DEPARTURE OF TROOPS.

Rendezvous on the East Common—Flag Presentation—Scenes at the Depot—Departure of the Trains, etc.

Pursuant to orders given by Brig. Gen. Negley, the companies composing the Second Regiment of Western Pennsylvania Volunteers, and the Battalion under Col. Rowley, assembled yesterday morning, between seven and eight o'clock, on the East Common, Allegheny. The marshaling of the forces there created intense interest, and was witnessed by thousands of men, women and children, all of whom exhibited the greatest enthusiasm, greeting the gallant volunteers by the waving of flags and handkerchiefs, and with loud huzzas and cheers.

Eleven companies only were on parade—one of the number, the Lawrence Guards, having a double complement, 170 men—and we must say that, considering the limited time allowed them for drill, and the fact that several companies were not informed, they presented a very soldierly appearance, and were universally admired for their fine bearing and excellent demeanor.

After the companies had taken their position, they formed in battle line, and took up their march for the residence of Wm. Bagaley, Esq., on Western avenue. Thus far the day had proved pleasant and agreeable, but the lowering clouds suddenly burst, and the rain poured down in torrents—the troops being compelled to march through a heavy shower for the distance of almost half a mile, and when they arrived at the house of Mr. Bagaley they were thoroughly drenched, although in excellent spirits.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

At the residence of Mr. Bagaley, an interesting scene was witnessed. Mrs. B., aided by a number of lady friends, having prepared a beautiful flag for presentation to the Zouave Cadets, Hon. Robt. McKnight was selected to make the presentation speech, which he did in the following language:

Soldiers of the Second Regiment of Negley's Battalion! As the honored organ of the ladies of Allegheny, it gives me pleasure to present to you in their name, this flag, and to say that they have an abiding confidence in your courage to defend it, and your fidelity to rally around it so long as one brave heart and stout arm remains in your ranks. They offer you no rattlesnake flag, to signify that you could ever sting the bosom which had warmed—you into being, but the glorious Star-Spangled Banner, an emblematic of the hitherto, unstained honor of our common country; so clustering with the hallowed memories of the past; consecrated by the blood and triumphs of our sires; so loved and cherished by our immortal Washington. Soldiers, they present it to you for no holiday pastime, no mere cross parade; but to wave over you on the tented field, and in the deadly conflict in which you may so soon be engaged in defence of all you hold dear on earth, and against men whom passion has transformed from brethen into traitors and rebels. They doubt not, you will crowd around it

"Where death shock fall thick and fast,
Like lightnings from the mountain cloud."

At such a time, remember the fair donors; that their wishes, hopes and prayers follow you, while they await with impatient expectancy for tidings of your gallant bearing and glorious triumph. And although when, on your return, you next unfurl this flag before them, they behold it stained with the dust of battle, and perhaps disorganized with gore, right sure are they that it will not be rolled by cowardice or dishonor. Take it, defend it, cherish it, and under its folds

"Let all the ends you aim at
Be your country, your God's and truth's;
Then if you fall, you will fall
Blessed martyrs."

But our united prayer is that God, in his providence, may speedily restore you in safety to your homes and your families, with the proud eagle of victory perched upon your standard.

The beautiful flag was then transferred to the hands of Captain R. Riddle Roberts, who made a brief response, to the effect that it was no time for speech-making, as they were on the march to do the rendezvous. But their deep emotion was best shown by their throbbing hearts and tearful eyes. In life or death they would ever cherish the memory of this occasion, and would never disgrace their noble flag.

IN ROUTE TO THE DEPOT.

The presentation being over, the order was given to march, and the troops turned their faces eastward, proceeding with all possible haste to the depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad in this city, crossing by way of the Suspension bridge. The rain still continued to pour down upon them, but notwithstanding this they were everywhere greeted with cheers and demonstrations of joy. They marched along St. Clair street to Market, up Market to Fifth, up Fifth to Smithfield, along Smithfield to Liberty, and up Liberty to the depot, where many indescribable scenes were witnessed.

