THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
PUBLISHED BY
PENNIMAN, REED & CO.,
AT GAZETTE BUILDING,
No. 86 Fifth Street.
E. H. PENNIMAN, T. P. HOUSTON, } Editors
JONAH KING, NELSON P. REED, } Business Manag'rs.
TERMS:
Single Copies ..... $ ..... 3 cents.
Delivered by carrier, (per week) ..... 15 cents.
Mail Subscribers, (per year) ..... $8.00.
Liberal reductions to Newsboys and Agents.
TERMS FOR WEEKLY:
Three Copies, per year, by mail $1 50
Five do do do each 1 25
Ten or more copies, to one address, and one free to club, each 1 15

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1786

Pittsburgh Gazette.

VOLUME LXXXII.—NO. 123. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1857. PRICE THREE CENTS.

CITY ITEMS.

You Will
Find a Dental Establishment at 206 Penn street. Drs. Sill & Gillespie.

New Books,
Received at Pittock's, opposite the Post-office. Miss Ravenel's Conversion from Secession to Loyalty; by J. W. De Forrest, "Elsie Magoon, or the Old Mill House;" a Temperance Tale, "Coming Wonders;" a Book of Prophesy; by Rev. M. Baxter, author of the Battle of Armageddon. "Read's American Grape Culture and Wine making." "The Doctor's Wife, or the Valley of a Hundred Fires." "Aunt Margaret's Story." "On the Border;" by Edmund Kirke. "Beatrice Bolville." "The Bishop's Son;" a Novel of Merit, by Alice Cary. "How to Make Money, and How to keep it."

The Best Known Tonic,
Caswell, Mack & Co.'s Combination of Iron Phosphorus and Callisaya, known as Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Callisaya. The iron restores color to the blood; the Phosphorus renews waste of the nerve tissue, and the Callisaya gives a natural, healthful tone to the digestive organs.
One pint contains the virtue of one ounce of Callisaya and one teaspoonful a grain of Iron and Phosphorus. Manufactured by CASWELL, MACK & CO., New York. For sale by all druggists.

Still Ahead.
Our friend Holtzheimer, at the Continental dining rooms, next door to the Post-office, Fifth street, still keeps ahead of the markets in the way of rare delicacies of the table. No where else in the city can a better or cheaper meal be obtained. Elegant private saloon for ladies, and meals delivered at stores, banking houses and places of business.

At Pittock's,
Opposite the Post-office, can be found all the late magazines, Harper, Atlantic-Godey, London Society, Riverside, Peterson's Lady's Friend, Madame Demorest's, Ballou, Pleasant Hours, Home at Home, Peoples' Magazine, Beadle's, Arthur's, Herald of Health, &c.

To Wholesale Buyers
Of Dry Goods we offer bargains in job lots of Dress Goods, Paintings, Linen Goods, and full lines of Shirting, Shirtings, Prints, Ticking, Checks, &c., all of which we will sell at the very lowest eastern cash prices.
J. W. HARPER & CO.
56 Market street, below Third & Fourth sts.

Pure Drugs!
Pure Drugs!! Pure Drugs!! Pure Drugs!! at Kain & Druitt's, Allegheny.

You Can Buy
Foreign Liquors of all kinds at Joseph S. Finch's Distillery, No. 189, 191, 193 and 195

You Can Buy
95 per cent. Alcohol at Joseph S. Finch's.

You Can Buy
New Hops at Joseph S. Finch's.

CONDENSED NEWS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

—The New York Union League held a special meeting on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of taking into consideration the recent action of Horace Greeley, a member of the organization, in becoming a bondsman for Jefferson Davis. Resolutions of censure were presented and rejected. A substitute finally passed condemning the bailing of Jefferson Davis but not deeming it proper for the Club to stigmatize a member for any such act.

—Latest Mexican advices state that the bombardment of the City of Mexico was still going on, and the city in a fearful condition. No water was to be obtained except from artesian wells, which render but a scant supply. Forced levies of men were being made by Marquez and provisions were scarce. The rumored surrender of Vera-Cruz is untrue, Maximilian being desirous of surrender, but prevented by Mejia and Miramon, who virtually hold him as a prisoner in their hands.

—At Jerome Park, New York, yesterday the first race, premium $200, for all ages, mile and a quarter, was won by Eutaw; beating Luther, Urbana and Millie Twilm; time, 2.15½. In the second race, premium $200, one mile and three-quarters, Monday beat Lodestone; time 3.11. The third race, feather stakes, all ages, two and one-fourth miles, to carry one hundred pounds each, was won by Flatwing, beating Julius, Steward and Captain Moore; time 3.59¼.

—At Philadelphia, yesterday, an important case was heard before United States Commissioner Smith, wherein James J. Hartford, alias John Collins, was charged with defrauding the United States Government of a large sum of money. It was proven in evidence by the prosecution that Hartford had defrauded the Government out of the legal tax on at least twelve worth of distilled liquors by means of executing false bonds. Hartford was held to bail in $5,000.

