UNITED STATES COURT.

Whisky Fraud Case—Reasons Assigned for the Motion for a New Trial in the Case of Alfred Myers; Convicted Counterfeiting.

The United States Court met on Saturday, at ten o'clock, and resumed the trial of the Lycoming county whisky fraud case, in which Jesse B. Rank, Phineas Barnhart and Ambrose Blanchard are the respondents. The case had progressed to the evidence for the defence, when the Court adjourned till to-day at ten o'clock.

THE STATE'S COUNTERVAILING CASE.

The reasons assigned and filed for a new trial in the case of Alfred Myers, of Venango county, convicted on the 19th inst. of selling counterfeit money, are as follows:

I. Mr. Perrine, of counsel for the United States, in his address to the jury made statements on his own knowledge, which statements were not in evidence, or proved in the trial of the case, or proved in the trial of the witness, Jno. Burke, similar character and credibility of two witnesses for the defense, Messrs. Gurr and Harman; the said statements were calculated and intended to prejudice the cause of the defendant and to have undue weight with the jury. (Free reports and notes of said counsel.)

II. It is respectfully urged that it was well assured in the district Attorney, error to permit the district Attorney, against objection of defendant's counsel, to cross-examine defendant's witness, J. W. Holes, as to his being under arrest for passing counterfeit money—first, because defending counsel were not permitted to ask the government witness, Burke, similar questions, or as to his arrest and confinement in the jails at Warren and Franklin; and, secondly, because said cross-examination of Holes was illegal, and calculated materially to damage the defendant's cause.

III. It is also respectfully urged that the District Attorney should not have been allowed to examine, as he did, the witness Davis touching and concerning the alleged attempts of Mr. Pierce to tamper with said witness. For if such attempts be even been made, they formed no part of the issue; and such testimony was illegal, and was materially calculated to prejudice and to injure the defendant.

IV. The prosecution should not have been permitted to examine the witness, Mr. Perrine, as was done, touching the alleged conversations with Mr. Pierce about the getting out of the way of Charles Johnston and De Haven. Such evidence was illegal, and was greatly calculated to prejudice the defendant's cause.

V. But it was error, after Perrine's evidence was received, not to allow Mr. Carter to be called to prove that Perrine had actually stalked to him, on the cars, coming to Pittsburgh to do this, that he, Perrine, "would fix Pierce, so that he would never practice in Court," or words to that effect.

VI. The defense was very materially prejudiced by allowing any evidence to be given touching the alleged tampering with De Haven and Perrine, for that was not the issue and the facts, if true, would have formed the basis of an indictment or indictments for totally dissimilar offences.

VII. It is respectfully alleged as error, that the Court rejected the offer to prove by Mr. Wiley, that he, Wiley, had a conversation with Simon Benson, in which the latter admitted that he was taking active measures in behalf of Charles Johnston, because Johnston had become a witness against Alfred Myers—and that Benson had written a letter in Johnson's behalf, and that Benson had shown Wiley the answer from some agent of the Government.

Accompanying the reasons was filed the following affidavit:

T. O. Carter, being sworn, saith—I reside at Corry, Penna. Had a conversation with W. V. Perrine, on his way to Pittsburgh to attend the trial of Alfred Myers and Perrine stated to me that he intended to see Mr. Pierce so that he would never practice in the United States Courts; that he would make a job on Pierce that would fix him. And De Haven took the witness after he had testified against Pierce, on Monday, that he had done Pierce a great injury, and he expected, if he could, would send him (De Haven) to the Penitentiary; and that De Haven said he would do what he could to prevent, in all its details, and the home is perfect in elegance of furniture, cannot be surpassed in the comfort and convenience of its guests. The cost of the structure, independent of the ground on which it stands, exceeds three hundred thousand dollars.

THE OPENING.

The citizen thinking such an establishment a credit to the city, and fortunately connected to celebrate the occasion of its opening in a fitting manner. With this view a meeting of the leading citizens was called, committees appointed to make arrangements, and the time for the opening fixed for Thursday evening last. Invitations were sent to prominent citizens of all the cities and towns along the lakes, as well as in the interior of the State, and a general invitation extended to the citizens of Erie to participate. The committees seemed determined to make the day of celebration in every respect, and the success on Thursday evening surpassed the most sanguine expectations.

At an early hour in the evening the hotel, and adjoining buildings, were brilliantly illuminated, and the assembled multitude of lights that brightly sparkled in the numerous windows formed an altogether grand and beautiful spectacle. At nine o'clock the company began to assemble and an hour later the halls were crowded with beauty and fashion, representatives being present from all the leading cities of the East and West, as well as from towns lost on the railroads connecting with Erie. About ten o'clock the presentation of guests to General Reed, the proprietor, commenced and lasted for over an hour. The company was a most brilliant one, the toilettes of the ladies being of the most elegant and tasteful character. After the presentation, the company repaired to the spacious ball room where dancing was indulged in to music discoursed by Reihl's band.

Supper was announced at one o'clock and when the dining room was thrown open, the tables presented a most handsome and tempting appearance, being spread with every delicacy of the season as well as the substantials, while beautiful pyramids, immense bouquets of flowers, and other decorations, added to the beauty of the scene. The supper was a most sumptuous affair, and although over one thousand persons were at the tables during the evening, the stock of provisions showed no signs of exhaustion. After supper, dancing was resumed, and was kept up uninterruptedly until four o'clock on Friday morning, when the brilliant assemblage dispersed to their homes, tired but happy.

The affair was a complete success, and reflects creditably upon the Committee of Arrangements, and the gentlemanly and courteous General Reed, who as host, has shown himself to be not only a gentleman, in every sense of the word, but they know how to keep a hotel."

Committed.—John Rymer and Edward Berwell, charged before Justice Abraham, of Elizabeth, were arrested Saturday, and after a hearing committed to jail in default of $600 bail for their appearance at Court.
