THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

This Court met yesterday at ten o'clock. Hon Thomas Mellon on the bench, Col. L. S. Duff, District Attorney.

THE STAGE COACH CASE.

The case of Peter Stewart, indicted for an assault with intent to rob George Harman, a pedlar, at "Switzer Hall" drinking saloon, on Tuesday night, was resumed. The evidence amounted to about this: Harman fell in company with Stewart at the Bush House, in the Fifth ward, went thence to another drinking saloon, where they were refused liquor. They then proceeded to "Switzer Hall," and there indulged in beer. Harman, at least, was under the influence of excessive drink, and took a seat on a chair, when Stewart sat in his lap. In this situation Stewart took a watch from Harman's fob, and was endeavoring to unfasten the guard from the vest. Harman discovered this, objected to the proceeding, and Stewart left the place. Officer O'Hara, of the Mayor's police, had been watching the parties, was acquainted with Stewart's antecedents, and noticing Harmann's condition, suspected the former had a dishonest design upon him. Accordingly, when he noticed Stewart leaving the saloon, the officer entered and learned from Harman what had occurred. Stewart was arrested, and Harman taken to the Mayor's office to make information. But for the vigilance and prompitude of the policeman, Harman, in his maudlin condition, would have allowed the matter to pass. The question in the case was as to the intention of the defendant. It was not pretended that there was any violence used, or threats made. Stewart's previous bad character was referred to, the fact being mentioned that a short time since he was discharged from the Penitentiary, where he was confined for stealing. As in a case of "good character," we presume that "bad character" in this case settled the "reasonable doubt," the jury finding a verdict of guilty.

The prisoner was called for sentence. Mr. Large, his counsel, thought he might move for an arrest of judgment. There was no proof in the case of an assault, or of violence of any sort, language or otherwise, in fact nothing to justify the belief that there was an intention to steal. The previous bad character of the prisoner was improperly brought into the case to bias the minds of the jury. Judge Mellon thought the case to be one of some doubt, yet not sufficient to cause a new trial to be granted. The jury had passed upon the matter, and there was no complaint that the law had not been properly applied, or that the facts were different than had been stated. Mr. Large said the circumstances of the case, at least, should induce the Court to be lenient. Judge Mellon said he would not impose severe sentence, and wished it understood that the previous character of the prisoner would not be taken into consideration. The sentence of the Court was, that he undergo an imprisonment of one year in the Penitentiary.

LIQUOR CASES.

John Dellar, of the First ward, plead guilty to selling liquor without license, and was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars.

Peter Murphy, of the Sixth ward, plead guilty to two indictments for selling liquor without license, was fined fifty dollars and costs on each, and in default was lodged in jail.

Rody Sweeney plead guilty to selling liquor on Sunday, and was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars, and to a term of twenty days imprisonment in the county jail.

LARCENY OF A WAGON.

Philip Heck, charged with the larceny of a wagon, valued at eighty dollars, from the premises of Mary Ann Lutz, in the Ninth Ward, at twelve o'clock on the night of the 25th of May, was placed on trial. The taking of it did not seem to be in question, and the wagon was traced to defendant's possession. It was claimed for the defense that there was a balance of fifteen dollars due on the wagon, which William Lutz, son of the prosecutrix, swore he would not pay, when defendant said he would claim and take it and did take the wagon. An article of agreement was offered in evidence, stipulating that in case the wagon was not found and delivered within a specified period, it was to be delivered upon the decision of two arbitrators, to be chosen by the parties, either of our market stands, or No. 119 LIBERTY STREET, will receive prompt attention.
