FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, September 9, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 147¾; Eighty-one bonds, 113¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 113¾; Five Twenties, 1864 109¾; Five Twenties, 1865, 110¾; 5-20 Consols, 109¾; Seven Thirties, 107; Ten Forties, 99¾. Stocks—Erie Railroad, 65¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 81; Chicago and Rock Island, 104; Chicago and Northwestern, 48¾; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, 60¾; Fort Wayne Railroad, 105¾; Michigan Southern Railroad, 81¾; New York Central, 106¾; Reading, 105¾; Western Union Telegraph Co., 42¾; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 27¾. Mining shares—Cordaie, 1.25; Gregory, 5.60; Quartz Hill, 1.05; Smith & Parmalee, 5.85; Quicksilver, 27¾. Merchants Union Express Co., 31¾.

Gold opened at. 147¾, and under heavy purchases, went up to 144¾, but closed at 4 p. m. at 145¾. The rise brought out a large number of speculators for a rise, but the majority may believe in a further rise, yet, they are very timid, since the advance is not due to the effect of the President's amnesty proclamation, but the large sales of gold sold short at sales, to 141¾. Government securities are a little lower to-day, though the market was very strong at the opening. Railroad shares were strong in the morning, but quite weak in the afternoon, session of the board; abundance of money keeps up prices. Mining shares are a little off to-day, but steady in the average. Local stocks are offering at concessions. Money scarce.

The debt statement, which we have published, is regarded as extremely satisfactory. The short date obligations, which are comparatively a cause embarrassment to the Treasury, are rapidly disappearing, 46 millions having been paid off during the month. Of the greenbacks four millions have been withdrawn and the coin-bearing debt has been increased 36 millions. The Government gold in the Treasury has fallen from 34 millions to 34 millions, confirming the statement that not only the customs receipts had been sold during the month, but several millions more from the balance reported August 1st. The currency balance has been reduced from 72 millions to 67 millions, and the probability is that a further reduction will take place. As to the coin balance it is not regarded as probable that further sales will at present take place to any considerable amount, for the balance belonging to the government is only 34 millions, and the payments during the next four months will amount to 43 millions, while the customs, receipts can scarcely exceed 40 millions. Of the 43 millions of coin payments above referred to the September interest on the 10-40s will require $4,316,000; the November interest on the 5-20s $24,232,000; the January interest on various bonds $90,000,000; and the redemption of the bonds of 1847 $7,000,000. Besides these sums the payments to Russia on account of the purchase of Alaska, will amount to $7,200,000; and the diplomatic expenditure of the government to $500,000, giving a total of $43,400,000 to be paid in the four months expiring in January, 1868.

—The New York Post of Saturday says: The troubles in two national banks are discussed, but the suspended institutions are too small to exert any influence to attract any special attention. The action of the Comptroller of the Currency in closing up the Brooklyn bank on account of a deficiency in its reserve, is highly approved.

In the legal reserve of 15 per cent. on the banks in small towns and 25 per cent. in large central cities lies one of the most important safeguards of the national banking system, and these institutions must be compelled to comply fully with the requirements of the law in this respect.

The appointment yesterday of a receiver for the defaulting bank in Brooklyn is an admission to all overexpanded banks throughout the country, that if any of them are delinquent on their reserve they will do well to look to it, warning and to replenish their reserves of legal tender without delay. By the exclusion of the weak, rotten parts of our national banking system, and in the rigorous proscription of all which that extension is done—while the operation is possible and safe—while money is easy and no trouble threatens, we gain almost the only guaranty we can hope for at present that that system shall be found elastic and staple and strong in the hours and panics and financial revulsions of the future. To be strong then our banks must make themselves strong now.

The fact became known to the commercial circles of this city yesterday that the First National Bank of Kington, New York had lost a large amount by its president. The consequence was that late night about $6,000 of the bank's paper was thrown out in this city. To-day we have learned the following facts about the case: It appears that Mr. Hasbrouck, the president of the bank, was indebted to the institution to the amount of ninety-one and ninety-two thousand dollars. Mr. Hasbrouck has placed all of his property in the hands of the directors of the bank. He is borne a good character, and his friends cannot learn that he has lost any money in speculation. It is supposed that he must have gradually lived beyond his income, and thus became indebted to the bank. The officers of the institution have promptly made arrangements to redeem their outstanding paper, and the banking and all of their notes held against the bank in this city were redeemed. The bank is solvent, but the stock will probably be slightly affected by the defalcation.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, September 9, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was again pretty active to-day, the sales in the aggregate being larger than those of Saturday, the decline at Antwerp to the contrary notwithstanding. The only perceptible influence exerted by the unfavorable character of the foreign advices was on spot oil, in which there was not a single transaction, and it is probable that a sale could not have been effected unless concessions had been made. For the later months, there was a very good demand at about last week's prices, mainly at 18½c—the bulk of the sales were for March and April, 1868, at same figure. The reported sales were:

1000 bbls, all the year, seller 12½

REFINED—The decline in Antwerp caused the market to open very sluggishly this morning, but a little later the ruling tone on a little better feeling seemed to prevail, and upon the whole there was a fair volume of business, though at a slight decline, compared with Saturday's prices. Private advices from Philadelphia, also in the day, reported a better feeling, and the report that Antwerp had declined to 8½ francs was not confirmed, and it is possible that it was originated for the same purpose that the Texas report was gotten up for on Saturday—the one was a "bull" and the other a "bear." The reported sales to-day were as follows:

1000 bbls 300 each for Sept. and Oct. 24c

1000 " October—buyer 23½c
