The proposition as amended passed, and the resolution was returned to the House.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MARYLAND MATTERS.

The SPEAKER presented the resolutions of the Maryland Republican Convention.

Mr. FERNANDO WOOD remarked he had in his possession the proceedings of an indignation meeting, recently held in New York, in reference to the refusal of the Republicans in the Legislature to grant suffrage to the colored people, and asked whether, if sent to the Speaker, they would be submitted to the House.

The SPEAKER declined to anticipate the question of order.

Mr. THOMAS spoke in support of the Maryland resolutions, illustrating that there was any Republican government in Maryland. It was an engine of infamous tyranny and oppression, which no free people should submit to. He believed Congress had the power and should pass an enabling act giving equal laws to the people of Maryland.

Mr. FLORIDA characterized this claim as monstrous.

Mr. BROOKS argued that the same inquiry of representation complained of in Maryland existed in Maine, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, etc., and that republican government, existed in no state. In Tennessee and Missouri there was no more republicanism than existed under the Turks of Egypt or the Sultan of Turkey. The moral of the United States was likely enough to utter defiance of all republican forms of government, for Nebraska had equal representation there with Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. The proposition of the gentleman from Maryland would amount to the subversion of the whole structure of the government, to the consolidation of a despotism of the worst kind.

Mr. ROGERS denied that the Constitution gave any such power to Congress.

After further debate, the resolutions were referred to the Judiciary Committee.
