BUSINESS CHANGES.

DISSOLUTION.

THE COPARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of D. FAWCETT & CO., in the "Oregon Brewery," was dissolved by mutual consent on the twelfth day of January. The business of the firm will be settled at the brewery by DAVID BUTLER, Jr., who is the party authorized to use the name of the firm to wind up the business. D. FAWCETT,
Pittsburgh, January 14, 1867. JOSEPH E. HAIGH.

Having sold our entire Brewery, Malting and Hop Business to Messrs. PIER, DANNALS & CO., we would respectfully solicit a continuance of the so liberally bestowed upon us during the number of years we were in the business. We have no hesitation in recommending the new firm, as from long experience in the business we have no doubt but they will maintain the excellence of our ale.
D. FAWCETT & CO.

Referring to the above, we would inform the public that we shall endeavor to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage extended by the late firm of D. Fawcett & Co., and in order to secure to the business, can safely say that we will be able to give entire satisfaction to those who may favor us with their orders.
PIER, DANNALS & CO.

New Books

GARDENING FOR PROFIT: a Guide to the successful cultivation of the Market and Family Garden. Illustrated. By Peter Henderson. New York: Orange Judd & Co., 41 Park Row. Pittsburgh: for sale by John Kness, 47 Liberty street.
This book is the result of the long work-ing experience in gardening, and gives abundant directions, commencing with the selection of suitable land, all the way up to the production of all the kinds of vegetables, both in the open air and by the forcing processes.
THE AMERICAN HORTICULTURAL MANUAL. Illustrated. New York: Orange Judd & Co., 41 Park Row. Pittsburgh: for sale by John Kness, 47 Liberty street.
Here is a calendar for each month, with specific directions for the management of fruit garden, kitchen garden, flower garden and house plants. Then follows a hundred or more pages of information about fruits of all description.
SCHOOL DAYS. Compiled by Alexander Clark, A. M. Philadelphia: G. W. Chegaray & Co.
Mr. Clark is now pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city. The book is a compilation, from original sources, of illustrations for use in schools. The materials were obtained in response to a liberal offer from the publisher, who intends to issue the school annual. The dialogues submitted are the best out of a number of hundred received, and the editor seems to have exercised great care both in selecting and compiling.
DIRECTORY FIRST METHODIST CHURCH, Pittsburgh, Pa.
It shows the organization of the Church from the beginning, and contains a full list of the present membership.

Played Out Wells.

The Oil City Register gives a history of the abandoned oil wells in the Venango region and concludes as follows: These are mostly lingly the failures. But they are no more numerous than the deserted claims of the gold diggings on the Pacific side on our continent were during the first few years of their development. In both cases, by the wise natural laws of compensation, stand out in bright relief the successes. A few number of failures to obtain good producing wells have occurred during the present fledgling season than any previous one. With remunerative prices many of these deserted oil wells will be thoroughly cleaned out, and by the application of greater skill and more fitting machinery be made thrifty producers. In many localities this experiment has been tried, and the result proves to be highly satisfactory. With the adoption of the petroleum product to other uses besides illuminating, and a demand created therefor equal to the supply, these wells will be in demand. The land owners are now profiting by the leases they can get hold of already, and in a short time, we predict that deserted oil wells will be few and far between. For we are well satisfied that with the proper application of improved mechanical appliances, four-fifths of the deserted wells could be made to pay handsomely, thus proving that the vast expenditures of labor and money upon their creation was not wholly in vain, and will benefit somebody.

Furnace Accident.

The Allentown Evening Dispatch of Friday says: Last night at about eleven o'clock a painful accident occurred at furnace number one, of the Eliza Furnace Company, in the First Ward. While the men were engaged in casting "pigs" the molten iron in the furnace broke through the side of the furnace, and before the hands in the immediate vicinity could get out of harm's way, a quantity of the fluid metal came upon John Sorfas—had most of his clothing burnt from his body and was badly injured, while Philip Kaegly was considerably burnt about the lower part of his person. Michael McBride, in endeavoring to escape from the boiling flood, had the misfortune to fall down, and was so much overcome by the heat as to render him for a long time insensible.

Feslie.

Undoubtedly one of the best, if not the very best places in this city where one can feast and recuperate the corporal portion of exhausted humanity, is at Frieker's dining saloon, No. 25 St. Clair street. The most sumptuous fare imaginable is to be found at any and all times at this festive place. A hasty plate of soup for the hurried business man or customer, a beefsteak or more than a dozen oysterpiece, or a supper fit for a duke can be gotten up with equal promptitude and almost with equal dispatch. Game in all shapes, and delicacies in all oysters so luscious that they would tempt the parsal epicures from all their old time fastidiousness, are there, everything that is palatable and tempting, gotten up in such a style that look beside himself with bewildered ecstasy, are prominent. Satisfaction, avaunt! Look at Frieker's, go there.