Three special trains were provided for the transport of the volunteers, consisting in all of twenty-four cars. The following are the names of the companies:

OF THE REGIMENT.
Jackson Blues, Capt McKee	77 muskets.
Duquesne Greys, Capt. Kennedy	81 "
Washington Infantry, Capt. Morris	90 "
U. S. Zouave Cadets, Capt. Roberts	90 "
Pittsburgh Legion, Capt. Stewart	80 "
Washington Infantry, Capt. McGiffin	80 "
Lawrence Guards, Capt. Lemon	170 "
The City Guards, Capt. Hays, were permitted to remain until to-morrow.
The other two companies belonging to the Second Regiment left for Harrisburg several days ago.
OF THE BATTALION.
Washington Infantry, Co. B, Capt. McFarland	60 rifles.
Fort Pitt Guards, Capt. Charlton	76 "
Union Guards, Capt. Tomlinson	80 "
Union Cadets, Capt. Patterson	70 muskets.
Butler Blues, Capt. L. S. Parviance	70 "
Monongahela Artillery, Capt. Cooper	80 "

The Battalion is under command of Maj. Rowley, late Captain of the Washington Infantry.

The Monongahela Artillery go as an infantry company.

Company B, Duquesne Grays, were permitted to remain until Friday next, when they have their orders to leave.

General Negley and Staff were also among those who left for the east of war. The whole detachment consisted of about 1,200 men.

SCENES AT THE DEPOT.

The parting scenes at the depot exhibited the patriotic feeling of our people, and were at the same time truly affecting. Stout-hearted men, unused to weep, could not restrain their tears as they held their friends and acquaintances by the hand and pronounced the "farewell." The ladies, at least such of them as had friends on the train, were deeply affected, and while the quivering lip pronounced the sad adieu, the gushing tears spoke the anguish of the heart.

The gallant soldiers were amply provided with provisions by the ladies, who had secured (heaven bless them!) immense quantities of crackers, cheese, dried beef and other articles, easily carried, and so refreshing to the hungry traveler. All were loaded down with eatables, and none will suffer hunger on the way.

A denser mass of human beings perhaps never concentrated in this city. The trains moved off at twenty minutes past eleven, followed by the shouts of the assembled thousands, and the prayers and benedictions of many a father, mother, brother and sister. It was a scene long to be remembered by our citizens, and will only be equalled by that which we fondly hope to see—the safe return of our gallant volunteers.

Presentations.

Col. David Campbell, of the Second Regiment, than whom there is no more deserving officer in Western Pennsylvania, has been most liberally dealt with by his friends. R. H. Patterson, esq., presented him with a fine spirited horse; Mr. R. H. Hartley an elegant saddle, and accoutrements; Mr. Wm. Bagaley an elegant sword and hangings.

Yesterday afternoon a flag, made by the ladies of the Seventh and Eighth Wards, was presented to the Fort Pitt Guards, Capt. Charlton, on Van Braam street. E. P. Jones, esq., made the presentation address, and Hon. P. C. Shannon responded for the recipients.

Mrs. Mary A. Barker, of Wayne street, widow of a gallant member of the Duquesne Greys, assisted by a number of ladies from Manchester, prepared a box of bandages and lint, and presented it to the Duquesne Greys.

Allegheny City Appropriates $5,000.

At a meeting of Allegheny Councils, held Tuesday evening, several propositions were made for providing for the wants of the families of volunteers, and also for securing active measures for repelling invasion. The subject was discussed at considerable length, and the following resolution was finally adopted:

Resolved, That five thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated to the relief fund of the Committee of General Public Safety, and that the Mayor be and is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the same.

MAYOR TRUNY, of Allegheny, Tuesday evening administered the oath of allegiance to a company of volunteers at Hemmings & Graff's shovel factory. The company is composed of men, employees in the factory. They are intended for either home or foreign service, as the Government may see proper to use them.

Painful Occurrence—Man Accidentally Shot.

The Harrisburg Patriot and Union of yesterday, gives the following in reference to the accidental shooting of a volunteer mentioned in yesterday Gazette:

About 10 o'clock a. m. yesterday, Robert M'Call, of the town of Chester, in Delaware county, was in the company of Lieut. William Blakely, of the Union Blues, in front of the Jones House. The subject of conversation turning upon revolvers, Lieut. Blakely drew out his, and while showing to Mr. M'Call it went off, the contents of the barrel entering the right breast of the latter. He was removed to the parlor, where he died in less than an hour. The Lieutenant was so seriously prostrated by the accident that fears for his life were entertained, and it is feared now that he is hopelessly insane. The parties were fast friends.