—George Mason, the Southern spy, suspected of being connected with the plot to assassinate Lincoln, left Toronto, Canada, on Thursday night, for New York, accompanied by an American detective under safe conduct from Seward, to give evidence against Surratt, also in a robbery in which he took part when with Mosby's guerrillas.

—Secretary Seward has signified his willingness to intervene with the English Government in behalf of the Fenian McGhee, who so gallantly withstood the English cavalry in Ireland.

—The New York Commercial says it is asserted that more half to two-thirds of Charleston, is owned by Frazer, Trenholm & Co., and a report also states that last year they paid taxes on fourteen millions of property in South Carolina.

—At Louisville, Kentucky, yesterday, a carpenter named James P. Sawler, working on the fourth story of the New Galt House, now in progress of erection, made a misstep, fell violently to the ground and was instantly killed.

—The Michigan Constitutional Convention yesterday decided not to incorporate in the new constitution a clause making eight hours a legal day's work, but leave it to legislative discretion.

—Among the presents carried by Catholic Bishop Gilmartin to the Popes a silver model of the yacht Henrietta, carrying a cargo of nifty thousand dollars in gold pieces, presented by the Catholics of Cincinnati.

—An emigrant and special freight train collided at Wipton, Canada West, yesterday. One man, three women and a child were killed, and several injured—all Germans.

—Chief Justice Woodward and Judge Thompson, of the Supreme Court, were taken suddenly ill in Court at Harrisburg, on Thursday, with something like cholera. They were better yesterday morning.

—At Detroit, Michigan, David Rose was sentenced yesterday to the State prison for seven years for passing counterfeit United States currency.

—A serious break has occurred in the Erie Canal, just west of Palmyra, which will take ten days to repair.

—Helen Jane, a sister of charity, niece of the late Judge Taney, died recently at Troy, New York.

—It is reported that in consequence of the stringency of family matters in his district, General Ord intends to issue an order postponing the collection of debts for an indefinite period.

—Augusta, Georgia, papers advise the people to keep clear of Judge Kelley, and thus avoid all possibility of sanctioning anything he says.

—The President has telegraphed General Thomas to come to Washington immediately. The removal or transfer of General Sheridan is rumored.

—The President has notified the Boston Free Masons that he will not be able to visit that city to participate in their celebration.

—Dempsey & Horten's cotton warehouse, in New York, was fired by an incendiary on Thursday night. Loss $20,000.

FIRST EDITION.

ONE O'CLOCK.

FROM EUROPE.

Allison, the Historian, Dead.

FENIAN PLEADS GUILTY OF TREASON.

Murder of an American Ship's Crew

RETRIBUTION FOR THE ACT.

Financial and Commercial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

ALLISON, THE HISTORIAN, DEAD.

LONDON, May 24.—Sir Archibald Allison, the historian, is dead.

EPSOM RACES.

The Oaks race, which took place today on Epsom Downs, was won by Hipia.

FENIAN PLEADS GUILTY.

CORK, May 24.—The Fenian prisoner McClure, on being arraigned for treason, entered a plea of guilty.

FRANCE.

VESSEL ORDERED TO NEW YORK.

PARIS, May 24.—The frigate Jean Bart, of the French West India squadron, now at Annapolis, Md., has be n ordered to proceed to New York.

CHINA.

RETRIBUTION ON THE MURDERERS OF AN AMERICAN SHIP'S CREW.

LIVERPOOL, May 24.—Advices from Hong Kong say it is reported that the United States gunboat Adams had landed and burned a town on the island of Formosa, the natives of which murdered the shipwrecked crew of the American ship Rover.

ITALY.

MAXIMILIAN REPORTED DEAD.

VIENNA, May 24.—Rumors are in favor of the death of Maximilian which has been prevailing here, is officially stated to be without foundation.

ARRIVED OUT.

GLASGOW, May 24.—The steamers United Kingdom and Edwin, from New York, have arrived.

SOUTHAMPTON, May 24.—The steamer Teutonia, from New York, has arrived.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, May 24.—Consols, for money, 91 for account, 91½ to 91¾.
LIVERPOOL, May 24.—Noon.—Cotton quiet; Breadstuffs quiet and steady. Corn, 27s. Wheat, Nos. 1 Milwaukee, red 1s. 6d. California, 10s 6d. Oats, 2s 3d. Provisions and lard unchanged. Pork is held for Tallow 51 lower.
LONDON, May 24.—Noon.—Cotton, 6 Bonds, 72; Illinois, 75; Erie, 49.
LATER.—Consols, for money, 91 for account, 91 to 91¼. Illinois, 75 to 75½. Erie, 49 to 49½.
LIVERPOOL, May 24.—Evening.—Cotton quiet; the sales of the week reported at 50,000 bales, including 2,000 for speculation. Breadstuffs dull and heavy