An Episode.

The following is from the Zanesville Times: Among the marriages occurring in this city last week was one of a highly respectable young woman to an individual who was a contraband, and at the beginning of the war a slave, with traits indicative of his having, to all appearance, no negro blood in his veins. A curious history no doubt might be traced in this man's birth and parentage, but it would be an even more moving but one of the thousand romances of the war.

Governor Geary's Appointments.

Governor Geary on Saturday, made the following Philadelphia appointments:
Harbor Master—George J. Weaver.
Deputy Harbor Master—Major A. R. Calhoun.
Weather Inspector—Major H. Biddle.
Bark Inspector—Dr. Thos. S. Reed.
Pilot Commissioners and Measurers—Northern district, Lieut. N. Taylor; southern district, George W. Schaffer.
Superintendent of Powder Magazine—Parkhurst McLaughlin.

Recovering.—Henry Streng, the gentleman in Allegheny who was shot and so nearly killed by his wife some time since by his solicitation, Jacob Ballzeiner, is slowly recovering from the effects of the desperate wound he received at the hands of his assailant. He is now considered out of danger and will be able to move about shortly. The daughter, Ballzeiner's wife, has entirely recovered from her slight injuries, so that Ballzeiner's desperation is likely to result seriously to only himself. The immediate cause of his action is involved in as much mystery as ever. His motives will probably be made apparent at the trial.

The Galaxy.—From Pittock, opposite the Postoffice, we have received "The Galaxy" for February 1st. This is a remarkably good number, being one of the best of this fresh and sparkling fortnightly that has appeared. Pittock also sent us Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie for last Saturday. Every periodical worth having, all the leading daily and weekly papers, and almost everything else that a well regulated mind desires, can be obtained at Pittock's.

All Found.—The horses and mules stolen a few nights since at Doysville and Sewickley have all been recovered, some of them having returned of themselves to the stables of their owners. They all seem to have been turned loose in Allegheny, their captors apparently becoming frightened at the undertaking they had on hand. No trace of the thieves has yet been found.

A Needed Invention.—Thomas D. Hall has invented a railroad switch that should have the attention of railroad men. By a very simple arrangement of an electric current rings a bell continuously whenever the switch is moved from connection with the main line, thus sounding a warning, not only to the wide-awake, but to all within hearing.

An Accident.—At about ten o'clock on Saturday night, an old man, while passing along Smithfield street, slipped and fell, receiving severe injuries about the head. He was taken into the drug store of Messrs. Kelly & Yoder, corner of Strawberry alley and Smithfield street. He was partially unconscious, and was conveyed to his residence in a carriage.

Not Out of Danger.

Mr. David Russell, the gentleman who was so severely injured by falling through a trap door in the fourth story of the Gazette building, a week ago, is not, we regret to say, considered out of danger. He has been removed to Passavant's Infirmary, where he is receiving such skillful assistance as may be rendered by the physicians of the house, and the whole train of hospital attendants, but the injury still continues. There is now at times a very slight degree of sensation in the paralyzed limbs, but other symptoms are of so discouraging a nature as to render ultimate recovery by no means certain.

Off the Track.—We learn that on Friday evening last a car on a freight train on the Pan Handle Railroad jumped the track in the Corks Run tunnel. The passenger trains were delayed several hours by the accident.

MY POLITICAL PLATFORM.
Kind friends and patrons all, I ask your close attention.
I have a stock of Boots on hand, thousands of different sizes,
Which I can well afford to sell at the very lowest kind of prices.
A great deal of Boots and Shoes, of French and German leather,
Which now would be afraid to wear, in coldest winter weather.
My Ladies' Boots are of the best, it really is interesting,
That I can sell so very cheap, what c prices still are resting.
My stock is of the very best the trade did ever produce,
My Shoes are far the cheapest, since the prices I shall reduce.
Then, reader, your own advantage and come to me and buy,
And when my stock is all sold out I'll get a fresh one since money is so plenty now, and greenbacks in good credit.
Do come and buy some boots or shoes, you never will regret it.
Cold winter now is at the door, when the old year has ended,
And if your shoes have sprung a leak, do come and get them mended.
Then call at the popular Shoe Palace Emporium,
Nos. 49 and 51 Fifth street.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 250 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story spring house, a Carriage House, a large Implement Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 1 acre, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, admirably suited and nearly for dairy or gardening purposes.
Also, 12½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good spring house and other outbuildings; with a good Orchard in the bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
Also, 14 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
The above three pieces of property lie between the Saw Mill Run and Brownsville Road, adjoining lands of the Messrs. Scaife, and the coal can be reached easily from the road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.
Also, Farm of 123 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, good fruit, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a good blacksmith shop. Forty acres cleared, balance in good timber, fencing generally good, and well watered. Coal, iron, limestone, convenient to churches, public schools and blacksmith shops, therefore will sell personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c., to purchaser immediately.
