CITY ITEMS.

Pittsburgh Grand Concert

We have been [illegible] to abandon the idea of having a public drawing in distributing our Gifts. We are [illegible] with regret if we should persist in this [illegible] We were compelled, therefore, to place the drawing in the hands of a few disinterested and respectable gentlemen of the city, and in any way last conducted it where they would not violate the laws of this State and subject themselves to arrest. The Committee have agreed to make a public statement when the gifts are distributed, which we [illegible] are all concerned that important [illegible] The musical entertainment [illegible] evening, July 30th, '66, in connection with this enterprise, must suffer. All person holding tickets whose numbers appear in this list, should forward the same to our address immediately, as we desire to distribute all the valuable gifts this week. Our office is closed for the present in order to prevent the confusion arising from the rush of ticket holders. We will deal fairly with all. But ticket holders must have patience. We prefer to distribute gifts by express and mail. Persons drawing gifts of Real Estate, will be notified where to meet us to have deeds made out.

Several errors appeared in yesterday's Leader, which are corrected to-day.
