SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

—The Anniversary of the Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church will be held in Detroit, Mich., October 21st and 22d. The Cor. Secretary writes that over $6,000 worth of books have been given to nearly 900 new or destitute Sunday Schools in about three months.

—The Rev. James C. Armstrong, the first foreign missionary sent out by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, sailed recently for Turkey. Hitherto the missionary operations of this denomination have been confined to the home field.

—The next anniversary of the American (Baptist) Bible Union will be held in New York, October 3d. The work of revision progresses slowly. It is expected that Matthew (from Dr. Conant's hands,) and the Appendix, will be ready some time during this month. Galatians, by Dr. Hacket, is promised this month—for the press. Mark will be ready in a few months hence. We glean these facts from a circular recently issued by the Society, and printed in the "Christian Review."

—The venerable Hobart, of Berlin, Vt., although nearly ninety-five years of age, and the seventieth of his ministry, is still able to preach.

—The Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, is now holding its annual session in the Pleasant Valley Church, Greene county, Pa. Session opened on Wednesday the 5th inst.

—The "Missionary" states that Rev. H. Hoehn, late of Canada West, has taken charge of the East Liberty and Lawrenceville German (Lutheran) Mission.

—When Gen. Cass laid out his farm last spring on the outskirts of Detroit, he offered sufficient ground to build a Methodist Church. Next spring the trustees intend to erect a fine church to be known as the Cass Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church.

—Rev. H. F. Buckner, Baptist Missionary among the Indians, who has been in New York, superintending the printing of his Creek translation, says:

"I will have 3,000 Creek Baptist Hymn Books; 3,000 copies of the translation of John's Gospel, and 1,500 Creek Grammar, including lessons in Creek spelling, reading, and defining."

—A movement is in progress to call a convention of the Methodists residing on the Border, to meet at the city of Baltimore, on the 5th day of December, to memorialize the Conferences what course to pursue in reference to the action of the late General Conference. Delegates are invited from the States of Maryland, and Virginia, and District of Columbia.

—A correspondent of the "North [illegible] Advocate," writing from India, says thousands attended a bathing festival, [illegible] night, were on thousands, from morning Brahmans in the crowding a small stream for offerings of water edge, loudly, money, &c.; their wheat, rice, dried grass, a bit of which hands filled, to those who made offering to would be to the water, to "wash away sin." Them is doing this to get rid of sin. Who [illegible] deny the necessity of this, the Hindoo [illegible] not.

—A Chicago paper contains an editorial notice of a camp meeting held near that city, in which he writes of Bishop Simpson, that he preached a sermon (on Sunday) of wonderful power and eloquence. Never will the audience forget it—they never can. It was one of life's events to have heard that sermon. We expect the day of eternity to disclose the fact that many were led to forsake sins.

—The Journal of Bishop Asbury contains the following picture of himself and colleague:

"My flesh sinks under labor. We are riding in a poor thirty dollar chaise; in partnership—two Bishops of us; but it must be confessed it tallies well with the weight of our purses. What Bishops! Well, we have great news and we have great times; and each Western, Southern, together with the Virginia Conference, will have a thousand souls truly converted to God. Is not this an equivalent for a light purse? And are we not paid for starving and toil? Yes, Glory to God!"

—It is reported that from 30,000 to 35,000 conversions occurred during the revival in Wales last year.

—The efforts of the Mennonites to increased activity and a closer union with other churches, should attract the attention of Christian denominations. A General Conference was held recently at West Point, Iowa, which recommended the Missionary cause to the members of the denomination. Two missionaries were appointed —one for the East and one for the West. A Theological School is soon to be established.

—The First United Presbyterian Synod of the West will meet in the 1st U. P. Church, Seventh street, on the 4th Tuesday of this month (25th) at 7 p. m., to be opened with a sermon by Rev. J. B. Johnston, Moderator—Rev. M. H. Wilson, alternate.

—The mission established ten years ago in Corisco, by the Presbyterian Board, according to recent accounts, is in a prosperous condition. The Macedonian says that scores of the young men and women on that island can now read and understand the word of God. The great mass of the people have acquired some knowledge of the way of salvation, and a large number of them, especially during the past year, have been brought to embrace Jesus Christ as their Savior. The mission work of this denomination is also prospering on the main land of Western Africa.

—The Liberian Government made a grant of one hundred acres of land for the use of the Lutheran mission under the direction of Rev. M. Officer, the Superintendent of the Lutheran Missions in Africa.