Mr. M'Call was about twenty-seven years of age, and one of the finest looking men we ever saw. He came from Philadelphia this morning for the express purpose of bidding his numerous friends good-bye. His accidental death caused the most profound sorrow among the Union Blues, all of whom knew him and esteemed him. His remains will be taken home.

This should serve as a warning to all who carry loaded revolvers about their persons, for which there is really no existing necessity here. Several companies armed with weapons of this kind, discharged them immediately after the accident.

Firemen's Home Guard.

An adjourned meeting of this association was held Tuesday evening, at the rooms of the Firemen's Association. The object of the organization is to form a Firemen's Guard, for home protection or active service, as may be required. The civil organization was effected by election of J. P. Torley as President and J. A. Robinson Secretary. An election for Captain resulted in the choice (unanimously) of A. W. Gazzam, Esq. R. Johnston, John P. Torley and John Sunday were chosen delegates to a meeting called for Thursday evening, for the purpose of forming a battalion of Firemen's Home Guard. A committee of six, to report on uniform, equipments, &c., at next meeting was appointed, consisting of John P. Torley, A. W. Gazzam, Robert Johnston, Hastings and Joseph Schwer. The company will drill in the third story over Jas. Robb's shoe store, Market street. The roll, at the opening of the meeting had twenty-seven names attached, but in the end now much increased at the close. The company will be composed of the most stalwart men in the city, and will doubtless do good service if called into the field.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT—CHILD KILLED.—A shocking accident occurred in the Fifth ward, on Tuesday evening, by which a little girl named Lizzie Waugh was instantly killed. It appears that the School on Pike street had just been dismissed, about four o'clock, and a train of coal cars was backing out from the Allegheny Valley road. As the rear of the train passed in front of the school house on the corner of Walnut street, the little girl, who was about six years of age, attempted to run across before it. She was knocked down on the rail, and before the train could be checked, the wheels of several cars had passed over her, literally cutting the body into pieces. The scattered remains were collected and removed to the residence of her mother, a widow, on Mulberry alley, above Walout. An inquest was held by Coroner Bostwick this morning, and the jury rendered the following verdict: that the deceased came to her death, on the 23d of April, on the Fifth ward, of the city of Pittsburgh, by being run over by a train of three coal cars, in charge of John Jackson, conductor, and John Easler, engineer, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and that said Jackson and Easler are not chargeable with any carelessness or negligence of duty; that the management of the road are censurable for causing the train to back out contrary to city ordinance, and not causing a bell to be rung on the front car so backing out."

Excitement at the Kanawha Oil Region.

We learn by a private letter just received from Burning Springs, Va., that the Secession sentiment is creating considerable stir in the Kanawha oil region. There has been quite a stampede of northern men from that vicinity. The Bathbone's have closed up all their walls, and numerous others have done likewise. The prevailing opinion is that northern men will stand little chance after the secession feeling is fully aroused, and that the proclivities of the rebels for the seizure of the property of northern men, will hasten the issue. Many of our citizens are largely interested in the oil business there, and we should not be surprised if their investment would prove utterly profitless.

Pleasing Incident.

An interesting incident occurred at Washington, Pa., the other day, on the occasion of the departure of the "Invincibles" for this city, which shows how perfectly past differences and enmities, political and personal, are buried in the hour of our present danger. At the conclusion of a speech by the Hon. Wm. Montgomery, and whilst returning to his seat, the venerable Dr. Wallace, between whom and Mr. M. a bitter enmity had existed for years, stepped forward and cordially grasping his by the hand, congratulated him on the patriotic sentiments he had uttered, and desired that all differences heretofore existing between them should be sunk forever.

The Banks Appropriate $30,000.

We learn that our banks have agreed to appropriate $30,000 for the purpose of arming the city and county, and preparing for any defense which it may be found necessary to make. The announcement has not yet been made in an official shape, but the measure has already been decided upon. The banks in Allegheny will also contribute liberally to the same object.

