MICHIGAN.—The local elections held this week, show that the State is thoroughly Republican and decidedly Radical.

THE Cleveland Herald is mistaken in supposing ben GEARY to be placed in an uncomfortable dilemma. Wait and see.

STATE SENATE.—In the 26th District Col M S QUAY and J R KELTON, Esqs., both members of the present House, are spoken of in connection with the Republican nomination for Senator, to succeed the Hon WM HOPKINS, whose term of service expires with the present session.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.—Gen BURNSIDE's election as Governor of Rhode Island is not only highly gratifying in itself, but in the circumstances attending. Very little opposition was made to him. It was so certain from the start what the end would be, that neither the Democrats nor the Republican sustainers of the President ventured to make a determined assault upon him.

PRESIDENTIAL UTTERANCES.—During the canvass in Congressional Mr HOGAN, of Missouri, made a speech at a Democratic meeting, in which he said:

"Mr Johnson will understand the position of affairs in the State, as I have stated, and he is strongly with the men who support him. One week ago, he sat in his own room, he said to me in manly words: 'English maintains my principle and supports my policy, and I stand by him.' Gen. Hawley does not sustain my policy, and he is not my friend."

OUTGOING SENATORS.—With the adjournment of the Legislature on next Thursday, the terms of seven Republican and four Democratic Senators will expire. The list is as follows:

1. Jeremiah Nichols, Union, Philadelphia
3. William Worthington, Union, of Berks
6. H B Beatty, Rep., Allegheny
15. D R Montgomery, Dem., of Northumberland
16. David Fleming, Union, of Dauphin
17. Benjamin Champneys, Union, of Lancaster
20. J. M. Dunlap, Union, of Franklin
26. Geo. W. Hendrickson, Union, of Bedford
24. John Latta, Dem., of Westmoreland
26. Wm Hopkins, Dem., of West Selinsgrove
28. Thos Hoge, Union, of Venango

THE RICHMOND CELEBRATION.—Notwithstanding the action of the Legislature of Virginia, the negroes of Richmond celebrate the anniversary of their liberation and gave utterance to their joy in a shout that fell that then overtook the Confederacy. It speaks well for the blacks that they had the nerve to undertake the celebration in the face of the united opposition of the whites, and it demonstrates the folly of the idea that a race so low in the scale of intelligence they would be the equal of the whites.

Irresponsible Counterfeiters
One of the most serious annoyances which the proprietors of an article in unusual demand have to encounter is the piratical imitation of it by parties equally unscrupulous and irresponsible. If an individual or a firm with means engages in this nefarious business, the damages awarded by a court of justice for the offense are collectable, and it is some satisfaction to the party wronged that the wrong done is made to suffer, but in most cases the pirates are men of straws, who cannot respond in damages to the law's award.

Stomach Bitters being a Standard Preparation, is extensively counterfeited, and representing the value as represents the amount expended on its face, has been extensively compassed on its face, but the proprietors have detected and simulated. Stars in hunting up spent many thousand dollars in individuals and firms who have given their minds to this dirty work. Those parties—some of them at least—have a way of changing their business, though they never change their business. When an injunction is laid upon them in one part of the country they sometimes "vamose" to another, and try the trick again. In some cases it is necessary to kill them two or three times over. Perhaps the best thing that can be done under these circumstances is to "lay an injunction" upon all who use the Bitters to buy only of dealers whom they can trust. In every city, town and village in the United States and British America this pernicious traffic, alterative and protective measures may be procured of reliable men of business.

The following is the address of the Queen to the Parliament:

Napoleon has received the address of the Legislative Body. His opinion upon the address is not yet known. It is certain that the Government will not be beaten, and it seems to be the opinion of the majority of the Legislative Body that the Government should be sustained. The Government is said to be determined to carry out its policy, which may be construed into a menace to Prussia, and to Europe.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says: "Rumors of a change of a new words. He believed upon the question as purely a legal one. This bill is a very dangerous one. I have no other word for it than atrocity. It is, and so it will be handed down to the last generation, if we pass it.

Mr Stewart said he had voted for the bill and would do so again.

Mr Trumbull said if had been proposed to take a vote at five o'clock in the afternoon Mr Guthrie said it was impossible to get the sick senators, and asked further postponement.

Mr Wade objected. The President was paying the part of a dictator. He was forming the Invasion of what the Almighty had put into their hands.

Mr Doolittle criticised Mr Wade's theology.

Before adjourning a motion to postpone the vote on the question of passing the bill over the veto was debated by Mr Wade, who opposed the postponement and others.

The Senate adjourned to a vote of 6 to 5 on the veto message up again tomorrow.

HOUSE.

The morning hour was occupied in the consideration of the reports of the Committee on Military Affairs. A considerable amount of miscellaneous matter from that committee was disposed of, including the passage of the bill giving three months pay proper, allowed to the army officers who should continue in the service until the close of the war, to subalterns or assigned or were mustered out of their own regiment, after the 13th of April, 1865. The War Department had construed the law as not covering such cases.

Mr Stevens made a report from the committee on Ways and Means, in relation to the issue of fractional currency. The only matter of public interest that is left to come to the engine is the bill to provide for the Superintendent of Government Printing.