—The American Presbyterian has the following:

"The great number of fragmentary bodies into which the Presbyterian family is divided, and the seeming tendency to division and subdivision, have long been matters of reproach in the eyes of those disaffected toward us."

—The regular monthly meeting of the United Methodist Sunday School Society of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, was held in the Birmingham M. E. Church on Thursday evening, the 6th inst. Subject of discussion—"What means should be employed to induce the larger scholars to remain in our Sabbath Schools."—Next meeting to be held in Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, first Thursday evening of October.

—According to Dr. Bellows' views, certain phases of infidelity do not debar the possessor from the enjoyments of heaven. He says:

"Let me add that, in my judgment, people may go over the precipice of infidelity, in the usual sense of that word, without being necessarily false to conscience, and may not accept the conditions of salvation offered in the Gospel, and still be saved, as devout heathen are. It is the normal, not the exceptional influence of infidelity that makes it an object of alarm."

—It is proposed at the session of the General Conference of the Wesleyan Convention, to be held next month, to enact a more stringent rule forbidding its members to join or hold fellowship with secret oath-bound societies.

—The daily prayer meeting at Fulton street, New York, is going on with unabated interest. The consistory are enlarging the room so as to accommodate a greater number.

—The Synod of the German Reformed Church in the United States will meet in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, sometime next month.

—The Hon. and Rev. Baptist Noel, of England, was announced to preach in a saloon at Hambourg recently, and a large assemblage had convened, when notice was given by the Government that the service could not be held. Hambourg is one of the German watering places in which the gaming tables are officially sanctioned by Government.

—It is reported that the Papal court refuses canonical institution to Mgr Maret, the Emperor's nomination to the See of Vannes, because of his Gallician opinions.

—A number of prominent citizens of Cincinnati have united to promote a more faithful observance of the Sabbath in that city. One method is to circulate tracts or "documents" on the subject. Document No. 1 is entitled: The Sabbath, as a civil institution necessary to the well being of man.

"The forthcoming number of the Evangelical Review, for October, in its review of Dr. Krauth's sermon on 'Christian Liberty,' draws a gloomy picture of the present position of the Lutheran Church in the United States. There is a great want of harmony between the natives of different countries."

—At a second midnight meeting of the fallen, held in London, Rev. Mr. Noel delivered an address. In the course of his remarks he drew from his pocket a daguerreotype likeness, saying: "To-day I have received this likeness from a mother, begging me to search for her lost daughter." In an instant, like an electric flash, says the Teachers' Journal, the whole assembly was moved. Scenes of childhood, pictures of happy days, images of maternal faces rushed into their memories, and the flood-gate of tears were opened.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP, OR PROTECTED Solution of Protoxide of Iron COMBINED.

THIS PREPARATION DIFFERS FROM all others, being an unchangeable protoxide of Iron, attained by a combination never before known.

For Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Dropsies, Boils, all forms of disease caused by impoverishment of the blood, general debility, and especially the diseases peculiar to females, it has been found extremely efficacious.

Pamphlets, giving a full description of the remedy and the remarkable cures it has effected, may be obtained of the agents.

[Certificate of Dr. Hayes.]

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost even by a brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point has been attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the pro-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

It is also eminently adapted to take the place of any Protoxide of Iron, which physicians have used in scurvy or scorbutic attacks, and to meet such cases the Syrup should be found in the medicine chest of every ship.

A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
Assayist to the State of Massachusetts.

16 Boylston street.

A CARD.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

From our own experience, as well as from the testimony of others, whose intelligence and integrity are altogether unquestionable, we have no doubt of its efficacy in cases of Incipient Diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial Passages, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Neuralgia, etc. Indeed its effects would be incredible but from the high character of those who witnessed them, and have volunteered their testimony, as we do ours, to its restorative power.

There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls, and broken cradles. This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-makers' Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.

DR. HANBURY SMITH'S CELEBRATED KISSINGER WATER RAKOCZI BRUNNEN, From the Carlsbad Spa, Cincinnati, Ohio.

This celebrated water very much resembles that of the Congress Spring at Saratoga, but is about one-third stronger. It presents a happy combination of gently purgative, depurative, alterative and tonic salts, and is especially indicated in all forms of dyspepsia, constipation, congestion of the liver and spleen, cutaneous disorders, and the sterility depending upon them.

It should be taken at the temperature of spring water and not ice cold; half a bottle full at a time every 15 or 20 minutes, at least half an hour before breakfast.

For sale by JOS. FLEMING, Corner of Market street and the Diamond.