The citizens of Mansfield and vicinity met at National Hall, Mansfield, on Saturday evening, April 20, and organized themselves into an association to be called the "Rich Valley Home Guards." Over one hundred persons enrolled their names, and took the oath of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and State of Pennsylvania. The following persons were elected permanent officers: President, C. B Brown; Vice President, Jas B Glenn; Secretary, D J Rogers; Treasurer, J S Marshall. Military, J E Brown; 1st Lieut, Dr J P Webb; 2d Lieut, Jas W Sea; Brevet 2d Lieut, Dr C Robb; Orderly Sergeant, W. M Duncan. The company meets regularly for drill.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning a young man name William Finler, employed on the steamer S. C. Baker, met with a horrible accident at Wheeling, which resulted in his instant death. The Baker was landing along side the Albemarle, and young Finler ran back to the stern of the latter boat to do what he could in shoving the Baker out, but whilst doing so he slipped and fell, the crank attached to the shaft of the revolving wheel striking him upon the head and tearing his whole face and forehead off, and crushing the head in a terrible manner. He died almost instantly. The deceased lived at Economy, in Beaver county, Pa.

A GOOD WORK.—We dropped in at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, yesterday, and found a large company of kind hearted ladies busily engaged in making shirts, bandages, compresses, and the numerous items of comfort which go to make up a soldier's outfit or a surgeon's chest. They have several large cases packed ready for shipment to our regiments, and are in need of more material, such as red or grey flannel, crash for towels, hose handkerchiefs, etc. We trust that our liberal dealers and citizens will keep the ladies supplied with an abundance of material, that they may be able to contribute largely to the comfort of our brave volunteers. God bless both ladies and soldiers!

MEETING AT BRADY'S BEND.—A meeting was held in Brady's Bend on the 22d inst. Every citizen in the place, irrespective of party, turned out to respond to a call of only twelve hours' notice, to rally for the Union and Constitution. Eloquent and able speeches were made by Messrs. Morrison, Jenkins, Wilson, etc. General Brown said a host of others. Some fifty men were enrolled at once, and the ranks are rapidly filling up. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

A LUCKY OIL STRIKE.—The Central Oil Company, composed of Messrs. Bittner, Norman, Reyburn, Forsythe and Ramsey, have made a splendid strike at Mecca, Ohio. They commenced pumping on Friday last, and in forty hours they brought up thirty barrels of oil. The oil is very superior to, and the well is second to none in the Mecca region.

THE WAYNE RIFLES organized last evening by the appointment of Daniel Armstrong, Esq., as President, and M. W. Lewis, Secretary. Some forty members were in attendance, and adjourned to meet on Friday, at the Duquesne Armory, when a military organization will be effected.

A NEW company is now organising at the Plumer Saxonburg, under command of Major Alexander Hay, a veteran of the Mexican war. Major Hay expects to have his company full in a few days and have them drilled and equipped at an early day. His Head quarters is in the Custom House, third story.

RUN OVER AND KILLED.—An elderly man, named John Myers, who worked at the shoemaking business, was run over and instantly killed by the down train of the C. & P. Railroad, at 9 35 A. M., on Monday, while walking on the track a short distance above the city. Mr. Myers was very deaf.

SIXTH WARD HOME GUARDS.—The meeting separated, Tuesday, into three companies. A company was organized with 74 men—J. R. Hunter, Captain; S. F. Cluly, First Lieutenant; Wm. Culp, Second Lieutenant; C. McGee, Third Lieutenant.

MILL BURNED.—On Friday night last, the steam grist mill of William Stewart, near Library post office, Snowden township, was destroyed by fire. It was supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Loss between $4,000 and $5,000; insured for $2,000.

THE LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

RECEIVED AT THE DAILY GAZETTE OFFICE.

PRIVATE despatches to Philadelphia, state that there were, on the 23d, 14000 troops in Washington city, including 5000 regulars.

ANNAPOLIS, April 24.—The Government are now in possession of the Annapolis Railroad to the junction, and also of the road to Washington. The danger to the road was slight and easily repaired. A train of cars has already passed over it. Baltimore remains quiet.

Interesting from California.

FORT KEARNEY, April 24.—The Pony Express passed at 12 30 P. M.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—There is but little State news since the last Express.

The Legislature has been considering the Catholic School Bill, which proposes to divide the public school monies of the State, allowing the Catholics to use a portion to establish separate schools of their own, on the ground that the present system is essentially protestant. One hundred and forty thousand petitions for such a law, and the bill is very warmly advocated, but can hardly pass.—The prospect is that this question is to assume much importance in our State politics.

