances of debility attended of long suffering, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, inanimation exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic session to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron—more medicinally be salutary, for, unlike the old crude, pills vigorously made, without being exciting and overbearing, and, gently, regularly operates, even in the most obstinate case of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation.

It is this better property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficient and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by diminishing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Innumerable as are its causes, a single box of Dr. Mott's Chalybeate Pills has often, proved for the most healthful cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In Incipient Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, unchecked, unremitting, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate the advent Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physician, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculous, this indicated iron has had far—more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well known inconveniences.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, to the cases peculiarly adapting them.

In Amenorrhœa, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swelling and tenderness of the joints and muscles.

In Menorrhagia Fever it must necessarily be a great remedy and therapeutic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high national importance.

Not remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully recorded effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an instant disposition for active and thoughtful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box. For sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to