The last Pony Express dates of April 1st, brings accounts of the secession movements in New Mexico and Arizona. Considerable stir is also felt in these adjoining Territories, and if the Government makes an effort to maintain authority over them, plenty of volunteers of extreme political views favorable to each section of the Union, will be ready to emigrate South, and participate in the chances for another Kansas turmoil.

The Supreme Court has decided the act changing the trial of Horace Smith, for murdering the proper Naval, from San Francisco to Pierce county, to be constitutional. So the accused will be allowed virtually to choose his own judge and jury.

Oregon dates received per steamer, are to the 8th inst., and Victoria date to the 4th.

The Oregon papers are filled with exciting accounts from the Nez Perce gold mines, where, it is said, there is room for 5,000 miners, to make from $3 to $20 per day. About 600 men have passed through Portland, this season, for these mines.

The papers express much indignation because Congress cut down the Oregon war claim from $6,000,000 to less than $3 000,000.—

There is nothing of importance from Washington Territory.

INDIANOPOLIS, April 24.—An extra session of the Legislature was convened to-day. The old officers resigned, and new ones were elected without regard to party lines. C. M. Allen, Republican Speaker of the House; H. Clark, Democrat, Chief Clerk. Indiana recognizes no party; she is a unit for the Union. After the organization, the "Star Spangled Banner," "The Red White and Blue," and "The Union Forever," were sung, and the House adjourned and marched headed by a band to Camp Morton, to listen to an address to the soldiers by Hon. S. A. Douglas. A sufficient number of companies have been offered to form ten additional regiments. Indiana can send to the field within one month, 50,000 men. The Assembly will place the State on a war footing for the present, and establish a reserve guard of 10,000 men.

A report was circulated to day that the wells at Camp Morton were poisoned; it is entirely false.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 24.—A gentleman has passed through from Baltimore, which he left early this morning. The utmost reliance can be placed on the following information, supplied by him. He states that Fort McHenry has been certainly reinforced by 600 men. The Baltimoreans had planted cannon on the road to the fort, but the commander required its removal, and this was complied with; cannon pointed against another side of the fort was also removed. It is stated that an agreement had been entered into between the authorities of Baltimore and the government, for rebuilding the bridges at the expense of Baltimore, and the road is to be in running order again in ten days. There was no report of the capture of Fort Pickens at Baltimore yesterday.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 24.—Fugitives from Baltimore that left last evening report all quiet there, but the calm resembles that which precedes a storm. Extras were published containing the reported capture of Fort Pickens but there were great doubts about it.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—The reports that troops had been stationed at Cairo to control river commerce, is denied on the authority of Gov. Yates, of Illinois. Troops were left there as a mere precautionary measure.

A large Union peace meeting was held in Jefferson city last night, and was addressed by ex-Governor Stewart and Gen. Bayet. The resolutions recently passed at Louisville were passed unanimously. Also resolutions instructing delegates to the State Convention to support the principles of the measures expressed in the same.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Lieutenant Merchant and Surgeon Brewer, of the United States Army, have resigned.

Gen Harney left for Washington to-night.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—The enlistment of volunteers has progressed rapidly within the past two days, and there is about 2 500 men in the Arsenal grounds subject to the orders of the Secretary of War. MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO FLOUR AND GRAIN MARKET, April 22.—The state of our corndox still tends to restrict business. Foreign advices are more favorable to the interest in produce or provisions, and the price of nearly every article had an upward tendency—or rather the value of currency tended strongly downwards. There was a good inquiry for Flour, but the offerings were universally light, and the market firm at $4 75@5 00 for choice to good spring extras, with sales of about 4,000 bbls. Choice brands were generally held at $5.25. Wheat was also firm, and prices ruled a shade higher; but there were few sellers, and the transactions were limited at 91½c for No 1 Spring, and 89@90c for No 2 Spring—in storage—the price varying according to the size of the checkpad.

There was an active demand for Mess Pork, and the market was firm, with sales of about 800 bbls at $12 for early packed Mess, $12 for nicely packed Mess, and $12 for Clear Pork. Lard is firm and nominal at 10@11c—cfrib.
